HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district or such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

the Czaritzza. On Sunday morning he preached in the Embassy Church, and in the afternoon held a Confirmation service, when he administered the apostolic rite to forty persons, including two Poles.

The Rev. Canon and Mrs. McClenaghan, of Athlone, in the Diocese of Kilmore, celebrated their golden wedding recently. The reverend Canon has spent the whole of his ministerial life of nearly forty years in the aforesaid diocese. Three of their sons are clergymen and a daughter, who married the Rev. H. Warren, laboured with her husband for many years as a missionary in Japan.

The Rev. C. E. Curzon, the newly-appointed vicar of the new parish of St. Oswald, Millhouses, Sheffield, was welcomed at a large gathering of parishioners. Mr. Curzon, in asking for the sympathy and prayers of his new friends, indicated the work which was before them, and said that although he was their first vicar the foundations of the work had already been well laid by Mr. Ambrose, who for some years had charge of the district. It was stated that the dedication of the parish was of historic interest, being after King Oswald, who aided in converting Northumbria to the Christian faith.

A special service was held lately in Innesarra Church by the Lord Bishop of Cork for the purpose of dedicating several gifts. In addition to the Bishop the two Archdeacons and some six or eight other clergy were present at the service, which was numerously attended. The gifts consisted of a reredos of red marble and Portland stone with a panel of gold mosaic over the altar, and a pavement of marble mosaic with steps of red and white marble erected by his family as a memorial to the memory of the late Rev. Percival Priestley, who was for some fifteen months curate of the parish. There were also two stalls of oak for the clergy, which have been placed at the entrance to the chancel, one of which is in memory of the last incumbent of the parish, the Rev. Prebendary Gabbett, the gift of his son, Mr. H. T. Gabbett, and the other is the gift of the present rector of the parish, the Rev. Treasurer Powell.
