

About Christmas Greeting Cards

There are many advantages in ordering your Personal Christmas Greeting Cards now. You wouldn't for worlds forget to send them to your soldier friends overseas; but to have them in time for this they should really be ordered at once.

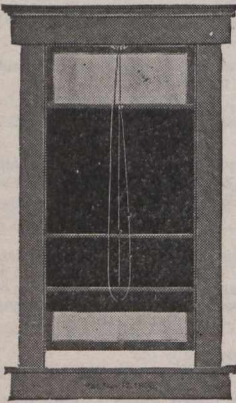

The designs in the bright, fresh colors of Christmas are embossed by hand. You can tell it the moment you see them, for they look very different from the common machine embossed cards.

Samples in many different styles may be seen in the store, or we shall be glad to mail them to you.
