FARM LANDS

PRODUCTIVE FARMS—UNDER IRRIGATION near to Denver, Colorado, with new buildings, at ten annual instalment payments. No payment in advance for the farm. The first instalment is payable after harvest on December 1. Immediate possession of the farm can be had by those who provide for the farm equipment and defray living expenses until after harvest. The prosperity of neighbor farmers proves that farming pays well in that vicinity. Markets are near and good. Price of produce is higher now than ever before. The climate is healthy. The farms are within driving distance of the city. Railroad station, schools and churches are right near. Grain, vegetables, fodder, fruit, livestock and all those crops which are produced in the temperate zone grow on these farms in abundance and had a ready market. Sugar beets pay here especially well. This opportunity is exceptionally favorable for the beginner with small capital to become the owner of a farm. Reduced fare excursions on first and third Tuesdays of each month. Further information is furnished, free to the inquirer, by Lajos Steiner, Commissioner, Union Pacific System, 1304 Garland Bldg., Chicago, Ill. 20-3

WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS PLEASE MENTION THE GUIDE

Buy, Sell or Exchange Through The Guide

The Guide is read in over 35,000 to the best farm homes in Western Canada every week. Hundreds of our readers are using The Guide's "Farmers' Market Place" and find it the very best means of selling purebred livestock, poultry, seed grain, seed implements, etc. A still greater number of our readers find The "Farmers' Market Place" the best place to buy what they require and can secure from other farmers. Guide classified advertisements have set a high standard of integrity and fair dealing, which has contributed more than anything else to the growth of The Guide's classified advertising section. On the other hand advertisers find the customers they are through. The Guide a very honorable class of people to deal with. The Guide is always ready to assist in adjusting differences between those who buy and those who sell through its advertising columns. Complaints from subscribers regarding treatment received from Guide classified advertisers are remarkably few and far between, which is a splendid tribute to the honesty and fairness of those who use The Guide.

The Guide's "Farmers' Market Place" is planned so as to cooperate with our readers in affording them an economical opening to wider markets. A glance at this page will show the many departments into which it is divided. This affords the prospective buyer a quick method of referring to the section in which he will find offerings in the line he intends to buy. Naturally he will look over all the advertisements in that particular section before making his choice.

This means that every advertisement will be read by every prospective buyer. This is the strong advantage of this classified section. Advertising rates are given at the top of this page. Send in your order now accompanied by the amount for the number of lines you wish your ad to run, and let The Guide demonstrate to you, as it has to hundreds of other farmers, how it can sell.
