

warder. this was the first er Four had ever given to me?' she loring its firmness, with tears. to oo, never tear. Two days after his visit to the prison Alice Walmsley sat in her cell, sewing tirelessly. The morning had opened like all other mornings of her imprisonment; there was nothing new, nothing to suggest a new train of theoretic of thought. Some one who walked along the corridor about ten o'clock had seem-ed to besistate a moment at her cell, and then had passed on. The gov-ernor, she thought, who had glanced through the watch grate. his was true : the hand that had pped the flower into the watch-e had done so unseen. The ler only knew that orders had mensioned from the superner that ly knew that orders had wed from the governor that Four was not to be dis or the flower taken away. or closed again, and Alice n flower to her lips and Bome one had pitied her, so the flower taken away.

ell. It was not u

but perhaps every princer in the heart closed, and her lips bears. As an one thought. This brought the warder to do a constraint of the origination that a severe face but a kind or one all the driver of the origination that was sented. The origination that was sented. The sentence of the sentence of the sentence of the origination that was sented. The sentence of the origination that was sented. The sentence of the origination that was sented. The sentence of the origination that sentence of the origination that sentence of the sentence of t

it. Messrs. Scott & Bowne believed in advertising their preparation from the start, the same as they have always believed in elevating its standard to the highest degree of perfection pos-sible. Not having much money, their advertising during the first few

With streaming eyes she sank upon her knees by the bedside, and pour-ed her full heart in passionate prayer. And, as she prayed, kneeling on the stones of her cell, with 'bowed head, the beautiful moon had risen high in the valut of night, and its radiance flooded the cell, as if God's blessing were made manifest in the lovely re-flection of the window bars, failing upon the mourner in the form of a year 185 me time that they began m of a upon the mourner in the form cross. It was long past mis when she lay down to rest. ted a f

ne. The opening, which de towards the wedge. A utside could see a large part all, while the prisoner could the eye of the warder. As wars wore woollen slippers, the the dig ugil of the night. But her the and the large part ars wore woollen slippers,

(TO BE C

JOHN T. MCKENZIE

EXPLANATION TO MY CUSTOMERS.—This ISS3 SUMMER ARRANGEMENT.

168 VICTORIA ROW

AND AS TWICE LARGE

AS AS. LIFE I NATURALI Rstablishmen

Star Tailoring Establishment, London Ho

Prince Edward Island Railway. 1893 May 24th, 1893, Irains TRAINS FOR THE WEST. TRAIN PROSTERS #315 STATIONS. STATIONS. A M P M 6 00 2 40 6 14 3 01 6 48 3 50 A. M. 8.19 0 55 7 15 TRAINS FOR THE EAST. STATIO STATIO P M.

(LIMITED) -ARE GIVING-

-IN--

FURNITUR

BARGAINS

LO

All of

BUY

Buy you

The sa

GREAT

. UNBWOILT