Pets Are at Work This Afternoon

Open the N. B. & Maine League at Bangor—The Fredericton Representatives will put up a Stiff Fight to Start the Season at the Head of the Honor Roll —Play at Bangor Again Tomorrow

The New Brunswick & Maine League is due to get underway to-day for what promises to be the most successful baseball season in the history of the game in the east.

The Fredericton club is opening at Bangor and the St. John team plays at St. Stephen-Calais. The Fredericton club remains in Bangor for tomorrow and the St. Stephen and St. John clubs go on to St. John for the opening there. On Friday the St. Stephen-Calais club will open the season in Fredericton.

The way the schedule for the first few days of the circuit is made up it will probably make some of the Fred-eriction players wish they had strayed some other part of the world to play ball. Following the two games the Pets will leave Bangor about 3:30 o'clock on Friday morning, thus breaking up their night's sleep, and they are due to arrive here at noon that day. They play here that afternoon and the next morning start at 6:30 o'clock for St. John for two games returning to Fredericton that evening for a couple more games on Monday.
Joe Callahan used to call it the "E.
& L. League," when he first struck here in 1911 (Meaning Early & Late), but he'll be apt to name it the "24-Hour circuit" this time. Under the circumstances, the Pets will have a hard time to play up to their best standard on the opening days here.

HIGH SCHOOL GAMES.

St. John and Fredericton High to Play
Two Games Here Saturday.

The arrangements for having St.
John High School play two games here on Saturday, the 24th, with the Fredericton High School have been completed. The games will be played in the morning and afternoon at Seal-ey's Grove. The games promise to be well attended, as this is the first time in the history of the schools that they have met on the diamond.

ST. JOHN TEAM

The Line-Up in the Game with Calais-St. Stephen Today—Secure Pitcher Swallow.

(St. John Telegraph.)
The owners of the Marathons were in communication with Manager Leonard last evening and the long-distance telephone to Calais. The team reached Calais at 8 o'clock last evening from Portland, Me., where they played last evening. The team of the Springvale team. All are well and in good shape for fast ball. Up to last night Mr. Leonard made no statement as to the game, but Manager Leonard assures the management that this is not correct, as he will be with the Greeks.

The team will line up against Calais-St. Stephen today as follows: Dedrich, Sharkey, Welch and Swallow, pitchers; Curtis and Bell catchers; Mulligan, first base; Nolan, second base; O'Brien, third base; Waterhouse, shortstop; Hoffman, Riley and Little in the outfield. This is regarded by Manager Leonard as a strong team, and one that will keep the other members of the New Brunswick and Maine League hustling.

They will play at Calais this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will reach St.
John tonight in readiness for the return game with Calais-St. Stephen tomorrow. A change has been made in the staff of umpires. It was found that Labelle could not report and an umpire named McCann was secured in his place. He will officiate at Calais today and will come here with the team tomorrow.

AT HIS OLD TRICKS.

Keaney Chased Out of Rhode Island Game for Umpire Batting.

Frank Keaney is again in the limelight as an umpire batter. This time he is thrown out of a game in the ninth inning with Woonsocket and Whitinsville in the Inter-City League in Rhode Island "Tacks" did not like the decision of Umpire Trainer and when his language became too herry he was chased off the field. Woonsocket lost the game 7 to 6. Keaney had a hit and a run and stole two bases, but in his fielding was a little off, having two errors in six chances.

LEAGUE GAME TO-NIGHT.

St. Dunstons and Imperials Will Clash at College Field.

The second game of the Celestial League will be played this evening at College Field and the majority of the opposing teams. The game will be played in College Field and no doubt a large crowd will be on hand to witness it. The umpires will be Fraser Hazlett and Bob Phillips and the game is scheduled to start at 6:45 sharp. Allen and Chappell will be the batteries for the Imperials while Gar-vie and McLean will perform for the St. Dunstons.

Celestial League Meeting.

The meeting of the Celestial League was held last evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of rendering a decision on the protest entered by the St. Dunstons team with regard to their game on Monday evening with the High School, but no action was taken and the meeting adjourned.
This matter will be taken up at some later date.

HOOF PRINTS.

The Dover railbirds think Walter Cox will gather in some of the futurity money with the two-year-old Lady Wanket, 2:23½, and the three-year-old Peter Johnston, 2:20½.
Artie Frost is at Libertyville, Ill., track with King Daphne, 2:07½, and Annie B., 2:10½, after a winter at Phoenix, Ariz.

Major Brian, 2:04½, will be sent after the record for year-old pacers of 2:09½, now standing to the credit of Johnston, 2:06½.

Jim B., 2:12½, one of the Murphy stake pacers and by many regarded as the best of the stable, once worked on a garbage wagon in Albany.

Among the entries in the 2:12 trot of Goshen are The Wanderer, 2:08½, Baronage, 2:11½, and out of Lulu Worthy, 2:15½, the star trotter of the Michigan Circuit in 1912 and now in the Cox stable, is up to a mile in 2:30.

Tom Marsh is working a Cochato two-year-old of his own breeding at the Dover track that is a real trotter.
It is a black filly out of a mare by Ponce de Leon, 2:15, and is eligible to all of the futurities.

Tom Murphy is said to regard the M. & M. of last year as one of the four hardest races he ever won.
There is a belief among the majority of circuit followers that it was the easiest win of his career.

The year book gives the record of Mundy C., one of Murphy's M. & M. candidates at 2:23, but the Board of Appeals has decided that it is half a second slower, which makes her eligible for the Detroit classic.

Leon McDonald has worked the M.
& M. favorite, Star Winter, around 2:20 and the talent at Indianapolis say the New Bedford trotter has everything a good stake horse should have, speed, manners, gait, stamina and class.
The $3,000 Tennessee is to be open to all pacers.
Lexington offers $3,000 for the free-for-all trotters.
George Spear has been temporarily reinstated.
Ed. Rowe, Bayard Boyeson and A.
H. Drury are training at the Athol track.

MY WORST BLUNDER

By SHERWOOD MAGEE.
Premier Hitter and Outfielder, Philadelphia Nationals, Who is Considered One of the Most Dangerous and Brilliant Men in the Game.

From my observation of bad breaks most of them are the result of forgetting the game and paying attention to some opponent. If you can get an opposing player to arguing or quarreling, he is bound to get his mind away from the game and make mistakes that would be impossible under any other circumstances. I used to try it on opposing pitchers and on batsmen when I was on the bases, and it worked well. If I could get one really angry with me by talking to him or "chewing" with him, he was gone. And the worst mistake I think I ever made came through just that sort of thing. Johnny Evers of the Cubs is one of my best friends, but on the ball field he is a crab and always at some one. I picked him as a mark, because I knew his weakness for argument and talking to opposing players, and for two years we had regular rows every time I came to bat or got on the bases. When he was at bat or on bases I was too far out to be heard, so we had peace. I had an idea that as he was excited it wouldn't be hard to get his "goat," and I guess as soon as I started he came to the same conclusion about me. Anyhow, it got to be a game and we were after each other all the time. If either of us got anything on the other we never stopped.

One day I was on first and a fly ball was hit out. Of course as I was running at top speed I couldn't see where the ball was, but I saw Evers tear over toward second, dive as if he was trying to reach a ground ball, and stumble and fall, kicking up a lot of dust. I tore on as hard as possible, thinking a base hit had gone past him, and I was almost to third, going at top speed, when I heard him yelling at me and everyone laughing. Schultz had caught the ball on the fly, tossed it back to Chance, and I was doubled up. Evers made the most of it and he mentioned it every time I moved. I couldn't say a word back because he had tricked me cleverly, and I had to wait my turn. It came just two days later—was on first again with no one out, and was running on a hit-and-run play when the batter hit the ball hard. From the crack it sounded like a base hit, but of course I couldn't see the ball. Evers went diving down toward second and argu-mented between first and second, and pretended to be reaching for the ball, and threw up a lot of dust. I backed up fast toward first base talking to him something like this:
"You four-foolish runt, you pulled that on me the other day. What do you think this is, you crab?" and a lot more. All the time I was trotting backwards toward first. Suddenly I heard a yell from the catcher. Schultz had trapped the ball instead of catching it. The batter wasn't running out the hit. Schultz threw to first, retreating the runner, and I was trapped between first and second and doubled up again. I was sore enough to bite some one, but it taught me not to lose sight of the ball and not to waste time talking to opposing players, especially when there is some one on the opposing team who is likely to turn a trick. I evened up with Evers before the season was over—and he wants to tell his worst play a mark, because I knew his weakness

balls and made to the Indian boys at St. Mary's Mission in the State of Washington. This was done upon request of Prof. Courtney of the Mission, who asked Connie if he could send a few "lucky bats" to the Indian boys.
The St. Louis Cardinals in making explanations in Brooklyn, say the reason they fell down in Boston and did not make a cleanup was because of the marvelous fielding of the Braves' little shortstop. According to the St. Louis players, a shortstop never before had saved a game. Mar-ville put up against the Cardinals.

BASEBALL JOTTINGS.

N. B. and Maine opener today.
Fredericton at Bangor and St. John team plays St. Stephen-Calais team today. Scotty Ingerion, who was released to Indianapolis by the Boston last season, has been sold by the Hoosiers to Louisville. Ingerion is a great pinch hitter, but was regarded as too slow by Indianapolis as a regular.

Connie Mack does much in the way of charity, which people generally hear nothing about. Recently he sent a lot of uniforms, hats, and express a lot of uniforms, hats,

Choice Suits

OUR SUITS this Spring are blooming fairer than ever before!

That's going some, surely!

We always pride ourselves on our lines of Suits, but this Spring we have certainly beaten our own record.

There are so many different patterns and new models that we cannot undertake a detailed description.

There are handsome Grays, Browns and Olives in many new mixtures of fabrics.

The Soft Roll, narrow shoulder, form fitting English style Coat with narrow Trousers, is in evidence. Then there are many styles in more conservative models.
