BARTON Y.M.U.

Mock Parliament Last Night and Debate Next Week.

The regular meeting of Barton street Y. M. U. was held last night, and took the form of a mock parliament, over 40 members being present. Mr. Chas. A. Berry was elected speaker. A few of the prominent men in the government were: Hon. John Skellen, premier; Mr. J. F. Walker, minister of fisheries and marine; Mr. H. J. Mummery, minister of labor; Mr. Go. Head, secretary of state; Mr. Stewart, minister of agriculture. Mr. N. E. Zimmerman was the leader of a fighting opposition, and had in his support Mr. Jack Bryers, Mr. C. Elkington, Mr. R. Lancefield. The business of the meeting was gone through in a very expeditious manner. The debates were interesting and instructive. On the last division the government was defeated, and will resign.

The reins of government will be taken by the opposition at the next session.

Next Tuesday the young men of this church will debate with the Sodales Club of Central Church. The subject will be: "Resolved, that the abuses incident to party politics are greater than the benefit." The meeting will be open to the public and a large crowd is expected. marine; Mr. H. J. SALE OF FIREARMS.

Must Keep Track of Sales, Says Mr. McPherson.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, March 24.-W. D. McPherson has a moral idea in connection with the sale of firearms. Selling firearms under Mr. McPherson's new jidea will be governed by very much the same regulations as the selling of dangerous poisons by druggists. The shopkeeper may not sell to anyone under 18 years of age, or to anyone whom he may consider irresponsible. Then when the sale is made he must enter in a book the name and address of the purchaser. "In this way we will be able to keep some track of where these dangerous implements are," Mr. McPherson said. with the sale of firearms. Selling

Question of the Exemption From Taxation of Casket Co.

-Objections Heard.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, Ont., March 24.-The City of London's bill was considered by the Private Bills Committee this morning. The chief point of interest was the city's desire to exempt the Globe Casket Company from taxation. The company was burned out some time ago with heavy loss, and Mayor Steveley and several others spoke of the advisability of exempting the company. John D. Ivey, solicitor for the company, spoke somewhat bitterly about the London fire appliances and stated that they had to pay $432 all around on insurance. They pay $432 all around on insurance. Lacy also had, he said, received very advantageous offers from other municipalities to go there.

John D. Parsons very strongly opposed it on the grounds of principle, and said that the company did not need exemption. It was shown, however, that the committee had done a good deal of exempting. Hon. Adam Beck said the was exceptional, not bonusing, but nerely assisting.

WOMAN DEAD

Who Was Born on the Field of the Battle of Waterloo.

Detroit, Mich., March 24.—Mrs. Mary Ann Sullivan, who was born on the Field of Waterloo while the battle was riging, is dead at St. Luke's Hospital, where she had lived for the past eleven years. King Edward caused an investigation to be made into Mrs. Sullivan's claim that she was the only living woman who was born on the field and voucher for its correctness. Mrs. Sullivan and her husband lived for some time in Montreal, the latter afterwards dying in London, Ont.

Struck by a Train.

Struck by a Train.

West Toronto, March 23.—A serious accident befell Mrs. Barry, an elderly lady, near the C. P. R. station this morning. Mrs. Barry was on the way to the station to take a train to London and stepped on the right of way at the head of Union street just in time to be struck by an east-bound train running at a moderate rate of speed. She sustained a bad scalp wound and was badly shaken up, but her recovery is expected.

There is a proposal to establish a prize of $4.000 or $5.000 for the best band playing at the Toronto Exalistion next summer.

KIDNAPPERS OF WHITLA CAUGHT.

the police locked her up for a few Shortly before daybreak Chief Kohler escorted her into his private office, and then began a grilling examination of her. She appeared frightened when he threw the nurse's gown over her shoulders. She was angry, too, and at tempted to pull the chief's hair. She became reconciled in a few minutes, and talked about the kidnapping in a commonplace manner.

"I used to get the newspapers every day," she said. "My, I had a lot of fun reading the prophecies of the different sleuths and the near sleuths. There was a lot of things charged up to the folks who had the boy that was not true."

That the woman was clever and of That the woman was elever and of good education was proven by her conversation. She carefully warded off every advance that the police made which might have caused her to answer questions which she should not have enswerded. She has not confessed that she kidnapped the boy—far from it—she has said she was in charge of him, but that is as far as her story goes.

As she tripped out of the door of the chief's office and encountered a crowd of newspaper men in the hall, she said:

FRENCH STRIKERS

Declare They Have Won Great Victory Over Government.

Paris, March 24.—The leaders of the Socialist party and the Socialist newspapers comment with jubilation on the outcome of the strike of the French telegraphers and postmen. They call it a victory over the government, which the government can never retrieve. The Humanite describes the outcome as the "most revolutionary event since the Commune."

L'Action says it marks the entrance of trades unionism into the constitution, and will make the Republic of to-morrow what the revolutionary forefathers of the service of the says goes," he remarked once to the police.
