

MONIUS tavern-keepers in the town before they can wipe out the recollection of their mean, selfish and unpatriotic conduct in connection with the Battalion Drill of June, 1868.

A DUNNING EXPEDITION.—Mr. Moylan, the editor of the Toronto Freeman, it is well known gave the Coalition, at the last election, all the support in his power, and to this end he circulated an extra number of copies of his paper in those communities that were likely to be influenced by it. He even undertook a pilgrimage to North Wellington, and perhaps other places, to endeavor to serve the Knight of Kingston. But yet, according to the Ottawa Daily News, he has never been paid for the electioneering work he did, nor reimbursed for the expense incurred and it, therefore, now in Ottawa pressing his claim. Of course John A. will recognize his claims to remuneration from the public chest.

DROWNED.—A young man named Alex Murdock, only about two months out from Aberdeen, Scotland, was drowned in the canal at St. Catharines, while bathing last Friday. He was within a few yards of the shore when he sank.
