MIDDLESEX FALL ASSIZES

nd 11:20 a.m.

The case of Elliott vs. Weld occupied the entire afternoon. The amount involved was about $1,300. It was an action to set aside a claim to the insolvent estate of Mc-Phail & Haight, of Springfield. The point that the case turned on was whether at the time the notes complained of were issued the company were in insolvency or not. Judgment was given for the defendants.

The grand jury brought in a true bill in the case of the Queen vs. Lucius Henry, of Caradoc-assaulting and wounding Peter Beaver, and no bill in the case of the Queen vs. Wm. Dunn, of Granton-indecent assault on Margaret Murray.

THIND DAY-WEDNEDAY.

The first case taken up was that of the Queen vs. Samuel Walker, of Westminster, was charged with seducing his sister-in-law, Sabina Mauning. Collin MacDougall conducted the prosecution. The first witness called was Sabina Manning, a girl under 15 years. She testified that while on a visit to the house of the prisoner in February the oftense complained of was committed. On a second occasion, while her sister, the wife of the prisoner, was out sitting up with a sick woman, she (the witness) went to the house to look after their children. On this evening the offense was repeated. The witness did not divulge what had occurred until told that she must by her mother some months afterwards. The witness and her mother held a conference with the prisoner and it was decided that Walker should get the witness some medicine.

Mrs. Mary Manning, mother of the previous witness was the medical and the prisoner of the prisoner witness was the prisoner of the prisoner o

This afternoon General Superintendent arman gave a stirring address, exhorting he delegates to spirituality and zeal in disharging the duties of the hour. To them, of railways, banks, estates or great worldly onor, not even home or family or personal dvancement or ease were the great verilies, but the purpose, spirit, interests and nterprises, forces and conquests of Christ's pritual kingdom, and all that it meant in he physical or moral, social and political ondition of mankind. If not they had no usiness there. Dr. Carman paid a special ribute to his late colleague, Supt. Williams. He described the representative ody as the surest bulwark against all mere flicialism, dangerous centralization and eirarchy. He thought three general supernendents might be well employed with eadquarters at Montreal, Toronto and Vinnipeg.
