SAFELY HOME

A word to the bereaved relatives and friends of the late Mrs. W. H. Morison.

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh so happy, and so bright, There is perfect joy and beauty In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief are over, Every restless thought passed; I am now at peace for ever, Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly? Trod the valley of the shade; Ah! but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread.

Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still, Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's will.

There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now while life remaineth, You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home, Oh the rapture of that meeting! Oh, the joy to see you come!

CHARLOTTE MURRAY.

Won On Appeal

Mr. Phil Wiltse's appeal from the conviction of Police Magistrate Deacon for an infraction of Athens' early closing by-law came up for hearing before His Honor Judge McDonald last week. Messrs. Beach, Irwin Wiltse, Kendrick, Lamb, and Walter Smith, merchants of Athens, were examined for the prosecution. Jas. O. Gordon, manufacturer of tweeds, woollens, etc., A. M. Chasels merchant tailor, and Bethuel Loverin, village clerk, examined for defense.

Judge McDonald held that the petition on which the by-law was based was insufficient to make it effective and therefore squashed the conviction with costs to be paid by the respondent.

Death of Mrs. Olive Lamb

On Wednesday last, following a long illness, the death occurred of Mrs. Olive Alquire Lamb, at the home of her son, Mr. C. L. Lamb, Elgin street. The funeral service was conducted at the house on Friday, a large number of friends assembling to pay the last tribute of respect to the deceased.

Mrs. Lamb, or "Aunt Olive," as she was generally called by the people of the village, was in her 81st year, but she had been always of such a bright, cheerful disposition that few thought she had attained that age. She met the advances of old age with a smile, and so gained and retained the affections of young and old. To the bereaved relatives, the Reporter extends heartfelt sympathy.

A Popular School

The largest and by far the most progressive business school in Eastern Ontario is the Ottawa Business College, 174 Wellington St., Ottawa, Ont. The recent growth of this institution has been above the average. Since the present Principal, Mr. W. E. Gowing, took charge four years ago the college has more than doubled its attendance until now it has an enrollment of over 350 for the present term.

As the teachers, so the school. Principal Gowing has a wide experience in all branches of commercial work and is harmoniously supported by a large staff of efficient teachers, each one a holder of a Certificate from the Education Department of Ontario. This is the only school in Eastern Ontario where the instructors have a Public School teaching experience supplemented by actual office training.

Those contemplating taking a course in college will do well to pay a visit to this institution, which will prove that the aim of the Ottawa Business College is to impart to the student a practical and thorough business education in as short a time as is consistent with the attaining of this result. The staff has been increased and to meet the requirements of the school another room with a seating capacity of forty is being added to the present large quarters. Notwithstanding this, the principal has not been able to meet the demands made upon him for office help. Write for their illustrated catalogue which will give you full particulars, and be ready for the Winter Term which opens Tuesday, January 3, 1905.

Lindsay-Henderson

At the home of Mr. Thos. Henderson, on Monday evening, his daughter, Miss Florence, was united in marriage to the Rev. Samuel Lindsay. Rev. R. C. Horner, B.O., of Ottawa, head of the Holiness Movement, officiated in the presence of near relatives and friends of the contracting parties. On returning from their trip, they will occupy the Holiness parsonage on Reid street. The Reporter offers congratulations with best wishes.

MRS. J. NIBLOCK of Kemptville, Nurse, has moved to Athens and announces to the town and surrounding country that she has had ten years' experience. Those wishing her services should call at her home on Main street.

Light on the Cause of Women's Headaches.

Women's headaches have different causes. They are often caused by some uterine disorder or run down condition. For such headaches Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are the best possible cure, but for neuralgia and headache peculiar to women, either sick, nervous or otherwise

Zutoo is a Panacea.

For the monthly pains of women it is indispensable. There is no need to suffer monthly pains with this safe and effective remedy within your reach.

Few women are now using the drug course, which in the end causes palpitation of the heart and diseases of the stomach and nerves. They are using Zutoo instead and avoid the risk.
