Rev. J. Batty, of Halifax, preached in the Methodist Church, Kentville, last Sabbath. It was Missionary Sunday and his sermons were both unique and original. To say that they were acceptable, is to say very little indeed. They were far reaching and for charity's sake took in every sinner on the earth as the other men, who not only need the help of God, but the help and christian love, of the whole church of God. He dug a grave for the word religion, and what misery has been wrought in the name religion; and I am ready to read the burial service over that now, when the word Christ takes its place. Mr. Batty is to lecture here in the near future on "Mormonism." He has been there (Mormondom) and knows whereof he speaks. All intending to marry soon should hear that lecture. Com.
