The Bearbrook Murder.

On Saturday it was reported in Ottawa that a murder had occurred at Buckingham, a man named Wm. Hency shooting a constable named Morrison, who was endeavoring to arrest him. Further particulars have now been received and it appears that the affair took place at Bearbrook, in Russell county, some twenty-two miles from the city. The facts of the case are as follows:—About 1:30 o'clock on Friday afternoon, Morrison, who is the owner of a stallion, was engaged at Mr. Gilbert Nelson's, a farmer, residing two miles from his own place, when Wm. Hency and harris came up to the gate and told Morrison, who was in the barnyard, that they wanted him. Morrison replied that he would come as soon as he got through what he was at, and Hency and Harris waited. When Morrison went down to the gate Hency swore at him and dared him to arrest him now. Morrison replied, 'Hency, I have no warrant to take you, and I want nothing at all to do with you.' Harris made a race at Morrison for the purpose of beating him, but was caught and thrown down by a pile of logs near the gate. When Harris got him he attempted to seize hold of Morrison by the legs for the purpose of throwing him down. Morrison clinched him, and while they were in this position Hency drew a revolver and shot Morrison in the left side, the ball lodging in the spine of the back. After the shooting Morrison walked from the gate to Nelson's house, two acres distant. He lay down on the sofa, but his wounds were so pain that the was carried out into the yard and laid down under a tree. A doctor was sent for and on his arrival declared that the wound was fatal. Mr. Nelson wanted to send to Ottawa for a doctor, but was told that it was no use, as nothing could seve Morrison's life. This proved to be the case; he lingered on in great pain for some twenty-four hours, when death put an end to his sufferings. An inquest was held, and a verdict of 'wilful murder' rendered against Heney.

Haunted Me.

Debt, poverty and suffering haunted me for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop BITTERS and commend their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have been sick a day since; and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop BITTERS for less than one doctor's visit will cost.—A Workingman.

Epps's Coooa.—Grateful and Consontens.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by careful application of the fine properties of well selected coooa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately-flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack us wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and properly nourished frame,"—Civil Service Gazatte.—Sold only in packets labelled.—"JAMES EFPS & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London, Eng."
