Police Court

Mr. F. J. Morris, K.C., presided this morning.

James Moore who says he came from Woodstock, N. B. and James McKay says he left the Country when a very small boy were before the Court charged with disorderly conduct and vagrancy. These men were arrested a couple of weeks ago at Grand Falls for begging and have since been held by the police. They belong to the tramp and undesirable class which is quite a brotherhood "Up Along." They will be deported to wider fields of operation at the earliest possible date. Moore is suffering from heart trouble and according to the doctors certificate may drop dead at any moment. McKay is a cripple, his left arm being paralyzed. A husband for neglecting to support his wife and who gave bonds on May 12th., failed to live up to his agreement. The bond was forfeited and he will have to pay the woman $4.00 per week or go to the penitentiary.

BIG FISHING

Flower's Cove (to-day) Slight westerly winds with rain and fog.

All the trap fishermen on the local grounds had big fishing this morning. Some of the traps were filled. The fishermen are hopeful of a big weeks work.

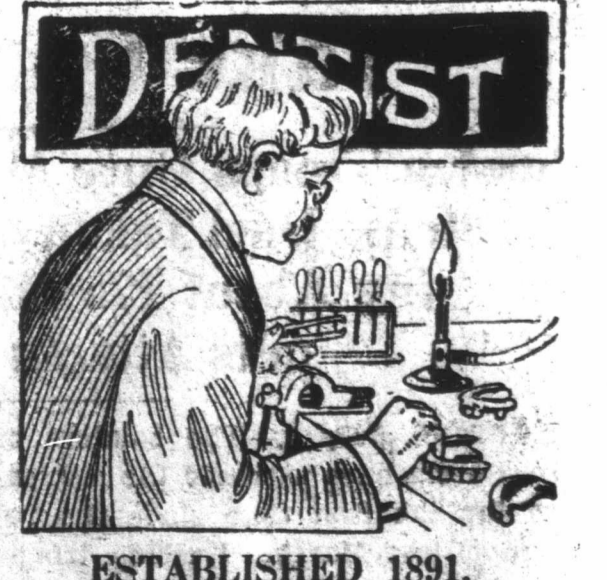

Married at Halifax, N. S. by the Venerable Archdeacon Armitage, Claire, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ellis, to Andrew H. Rennie, of Montreal.

Though the elevation of a civilian to the rank of major-general is by no means without precedent, there is no parallel in modern times to the recent appointment of Sir Eric Geddes as vice-admiral. No civilian has ever been entered in the Navy in such a high position, which means that he takes precedence of men who have been in the service for forty years.

Sir Eric's promotion to this position is doubly remarkable in view of the fact that as Director-General of Military Railways at the Front he was made a major-general, though he had never been a soldier.
