READVILLE HANDICAP TROTTERS START TODAY

SPORTS OF DAY

Baron Alcone is the Favorite by 4 to 1 in Trotting Division of Classic $50,000 Event---Uhlan Will Not Start as he is to be Saved For His Race With Hamburg Belle on Friday---Pacing Division Will be Started Tomorrow.

The trotting division of the Read-ville $50,000 Handicap will be raced today at the Massachusetts track. Frank G. Trott writing in the Bos-race: Uhlan Will Not Start. "Thian will not start in the Derby, is owner being willing to sacrifice

This owner being willing to sacrifice his owner being willing to sacrifice his chances for the $15,000 prize in order that the black fellow may take the word on Friday as fit as possible. This in a way is a pity, for the true test of the handicap system is now lost. Uhlan, while he may not have won, would have been a factor, and if the European way of racing is practic al in this country he was the horse to demonstrate it. The trotting division of the Derby naturally holds first place on the Read-ville programme. To the winner will sog $15,000, while the 14 horses follow ing will draw from $3,000, to $700 each which means a race worth seeing. At this distance it looks as though there would be more people on hand than saw Alem Winter carry off that $300. 000 plum a year ago. The final payment was made on 40 horses. San Francisco, Snomma Girt, Lady Jones, Sterling McKinney, Jack Genteel H, Miss Winter, Klondike,

The prettiest colors and combinations of colors ever made up in these garments. Just the thing now for the cool evenings. Stylish, too.

The fillers in on Tuesday are the 2.13 trotters and 2.06 and 2.11 pacers. Alice Roosevell looks the best of the trotters, with the Cox entry the most liked of the slow pacers. Geers un-beaten gelding, Walter W, meets his hardest field in the fast event. Green Pilot has a record of 2.05%, and The Friend is also a starter. There is con-siderable anxiety to see the pony perbeaten gelding, Walter W. meets his hardest field in the fast event. Green Filot has a record of 2.05%, and The Friend is also a starter. There's con-siderable anxiety to see the pony per-form, for it is two years now since he appeared in public and his condition is known only to Bob Brawley. As good as Walter Cox had him before he went lame, the pacer does not live that can beat him a mile." RATING OF TROTTERS.
