PULMONIC SYRUP!

Qualities which are indispensable in a medieine designed for popular use are, certainity of salutary effect, and absence of danger from accidental overdoses.

These qualities are noteworthy in the Pulmo. nic Syrup. Though this medicine has been before the public for many years, and though thousands in every section of the country place their dependence upon it in all disorders of the Throat and lungs, the first instance has yet to be recorded where it has failed to cure or afford relief. Purely vegetable in its composition, it is ad ministered with safety to the most delicate inalid or tender child.

Yet its power over disease is such, that inlarger doses it cures those, complain's for which it is designed, no matter how robust the constitution of the patient. Thousands of cases of phimonary disease that had baffled every expedient of human skill, have been speedily and permanently cured by this remedy.

Certificates of such cares from men of the highest standing in society, man who are too abrewed to be deceived and too conscientious to deceive, have been published through out the land, and every community furnishes living testimonials to the virtue of this medicine, which carnot be doubted or gainsaid.

The complaints which have a common origin, and which the Pulmonic Syrup effectually and speediiy cures, sre Coughs, C lds, Group, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Influenza, Diptheria, Pleurisy, Spitting Blood, Psin in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness Consumption in its early stages, and affections tending to consumption. This medicine is offered to the sick with the utmost confidence that it will be found the sures', sofest and speediest cure fogalf Pulmonio complaints, that has ever been placed within their reach.
