THE DIFFERENT "YOU'S."

RUTH CAMERON.

The extent to which we become different people in our relationship to our friends (and enemies) is a never-ending source of interest to me. When I hear the other members of household talking over the telephone, I can tell by the tone of their voices, without hearing a word of the conversation, to whom they are talking. That is because the different people on the other end of the line make such different personalities of them.

"I don't like that man if he is your friend." I once heard a woman say of her husband's friend.

"You never met him," said he.

"What do you mean?" said she.

She Never Met His Friend.

"The man I've always known, the man I go fishing with and tramping with, you've never met. It's an entirely different man that you meet, though he does have the same face and wear the same clothes."

How often that is true! We can never introduce the friend we love to some other friend, because the moment he comes into the other's presence he becomes a changeling.

The Eternal Barrier.

Especially is it true when the barrier of sex stands between. The man other men know, a woman never meets. "I can't see how you like that man," the Wants-to-be-cynic says to me with distaste. "Of course he can't. He doesn't know what a fascinating, interesting, almost caressing manner that man has when he is with women."

All he sees is a lank, rather plain-looking man who doesn't care for his beloved fishing and who isn't particularly successful in business. The man who is gifted with the ability of bringing a touch of romance into his intercourse with women in a perfectly harmless and legitimate fashion, the cynic never meets.

Can You Blame Red For Not Harmonizing With Purple?

Enough for the influence of sex. To return to the broader aspect of the subject, George Eliot says somewhere: "There are people so gifted in regard to you that their 'Good Morning' is charged with offence." Now when anyone affects you thus, is it likely that you will present to him the same personality that you present to those who rub you the right way? Hardly! And is it your fault that you are affected in that way? Sometimes, perhaps, and sometimes not. Is it the fault of red that it becomes hideous when it is placed beside purple? Or should we say that blue is an ugly color because it doesn't harmonize with certain shades of green? Some antipathies are just as inevitable.

Again, haven't you seen a blue that looked green when you placed it beside a yellow?

Even so you and I change according to the temperament of the person with whom we are in juxtaposition. The "you" one friend knows may be as entirely different from the "you" another pictures as one person from another. Wouldn't it be fun to be able to know some of these "you's" ourselves?

German Navy Now Crippled.

Famous British Expert Reveals Its Present Condition—Fourteen Left of 45 Cruisers—And the Majority of These Are Badly Damaged.

(By Archibald Hurd, Naval Expert of The London Daily Telegraph.)

London, June 24.—Three weeks have passed since the battle of Skagerrack, and it is possible, in the light of an immense mass of information from British and neutral sources, to form what will prove a verdict of the historians on one of the most splendid incidents in our naval annals.

The German high seas fleet, weaker by five capital ships, is so lame that it cannot move and so blind that it could not move if it dared to do so. That is a matter on which there can be no doubt.

Six Battle Cruisers Lost.

When the war opened, Germany possessed the following ships of the cruiser class (built and building) less than fifteen years old, those lost in the course of the war being given: Battle cruisers—Original number eight, since lost six, comprising the Lutzow, Goeben, Seydlitz (a complete wreck), Blucher, Hindenburg, and another of a similar type, which, it is believed, is the Von Der Hann.

Large cruisers—Original number seven, since lost five, comprising the Yorck, Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Friedrich Karl and the Prince Adalbert. The two remaining vessels are the Roon (launched in 1903, therefore thirteen years old), and the Prince Heinrich (1900). The Prince Heinrich (1896) is of no military value and can be ignored, owing to her slow speed and weak guns. She is believed now to be serving as a training ship.

Light cruisers—Original number thirty, since lost twenty, comprising the Karlsruhe, Madgeburg, Koln, Mainz, Emden, Dresden, Nürnberg, Königsberg, Leipzig, Bremen, Undine, Rostock, Wiesbaden, Breslau, Frauenlob, Elbing, Ariadne and three others, the names of which have not yet been revealed.

Fourteen Effective Cruisers Left.

Out of the forty-five effective cruisers of all classes which Germany had built and was building when the war opened, she therefore possesses today only fourteen, and of these a large proportion was so seriously injured in the battle of Skagerrack as to be at present ineffective. Those fourteen cruisers have to suffice for duty as scouts for battle squadrons, parent ships for torpedo flotillas, and for patrol work in the Baltic.

No Bait—West Lobster Fishery Poor.

Late reports received by the Board of Trade concerning the cod, salmon and lobster fisheries are:—

June 24th. From W. Andrews (Great Jarvis Head to Pass Island).—The total catch is 2,500 qtls. with 400 for last week. Ten traps, 200 dories and skiffs and 3 boats are fishing. Prospects are not so good as last week and traps are getting only from 2 to 5 qtls. The caplin has gone off and also cod. The lobster catch is poor. The nets are not doing anything and hook and liners, poorly. There is a good salmon fishery.

June 24th. From T. Soper (Channel to Port aux Basques).—Prospects are very poor and there is no bait. The lobster catch is very poor. Owing to weather conditions the few fishers on the grounds this week met with poor success. The total catch is 6052 qtls. of codfish and 5721 pounds of halibut with 5 qtls. and 21 pounds for last week.

June 24th. From W. Hogan (Cape Frapeau to Broad Cove).—Prospects were better than during last week and there was plenty of caplin. The catch to date is 1,000 qtls. with 750 for last week. Six boats, 68 traps and 39 dories and skiffs are fishing. The majority of the fishermen are of opinion that a "brush" or small storm is necessary to drive the cod to the land. The lobster fishery is fair.

Got Ten Wales.

The whaler Cachalot, operating at Hawke's Harbor, has captured ten whales to date. This is considered good and compares favourably with her catch for any previous year up to this time. Her aggregate catch last season was seventy odd fish and she has yet ample time even to exceed that number, as she will operate up to about the middle of October next.

TO-MORROW'S PARADE.—The usual Sunday morning church parade will take place to-morrow. The C. C. C. Band will turn out.

Our Volunteers.

The total number of enrolments to date is 3,927, the following having presented themselves for enlistment yesterday:
Jas. Green, Firby Cove, H.B.
Albert Pollett, Grand Beach, F.D.
Geo. Rose, Burgeo
Albert Francis, Hermitage Bay
Jas. Keeping, Lally Cove, F.B.
The men were paid yesterday and a number of them inoculated.

"MEASLES."

Hundreds of children are suffering from "Measles" at the present time, and one has to be very careful in trying to avoid the complications that often follow them.

A heavy "cough" is very prevalent during this present epidemic, and "Pneumonia" is the great danger. Avoid this by keeping a bottle of "Stafford's Phosphate Cough Cure" on hand.

Stafford's Drug Store (Theatre Hill) is open every night from 7.30 to 9.30.

Obituary.

Death had claimed as its victim one of the most respected and highly esteemed personages of Paradise, June 24th, when Mr. Daniel Ryan passed to the Great Beyond. Mr. Ryan was apparently in good health when he retired on the evening of the 23rd. About midnight his wife was awakened by his heavy breathing and saw at once that something was wrong. He did not return to consciousness, but died a few minutes later. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon and the attendance of a large concourse of people testified the esteem in which the deceased was held. The sorrowing wife has the sincere sympathy of the writer. R. I. P.

Dust and Flies.

This is the time of the year when the dirty dust from the streets, and flies are in the air and watching their chance to alight on your bread and bring dirt and disease to your children. Guard against them by buying Lynch's Pan-Dandy Bread, white, and brown, wrapped and sealed by machinery in a dust and germ proof wrapper. It is the only bread in Newfoundland that is made, wrapped and sealed by machinery. Ask your grocer for it. Did you get any of Lynch's Beauty Cake, yet? Oh, what a beauty cake! the best in the land. Ask your grocer for it.

Red Cross Ships.

The S. S. Florizel, 45 hours from this port, reached Halifax yesterday. The S. S. Stephano sails from Halifax this afternoon for here.

SHORT OF SALT.—The banker Argenta, Capt. Burke, is in from the banks for a supply of salt. She has on board 300 quintals of cod which she got on her first caplin baiting. She will probably get away again today for a caplin supply.
