A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

Church Chime Bells

The Rev. Douglas Ellison who is organizing the Railway Mission on the new line of Railway in the Northern part of the diocese of Qu'Appelle. Mr. Ellison reports as follows:—"We have just completed our first fortnight of pioneering along this Yorkton Branch of the C.P.R. Folks have been very friendly all the way; but the Methodists or Presbyterians, or both, are before us in every case, and many of our people seem hopelessly committed to them. Still, we have found a nice remnant, and have had a number of encouraging services and meetings, together with many expressions of genuine thankfulness that the old Church is able to take the field in something like force at last." The need for priests to help in Mr. Ellison's work is urgent. He says: "Please use all your influence to get me six good priests by November. There is a splendid opening here, but without them my hands are tied."

An Ontario POLICYHOLDER

of The Great West Life Assurance Company writes:

"I have just received notice of my profits on my insurance in this Company. I am extremely pleased with the five year profit which has been allotted me, and have been greatly pleased with the treatment accorded me by this Company."

Such letters show that there is the widest appreciation of the low premiums - the high profits and liberal conditions characterizing the Policies of
