

Poetical Gems.

(FOR THE SCRAP BOOK.)

Saturday Evening.

Sweet is the last, the parting ray, That ushers placid evening in,
When, with the still, expiring day,
The Sabbath's peaceful hours begin:
How grateful to the anxious breast
The sacred hours of holy rest!

What! is the tumult of the day,
And worldly cares and business cease?
While soft the vesper breezes play
To hymn the glad return of peace:
Delightful season! kindly given To turn the wandering thoughts to heaven.

Oh, as this peaceful hour shall come,
Lend, raise my thoughts from earthly things,
And bear them to my heavenly home,
On faith and hope's celestial wings,
Till the last gleam of life decay,
In one eternal Sabbath Day!

For a' That and a' That.

Is there for honest poverty,
That hangs his head, and a' that?
The coward-slave, we pass him by,
We dare be poor for a' that!
For a' that, and a' that,
Our toils obscure, and a' that;
The rank is but the guinea stamp;
The man's the gowd for a' that.

That bonny hamely face we dine, Wear hoddin'-gray, and a' that;
Ge fools their silks, and knaves their wine,
A man's a man for a' that,
For a' that, and a' that;
Their tinsel show, and a' that;
The honest man, tho' e'er sae poor,
Is king o' men for a' that.

Ten see young birkie, ca'd a lord, Wha struts, and stares, and a' that;
Tho' hundreds worship at his word, He's but a coof for a' that;
For a' that, and a' that,
His ribbon, star, and a' that;
The man of independent mind,
He looks and laughs at a' that.

A Prince can mak a belted Knight, A Marquis, Duke, and a' that;
But an honest man's aboon his might,
Godd faith he mauna fa' that!
For a' that, and a' that,
Their dignities, and a' that;
The pith o' sense, and pride o'
worth,
Are higher rank than a' that.

Then let us pray that come it may,
For a' that, and a' that,
That sense and worth o'er a' the earth,
May bear the gree, and a' that,
For a' that, and a' that,
It's coming yet, for a' that,
That man to man, the world o'er,
Shall brithers be for a' that.

—Burns.

Nature Proclaims a Deity.

There is a God! The herbs of the valley, the cedars of the mountain bless Him; the insect sports in His beam, the bird sings Him in the solage; the thunder proclaims Him in the Heavens, the ocean declares His immensity! Man alone has said there is no God. Unite in thought at the same instant the most beautiful objects in nature. Suppose that you see, at once, all the hours of the day, and all the seasons of the year; a morning of spring and a morning of autumn; a night bespangled with stars, and a night darkened by clouds; meadows enamelled with flowers; forests white with snow; fields gilded by the tints of autumn;
—then alone you will have a just conception of the universe! While you are gazing on that sun which is

An Economical Luxury

is a good, wholesome, delicious beverage like STAR Tea. It's a luxury to taste, not to the pocket book, for its price is moderate, its excellence considered.

DUCKWORTH STREET and QUEEN'S ROAD.

plunging into the vault of the west, another overjoyed him emerging from the gilded gates of the east.
By what inconceivable power does that aged star, which is looking fatigued and burning in the shades of the evening, reappear at the same instant fresh and humid with the rosy dew of the morning? At every hour of the rependant orb is at once rising, such as noonday, and setting, in the west; or rather, our senses deceive us, and there is, properly speaking, no east or west, no north or south in the world.
—Chateaubriand.

Cardinal Wolsey's Farewell to Power.

Farewell, a long farewell, to all my greatness!
This is the state of man: To-day he puts forth the tender leaves of hopes, to-morrow blossoms,
And bears his blushing honours thick upon him;
The third day comes a frost, a killing frost;

And—when he thinks, good easy man, His greatness is a ripening—nips his root.

And then he falls, as I do. I have ventured.

Like little wanton boys that swim on bladders,

This many summers in a sea of glory,
But far beyond my depth; my high-blown pride

At length broke under me; and now has left me.

Wearied and old with service, to the mercy

Of a rude stream, that must forever hide me.

Yea, pomp and glory of this world, I hate ye!

I feel my heart new opened: O, how wretched

Is that poor man that hangs on princes' favours!

There is, betwixt that smile we would aspire to,

That sweet aspect of princes, and their ruin,

More pangs and fears than wars or women have;

And when he falls, he falls like Lucifer.

Never to hope again. . . . .
—Shakespeare—King Henry VIII.

Der Baby.

So help me gracious, efery day
I laugh me wild to see der vay
My schmall young baby dries to play—Dot funny leetle baby.

When I look on dem leetle toes, Unay sav do funny leetle nose,
Und heard de vay dot rooster crows,
I schmile like I was crazy.

Und when I heard der real nice vay Dhem beoples to my wife dey say,
"More like his fater every day," I vas so proud like blazes.

Sometimes dhere comes a leetle schquall,

Dot's when der vindy vind will crawl Right in its leetle schtomach schmall, Dot's too bad for der baby.

Dot makes him sing at night so schweet.

Und garrdyoric he must eat,
Und I must chumb shpry on my feet,
To help dot leetle baby.

He bulls my nose and kicks my hair, Und grawls me ofer everywhere,
Und schlobbers me—but vat I care; Dot vas my schmall young baby.

Around my head dot leetle arm Vas schqueezin me so nice and warm.

Oh! may dhere never coom some harm
To dot schmall leetle baby.

DO YOU WEAR CLOTHES, real good clothes, that hang well, look well and have a real individuality about them? If you are not satisfied, just give us a trial, and we will put something real good on you: We

Not Encouraging

Letters received from Moosejaw yesterday contain the news that times are not all too bright in that locality.

One of the largest real estate firms there recently went out of business, which means a hard blow to Moosejaw, as that firm was considered by the people in sound financial condition. A first-class gent's furnishing house is also going out of business.

Within the past month there has been no less than five firms failed.
The outlook at present is far from encouraging, and our people should take warning and give that place a wide berth for the present.

Nickel's Strong Bill.

There was an excellent bill at the Nickel Theatre last evening, and patrons were more than pleased with the excellence of the show. The programme was a varied and lengthy one and included an attractive Gaumont Graphic, "The Triumph of Right," a sensational Western Drama, "The Hand of Fate," a great Selig Society Drama, "The Charleston Flood,"
"Mistaken Identity," and the "Katzenjammer Kids." Each film was a beauty and delighted every patron.

The singing was again a feature. Miss Geurin was in excellent voice and Miss Gardner's illustrated song was very popular.

Sunday Services.

St. Mary The Virgin.—To-morrow is anniversary of the parishioners, mindful of the fifty-four years of continuous church life and of those who meanwhile have passed within the veil, will join in the Sacrament of Unity and Thanksgiving at 7 a.m., 8 a.m. or at noon. Matins will be at 11 a.m. Children's service at 3 p.m. His Lordship will be the preacher at Evensong—6.30 p.m. The large addition which has recently been made to the Church at a cost of $12,000, will be consecrated when the remaining debt of $1,000 has been paid off. The offerings at each service on Sunday will be devoted to this purpose. St.
Mary's parishioners have evinced much self-sacrificing spirit during the past three years. It is confidently hoped that the debt will be entirely wiped out in the next few months.

Gower Street.—After the evening Service, the Mendelssohn Recital will be repeated. In order to allow visitants from other churches to attend, the Recital will not commence until 8 o'clock. An offering for the Choir Fund will be taken.

George Street.—The George Street
Sunday School will hold a public temperance service in the basement of the Church to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The Adult Bible Class will unite in this, and an enthusiastic rally is expected. A programme of Great Interest has been prepared. All supporters of the Temperance cause are cordially invited.

Cochrane Street.—Rev. S. J. Pike will preach at the above Church on Sunday evening at 8 p.m. and the will be held a Service of Song, in which the whole congregation will unite. A printed form of Order of Service has been prepared. The Anthem will be, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," by Thomas Adams, with Miss Vincent as soloist. In the Song Service Miss Jean Trappell will sing,
"One Sweetly Solemn Thought," by Ambrose. Visitors will be specially welcomed, and ushers will be in attendance to provide seats.

Wesley Church.—At Wesley Church to-morrow the Candidates for Ordination at the approaching Conference will preach, the Rev. S. Williams, in the morning, and the Rev. T. Pitcher, in the evening. At the evening service Mr. Charles Lench will sing. Mr.
Lench has become an accomplished singer.

Street, Sunday services at 3 p.m., and 7 p.m. Service every week day evening, excepting Saturday, commencing at 8 o'clock.

BANKERS BAITING.—Yesterday, 50 bankers, Canadian and American, were baiting with capital at Rushoon where the little fish were extremely plentiful. One of the residents with his son cleared $500 off the work.
There is also a good sign of cod at this place.

REFUSED $10,000 FOR PUP.—A P. E. Island dealer in black foxes was in St. John's, N.B., last week. He looked over the fine lot owned by A.
E. Trites, V. E. Garland and R. A.
Brown. He made the firm an offer of $15,000 for a pair of black puppies or $10,000 for one female pup. As this is Messrs. Trites, Garland & Brown's first year in the fox business, it is said they decided not to sell at these prices.
