Toronto Grain Market.

Toronto, Oct. 21.-Wheat-The deliveries continue small. There is a good demand for all grades and the market is firm. Cars of red and white are quoted at 65c to 67c north and west points. Manitoba wheat is steady, with cars of No. 1 hard quoted Toronto and west at 70c.

Flour-There is very little being done. Millers are firm owing to the higher prices asked for wheat. Cars of straight roller, Toronto freights, are quoted at $3 25. Manitoba flour is steady at $4 15 to $4 20 for patents and $3 95 for strong bakers here. Mill-feed-Quiet. Cars of shorts are quoted at $14 to $14 50 and bran at $11 50, Toronto freights.

Barley—Dull. Cars of No. 1 are held at 40c to 43c east. There is very little No. 1 extra offered; 45c outside is asked for it. Cars of feed are quoted at 30c to 32c outside. Buckwheat-Dull and long. Cars of No. 2 are quoted at 25c east. Rye-In demand and firm. Cars east are quoted at 45c to 46c. Oats-Quiet at 22c quoted for mixed and 23c for white west.

Peas-In good demand for export, and the market is steady at 48 1-2c for cars of No. 2 north and west.

-Reporting a concert there on Thursday night, the Dresden Times says: "The card of the evening, however, was Mr. Geo. L. Angus. It apquite a young man, apparently about 19 or 20, and his performances of the highest class music took the audience by storm and astonished some of our local violinists. His double fingering and picking and general execution are really marvellous."

-Mr. G. F. Welch, of New Westmin-ster, B. C., one of the "Advertiser's" valued subscribers on the Pacific coast, writes, inclosing a very formidable-looking pork worm, which as yet London's learned naturalists have not been able to identify. It is about the size of a common earth worm, ribbed in appearance, and of a jelly or gum substance, and red in color. Powerful microscopical examination fails to reveal any internal digestive organs or means of sustaining life, and as they have not yet met anything similar in London, they hesitate to name it. Mr. Welch says: "You also speak of the late Earl of Verlam. I knew him personally, and I can assure you he was one of England's noblest gentlemen. I came from the same farm as he at St. Al-

ville, Milton, Ont., car coupling. -Sunday school anniversary sermons were preached yesterday morning and evening at the Wellington Street Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. A. L. Russell, M.A., B.D., preached the morning sermon, making it particularly instructive to the children who attended in large numbers. The music of the day was supplied by Sunday school scholars who have been in active preparation for the event for some weeks. Open Sunday school was held in the afternoon, when parents of the children availed themselves largely of the opportunity to attend. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles Smith and Rev. Benj. Clement. The evenwas also appropriate to the occasion. The annual reports will be read at the anniversary entertainment, which will be held tonight and tomorrow

NOMINATIONS POSTPONED.

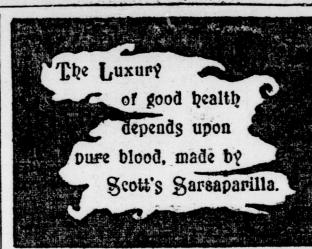

Owing to the meeting at Ingersoll on Friday night in honor of the Liberal leader, Mr. Laurier, the nomination of officers for the Young Liberal Club has been postponed until Monday, Oct. 28. Many Londoners desire to go to Ingersoll on Friday.

WHO STRUCK MR. LEGATT?

A Lawrence Station correspondent writes: "A case of robbery was reported at Mucey Fair on Thursday night, when Mr. E. Legatt, traveler for the McCormick Manufacturing Company, London, was knocked down and beaten by some persons unknown and robbed of $60 in cash. The robbers also took a check of some $20. The victim was brought to Lawrence and Dr. Quackenbush dressed his wounds. He was badly cut and bruised, showing that he had met with some hard usage." Mr. Legatt is at present recuperating at his residence in

The book is neatly printed, the work of linotype machines being plainly in evidence and enhancing very materially the appearance of the book. The directory, as well as containing an up-to-date classification of the names and addresses of citizens, the streets of London, etc., has a large amount of useful miscellaneous information. Beginning with the Queen and Royal Family it goes on to give the Dominion and Provincial Governments. The city government follows with the list of London West officials, city waterworks commissioners and heads of departments, the fire brigade, the location of the fire alarm boxes and directions for pulling them. this church on Nov. 6. EYE PICKED OUT BY A CRANE. The 8-year-old son of Mr. Oliver Draper, a farmer near Henderson, Caroline county, met with a painful accident several days ago. He was peeping into a box in which a crane was caged, when the bird pecked at him, striking him in the eye with its bill. He was taken to Philadelphia for treatment, but upon examination it was found that the sight of the eye was entirely destroyed.—Baltimore

THE BATTLE OF TRAFALGAR. London, Oct. 21.—The anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar was commemorated today for the first time since that engagement. The ceremony, however, was of the most simple kind and consisted in placing wreaths, sent by the Navy League and others, around the base of the Nelson Column on Trafalgar Square, Portsmouth, Oct. 21.—Nelson's flag ship, the Victoria, was decorated to-day in honor of the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar. ARMENIANS REJOICING. Tiflis, Russian Transcaucasia, Oct. 21.-Advices received here from Ezeroum, Armenia, say that the issuing by the Sultan of Turkey of the irade approving of the reform of Armenia, suggested by the powers, has caused great rejoicing there. Thanksgiving services have been held in the Catholic Churches and rigorous measures for the protection of the Armenians from the Kurds and Turks have been taken.

SILENCE MUST BROOD.

We have received a story entitled "A Dark Deed," which is respectfully declined. The first chapter opens with "It was midnight." That is all right It is often midnight—at least sever times a week; but the author forgets to add, "and silence brooded o'er the This is a fatal oversight. Silence always broods over a city when it is midnight in works of fiction—nowhere else. We can't print a story in which silence does not brood at mid-
