POSTAL TELEGRAPHS.

Reduction of Fifty per cent to Great Eritain.

On and after January 1st, 1912, the Newfoundland Postal Telegraphs will transmit, subject to the conditions of acceptance, messages written in plain language at a reduction of 50 per cent. from the charges for an ordi nary message.

The message must be written in French, or in the language of the ountry of origin, or in the language of the country of destination. The sender must declare which of these languages is used. The sender must write before the address and pay the charge on one word for the letters LCF, LCO, or LCD, according to his declaration. This is a stipulation of the European Governments, and of the Postmaster General of Great Brit-

The message must have an address and a text; a signature is optional with the sender, but we will not be able to make unpaid enquiries about the senders of unsigned messages. The address may be a cable address; house and street numbers may be expressed in figures.

The text must be written entirely in plain language without figures, commercial marks, groups of letters, abbreviations or mutilations. Numbers except in the address must be written in words. Genuine words, spellaccording to established usage with not more than fifteen letters, will be charged as single words. Messages written in the manner prescribed will be counted and charged

The messages witten in the mainter prescribed with be counted and charged according to the International Regulations.

The messages will not be subject to artificial delay in transmission or delivery; their transmission will only be delayed until full rate messages have been despatched, and not more than twenty-four hours.

Under these provisions a cable message of four chargeable words may be sent for a minimum charge of fifty cents, eight words for one dollar and twelve words for a dollar and a half.

Registered addresses admitted and recommended Until further notice only messages for Great Britain and Ireland car be transmitted at the reduced rate, but it is hoped to announce extensions to other countries shortly DAVID STOTT, Superintendent.
