—At an interview with Dr. Hunter, inspector of insurance, the representatives of the various railway benefit societies, including the Locomotive Brotherhood,

The late Thomas Stinson, of Hamilton, is survived by a widow, the daughtet of the late C. J. Hope, who formerly lived in this city. One of the saddest features connected with his lamented death is that Mrs. Stinson is also seriously ill, and is now away, in charge of her brother, in search of health. So serious is her condition that it has been deemed mastle to inform her of her mether's death, which occurred last week, nor will she be told of the death of her hunband until she has progressed far enough toward recovery to make it safe to do so. The funeral takes place to-morrow at 2.30 p.m.

—A correspondent writes: "The citiensa living north and east of Victoria Park are anxiously awaiting the convenience of the city engineer to put down a crossing on the courser of Wellington street and Central avenue. At this point the multi sankle-deep at present, which, however, is an improvement on its condition for a considerable period last winter, when it was not a infrequent occurrence to see childre going to and from school carrying their smaller companions on their backs through the water. Surely the addernment of No. 4 Ward are not ignorant of this state of additing, and it is beyed they will see the necessity of having it remedied at an early date.

—The waterworks officials are busy mailing the notices for the last quarter. This is the first time they have been delivered by the post since the Dominion Government raised the rate for drop letters.

—A burning woodshed in the rear of Mr. T. P. G. Bryan's residence, Colborne street, called the firemen out last evening. The damage was not great. Children and matches formed the combination that caused the blaze.

—Mayor Spencer has issued instructions to Park Ranger Grant not to allow horses or rigs in Victoria Park until after 12 o'clock noon to-day, in order to insure the safety of the children taking part in the "Hoisting of the Flag" demonstration.

—"Our summer tourist and excursion business, has been paralyzed this wear, owing to cool weather," said a well-known traveling passenger agent. "We did more in that one waim week than in all the rest of the season so far. Hardly any of the summer hotels have copened yet."

—Cool weather and a heavy dew did not seem to affect the attendance at Victoria Fark last night. The music was furnished by the Seventh. A number that found great favor was that comprising a selection of national airs. Harry McKenna ganother of his xylophone solos and was loudly encored.

The presence of the Bishep of London and city clergy lent celat to the closing exercises of St. Mary's Separate School yesterday afternoon. The school trustees and a large number of the parents of the pupils also attended and enjoyed the pleasurable exercises. The children acted their part remarkably well, the singing in particular being fine. After the distribution of prizes his Lordship addressed the children, gave them good advice and finished by wishing them a pleasant vacation.
