

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., NOV. 9, 1917

Editorial Brevities.

Examination by a medical officer does not fulfil all the requirements of the Military Service Act. All men, whether placed in medical category A, B, C, D, E, must follow up the medical examination by going to the post office and filling in either the form for service or the claim for exemption. Failure to take this course will lead to trouble. This is the last day for registration.

Much interest is being aroused by the Flying Match which has been arranged to take place at Grand Pre on Monday afternoon of next week, under the direction of the Kings County Agricultural Society, in celebration of the 125th anniversary of the organization of that grand old Society. The minutes of the Society show that a match was held under the same auspices in the year 1824 and proved to be a great success. The ACADIAN is heartily in sympathy with such contests and is glad to see the idea revived after so long a time. We believe it will prove an incentive to our young men and be of great help to the farming industry. Let everybody who can do anything to add to the success of the undertaking get in line. See notice in another column.

King's County Children's Aid Society.

The annual meeting of the King's County Children's Aid Society was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night, and though not large, there was a very representative gathering. The president, G. W. Miller, occupied the chair, and after a brief address called upon Mr. Stairs for his report. The year had been a busy one for him. Ten children had been given into the care of the Society and foster homes had been found for them and many other cases had been investigated.

The treasurer, Mr. Patriquin, gave his report, showing that about $175 had passed through the Society with a deficit of about $100.

A finance committee was appointed and an immediate attempt will be made to wipe out the debt and place the Society on a better financial basis.

A committee was also appointed to ask more aid from the municipality. The officers for last year were re-elected for 1918.

Mrs. Sutherland, matron of our detention home, with a little child, a ward of the Society, and Dr. Elliott told the wonderful things that had been done for this little one.

Among those taking part in many discussions were Rev. Mr. Friggens, Rev. Mr. Bone, Mr. North, Mr. Blackburn, who drove from Canada to be present.

Every one expressed the highest appreciation of the invaluable work that is being done by Mr. Stairs.

Satisfied Mothers.

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. The satisfaction she derives from their use is wonderful. They are easy to give the baby; their action is prompt and thorough and above all they are absolutely harmless. Concerning them Mrs. Jean Dechaine, Lacordaire, Sask., writes:—I am well satisfied with Baby's Own Tablets. I had no trouble in giving them to my baby and they have promptly cured her constipation. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Fight With the German in the Air.

The following is an interesting extract from a letter recently received from Lieut. Raymond Haley, who is with the Royal Flying Corps in France.

Lieut. Haley graduated from Acadia in 1915. Soon after the war broke out he enlisted with the 26th (Reserve) Battalion, and was afterward transferred to the 85th, and was present at the battle of Vimy Ridge. Soon after this he was transferred to the R. F. C. 9th Squadron, and flew with this squadron on the Flanders front.

"I was in a rather bad affair early yesterday morning on 'flash' patrol which means cruising up and down just behind our lines watching for Hun batteries to flash, sending down calls on the wireless and getting our batteries going on them. I went up at 5.45 with a new pilot. The sun was very bad, blinding in our eyes, so that we could scarcely see anything on the ground.

We had only about fifteen minutes to complete our three mile tour when we were suddenly attacked by five albatross scouts in formation. Only three came after us, the other two stayed about for protection. The scrap lasted two or three minutes, but seemed like ten. They each took turns diving and firing, and at each I got off a good burst, which kept them off. All the time my pilot kept his nerve and kept zig-zagging to put them off their shot. While I was changing drums, one got in a good burst, and I felt the machine lurch to one side, and thought the pilot was bit, but I soon had my second drum going and they all turned tail for the Hun lines, and I gave them a farewell burst just to let them know we were still in fighting trim. Then I turned around to see if the pilot was bit, and found to my joy that he was all right; but the poor old machine was a sad cripple. The pilot had the control lever to the left-hand corner, holding it there with both knees and both hands. I looked around and found that our searion control had been shot away on one side, which gave us a right bank, so that even with the control lever away to the left we were still slipping and had a list of about 30 degrees. I was contemplating getting out on the left wing to balance it. I found that four or five wires had been shot away, also a bullet had gone through the wing screen, and must have passed about two inches from both our heads.

After hours, it seemed, we reached the aerodrome and had to make a bit of turn for fear of getting in a spin. Eventually, we made rather a good landing, but when we touched the ground you could feel everything give way. The engine had been bit, too, and gave a final cough and stopped just as we touched the ground.

These were so holes through the machine, two through the propeller, several through the fuselage and, in fact, the machine was a wreck and we can't yet understand how we got back. The bullets had passed all around us, but we were not hit. I must have been rather lucky with some of my shots, or they wouldn't have cleared off so quickly. In all I fired 200 rounds with my machine-gun, so hope some of them made a mark. It was a scrap."

Lieut. Haley is a son of R. G. Haley, Esq., of St. John, and a nephew of Professor Haley of Acadia. A younger brother, Bernard, who spent the Freshman year at the College, is with a Signal Corps at the front.

Acadia Seminary Holds Faculty Recital.

Two musical events of interest have taken place recently under the auspices of Acadia Seminary. The first was the Pianoforte Lecture Recital given by Mr. Edward MacDowell. Mrs. MacDowell has been heard in Wolfville, and any characterization or added appreciation of her work would be superfluous. Suffice to say she is an artist.

The second event was the Faculty Recital, which was given before a very large audience in College Hall, Friday evening, Nov. 2nd. Mr. McKee, director of the Conservatory, was the accompanist of the evening. Miss Besse Radie, violinist, was at her best in a group in which she played selections from Mierob, Rossini, Beethoven and Strauss. Miss Boone, reader, showed her careful training in her selections from Noyes, and demonstrated her ability as an interpreter in a well rendered scene from "Quality Street" from Barrie.

Miss Bunting, pianist, delighted the audience in Theme Varié, by Paderewski, and won further applause by her rendering of her second group, in which "The Lark" and Chopin's Waltz (A. B. T., op. 34, No. 1) were given with finesse and warmth.

Miss Arlen McKenney, contralto, captivated her audience with her Recitative and Aria from Carmen, and was (as were all the other performers) compelled to reappear to a well deserved recall. Miss McKenney's second group showed enthusiasm. Her rendering of Cyril Scott's "Lullaby" was a fine piece of work, finely and sympathetically done. The universal comment is: "One of the best recitals, if not the best, in years."

What Will Canada's Answer Be?

OVER in the sodden trenches amid the bursting shells and the roar of artillery where Canada's boys are fighting and dying, —they are waiting for Canada's answer when the sale of Victory Bonds begins.

CANADA'S soldiers expect that we at home will put up the millions they need to keep on fighting, —the millions they must have to win Victory for freedom, home and Canada.

What answer will Canada make? What answer will you make? Shall it be said that Canada spares not her sons from the sacrifice of battle, yet withholds her dollars to give them victory?

Rather will it be said that Canada once more, for the fourth time in three years, cheerfully puts up her millions upon millions for the cause of freedom, righteousness and justice. Canada's answer must be,

—that the Canadian hand to the plow of Victory holds steadfast and firm.

—that Canada is in deadly earnest when she says the "last man and the last dollar."

That is the answer Canada will give to our boys in the trenches, our kinsmen in Britain, and our Allies everywhere.

That is the answer we will give to the Huns who thought and said that Canada would desert the Empire before she would fight or pay.

Every bond you buy is an answer. Let the millions of answers from Canada's loyal men and women make a chorus of Victory to ring around the world.

The Military Service Act, 1917

DON'T DELAY! Do It TODAY

THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT is passed; the Proclamation issued October 13th. It is now the bounden duty of every man in Class One to report for service or claim exemption. This includes all bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before January 1st, 1917.

What To Do

Go to your Post Office and ask for the form for reporting for service or for claiming exemption. The form contains clear instructions for filling in. Do this not later than NOVEMBER 10th.

Beware of the Last Minute Rush

With so many thousands of reports and claims to be dealt with, the rush of Class One Men will grow heavier day by day. You will waste less of your time and serve your own best interests if you avoid the inevitable rush on the last days.

The law is being enforced with the Government and the People firmly behind it. Obey the law. Do it today.
