A FANCY

Wall Paper strikes the fancy force. You like it so well that you want to see it on the wall. That's the place for fancy paper like ours, and you'll often find them there too. There's a charm, a harmony and originality about our designs that catch the eye at once. It's the papers that strike the eye that strike the wall. We make a business of hanging paper and employ skilled mechanics.

THE CIRCUS IN CANADA

Barnum & Bailey at St. Thomas. Large Attendance at Both Performances. To Visit London on July 31.

The city of St. Thomas is ahead of London. It had Barnum & Bailey's Circus, and London will not enjoy the exhibition until Wednesday, July 31. The show goes as far as Montreal, and then works back again, leaving via Port Huron. London is the last place in Canada where they exhibit. But fourteen days' performances are given while in Canada, but during that short period the circus covers a large area of country, enabling thousands upon thousands to witness this gorgeous and unapproachable institution. Yesterday the greatest of shows dwelt in the Railroad City, and both citizens and country people attended the two performances in vast numbers. The immense amphitheatre, which incloses the three rings presented a vast sea of faces, on which delight was pictured as act after act was produced. It was an occasion to be remembered by both St. Thomas and the circus people, as it was on the same spot where Jumbo was killed. The tents were pitched near the same place. Many performers and those in charge of different departments who were present then are still with the show. The street parade is the most striking drawing card. It eclipses anything heretofore exhibited in Canada, and the spectacular parade removes any doubt from one's mind about the facts of any statements made previously. It is impossible to describe the magnitude of Barnum & Bailey's circus. No criticism can be made derogatory to any act performed. Every act and display is new. Not an obsolete act is given by a performer. The circus comes to Canada this year bright and new.

Yesterday through the courtesy of Mr. W. J. Rouse, press agent, an "Advertiser" representative was given an opportunity of securing an advance sight of this marvelous exhibition. It is truly a wonderful education. It is grander and larger than ever. It is the most stupendous organization of the kind in the world. It means the moving of a small town every day for an average distance of 50 miles. The system with which every department is managed is superb. A detective force of nine men travels continually with the show. Not a professor or crook attempts to visit any part of the grounds. The thefts, such as house-breaking and racket-pleting, are generally the work of local thieves.

The Ethnological Congress of Nations is the great feature in the menagerie tent. Groups of all Oriental people are distinguished by painted signs. They all perform their many different dances, etc., and make discordant harmony on peculiar instruments. The animals are an interesting sight, especially the gorilla "Johanna," which is an intelligent animal. The dining tent is another example of the size of the circus. Some 600 people have their meals there. It has been tried and found that in 32 minutes everything can be played in order and a dinner cooked. The tent can be taken down and every vestige made to disappear in fifteen minutes. The citizens of London and surrounding places can rely on seeing more than their eyes or thoughts can explain on the 31st of this month.

Mr. Rouse is in the city today, and leaves for Montreal. He will return to London in about ten days.

DISASTROUS WRECK

Twenty-Four Cars Go Through a Bridge.

Three Persons Killed, Three Fatally Injured and Ten Seriously Hurt.

Monument, Col., July 17.—A Santa Fe freight train bound from Denver to Colorado Springs, fell through a bridge just south of here at 11 o'clock this morning. There were 24 cars in the train, loaded with stone and timber.

The wreckage is piled up 30 feet high, and it is thought that there are bodies still under it. It will take two days at least to clear it.

Three persons were killed outright; three men are fatally hurt, and ten are very seriously injured.

TRAGEDY ON THE ST. CLAIR.

A Fatal Collision—Two Killed and One Missing.

Marine City, Mich., July 18.—While coming through the canal at the flats last night the tug Torrent collided with an unknown schooner. The captain of the Torrent, Ralph Hackett, of Detroit, one of the best known captains on the lakes, and the watchman, David Canary, of Port Huron, were killed, and one wheelman, a young man from this city, John Cattunach, is missing.

Captain Hackett was killed instantly by having a large hole smashed in his head, and his left ear was cut off. David Canary lived two hours after the accident and bled to death.

The Wolsey Barracks nine and a team from the local doctors will play ball tomorrow afternoon on the Garrison Commons.

The Bishop of Huron held confirmation service in the Church of St. John the Evangelist last night, the class being unusually large.

The Port Stanley is getting a large share of excursion business this week. Another big crowd went down today with the combined picnics of the Queen's Avenue and Dundas Center Sunday schools.

The corner stone of Queen's Avenue Methodist Church will be laid on Tuesday, July 20, by Mr. S. McBride, the oldest living trustee of the church. The speakers will be Rev. Drs. Carman, Potts, Sutherland, Briggs, Williams, Rev. A. L. Russell, Thomas S. Hobbs, Mr. P. P. and Sir John C. McNeil.

The King Street and Colborne Street Methodist Sunday schools picnicked at Port Stanley yesterday. A team representing the Colborne Street school defeated a King Street team at baseball by a score of 27 to 15. The single men also bested the married men to the tune of 11 to 5.

The Western Bar Association, composed of the lawyers in Western Ontario, held their annual session in Windsor yesterday. Last year the meeting was held at Sarnia. In the afternoon the members went down in a couple of yachts to Lake Erie. Messrs. Percy Moore, J. H. Flock, Q.C., and Richard Bayly, Q.C., of this city, attended the meeting.

Mr. C. W. Wagner, agent of the Barber Asphalt Company, Buffalo, and H. J. Warren, superintendent, arrived in town this morning on business in connection with the asphalt paving contract which has been awarded to the Barber Company. Mr. Warren says that he does not expect any trouble in consummating the deal, and that work will be commenced immediately afterwards.

Kenric B. Murray, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, London, England, writes to the local board of trade, warning cattle men of the depreciation in the value of hides owing to the present system of hip branding. He says that the brands of colonial (Canadian) cattle are larger and more carelessly made than in South America and other foreign countries and recommends branding on the hoof or horn, or a small brand on a less valuable portion of the hide.

A large number of thefts were perpetrated at St. Thomas on Wednesday by followers of Barnum's circus. Mrs. Leadbeater of William street, London, was proceeding to Port Stanley on the L. E. and D. R. R., when she had her pocket picked. A man was noticed to board the train when crossing Talbot Street, and she was reminded of the fact that this can be done as cheaply as the replanking, and will practically be a permanent work. Only a portion of it will be completed this year, the balance being left over until next year.

Thirteen years ago Thomas Lough, of Windsor, shipping clerk for Edson, Moore & Co., of Detroit, fell down an elevator shaft in their building, and was instantly killed. He had been married but a few months, and his widow brooded over her trouble, and in a short time her mind gave way. Her friends took care of her for a time, but she was removed to the asylum in this city. On Monday came the end of her sad life, and the body was taken to Windsor and interred beside that of her husband in Grove Cemetery.

Dear Sirs,—About three years ago, you may remember I handled some of your medicines at Queenston, Ont. I am not positive, but I think that the "Bark-Well's Sure Corn Cure" that we had was got from your house. Will you kindly reply to this note, telling me if you do handle Bark-Well's, and if so, would it be possible to send by mail? If I am mistaken, can you tell me what firms do handle it? I WANT NO OTHER except Bark-Well's Sure Corn Cure. It is put up in bottles retailed at 25c. Hoping to hear from you soon, and wishing you compliments of the season, believe me, yours truly,

The rails for the Springbank line have arrived at St. Thomas, and Manager Carr has gone over to hurry them along.

MR. CRICK'S COMPLIMENTARY.

Victoria Park fairly swarmed with lovers of good music last night, when the Musical Society Band tendered a complimentary concert to Mr. Richard Crick, a valued member of the organization, who leaves with his family today for Australia. To make a fitting farewell to Mr. Crick, the band gave the choicest programme of the season. Every selection was a gem in itself, and under the baton of Mr. Fred Evans was rendered with a brilliancy which drew merited applause. Mr. Crick's trombone solo, "The Death of Nelson," was particularly admired for the masterly way in which it was played. The humorous "He la Suisse," was a Jolly Cornersmith, introducing the song chorus, was an especially pleasing number, and received a perfect ovation. Mr. St. George's cornet polka, "Souvenir de la Suisse," was a brilliant effort, and showed the splendid control the player had of the instrument from the lowest to the highest register. After the concert the members assembled in their rooms, when Mr. Evans made a brief address on behalf of the band, wishing Mr. Crick all happiness and prosperity in his new home. Mr. C. R. Tuson, the secretary, presented Mr. Crick with a purse of silver, and after a pleasant social hour had been spent, the evening was closed with singing "He la Suisse" and "Auld Lang Syne."

THE POLICE MAGISTRATE REFERRED.

Dashing Wheelmen Have a Big Meet in the Police Court—Two Winners and Four Losers.

The ridiculous bylaw passed by last year's City Council which regulates the speed of wheelmen in Victoria Park to only five miles an hour caused a scattering of bicycle riders within the police court railing this morning. It was a regular meet, with Police Magistrate Parks as referee. The point at issue between the wheelmen, however, was not one of records—in fact, there was no point of difference between them. It existed between them as a whole, and P. C. Ralph, who was the other day dispatched for duty to the park. In his rounds he came across many wheelmen on the fine gravel paths. Some of them escaped the officer, but eight dropped at the signal, left their names and addresses and passed on. The gait of the majority of the men caught was in the candid opinion of the officer from eight to nine miles an hour, while two he considered were pushing ahead at eleven or fourteen mile clips. When the police officer called the names the wheelmen got up in turn and defended themselves. They mostly considered their speed as not exceeding the bylaw, and thought the officer had very poor judgment. The eleven and fourteen-mile men were represented by counsel, and gave evidence which the magistrate (while not doubting the sincerity of P. C. Ralph), considered sufficient to warrant a dismissal. Four riders were fined $1 each and two cases were enlarged. "Dollar fines do not seem to have the desired effect," said P. M. Parke, in a tone which signified that the price of a fast ride in the park may in the future be doubled. The two young men who were dismissed are prominent members of the London Club, which from its inception has discouraged scorching on city streets and in the park. It may in the future endeavor to have the bylaw repealed, as it is almost impossible to balance a wheel moving at the rate of five miles an hour—an ordinary walk. The wheelmen of the city considered it preposterous.

Emily Wickett, a young girl arrested by P. C. Woolway on a charge of vagrancy, was remanded for a week.
