

London Advertiser

TWO EDITIONS DAILY . . . WEEKLY

Daily, One Year.....$3 00
 Daily, Six Months.....$1 50
 Daily, Three Months.....75
 Daily, One Month.....25

The London Advertiser will be delivered to any residence or place of business in London without extra charge. Published at Advertiser New Building, 191-193 Dundas street.

Daily, One Year, by mail.....$1 50

The Western Advertiser, published every Wednesday. Subscription price, 75 cents per year.

Sample Copies of Daily and Weekly sent Free.

TELEPHONE CALLS.
 Business Office.....107
 Editorial Department.....134
 Job Department.....175

A complete Job Printing Plant. New Type and New Presses.

LONDON ADVERTISER CO., (LIMITED).

London, Wednesday, March 25.

Ireland's Victory.

A new chapter in the history of Ireland, full of promise, was opened today, when the Irish Land Bill was introduced in the House of Commons. The cable dispatches at the time of writing are brief, and it is not yet possible to say whether the bill comes fully up to Irish expectations. It provides for a free grant of $60,000,000 from the imperial exchequer toward "making up the difference between the selling price of the estates and the tenants' estimate as to what they can afford to pay," as one correspondent puts it. The measure is based upon the results of the recent conference between the landlords and tenants of Ireland. The owners agreed to sell out at twenty years' purchase, that is to say, at twenty times the amount of the annual rent. The tenants wish to keep the present landed class in the country, and the latter are to be permitted to retain their mansions, and a certain area of land, with hunting privileges over their former estates. The purchase money is to be advanced to the tenants by the British Government, which will charge interest at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent.

This is the most gigantic and far-reaching of all schemes for the amelioration of Ireland. Nothing approaching it has been known since the breaking up of the estates of the old French nobility by the revolution. In France it was a catastrophe, but it laid the foundation for the wonderful wealth of the country. In Ireland there will be a bloodless revolution, which it is to be hoped will bring Ireland into permanent peace and prosperity. There is something poignant in the fact that this great measure of redress for Ireland's wrongs should have come from a Conservative Government. It was a Conservative Government also that granted the previous Irish land legislation under which thousands of tenants have become proprietors. The progressive party must often be satisfied to battle for its principles and let its adversaries claim the credit for adopting them when they can no longer oppose them. The political history of every country under representative government is strewn with instances.

In Canada two stand out prominently—the secularization of the clergy reserves and Confederation. In England at the present time this tendency has resulted in a curious crossing of party lines. The Nationalists have been thrown into the arms of their quondam enemies, and the Unionist Government has been practically sustained by the votes of Irish home rulers. The Irish party, and its former ally, the Liberal party, stand far apart. A portion of the Liberal party, headed by Campbell-Bannerman and John Morley is faithful to home rule and will support the Irish land legislation. The Rosebery section will also support the land bill, but it disowns home rule. A third section representing the militant Nonconformists will oppose the land bill and sever all ties with the Nationalists in revenge for the acquiescence of the Irish in the education bill. Apparently the Nationalists are the masters of the situation and are in a fair way to regaining the balance of power which they held in the days of Parnell's ascendancy. The Irish party has been rehabilitated under the leadership of John Redmond, and may have to be reckoned with again as it was before Parnell's downfall.

The Gamey Charges.

"The principal incriminated minister offers to resign at once. He feels that the statement of his fellow-member from Manitoulin is truthful, circumstantial, and convincing. He resigns in order to clear himself of all innocence. It is the pledge of conscious guilt," says the Free Press. "Mr. Stratton should have resigned when the charges were made," says Mr. St. John. Our neighbor now talks grandiloquently about "an instant inquiry from the jury of their peers." The day after the Gamey charges were made it expressed a different opinion:

"The Gamey charges of bribery against a member of the House of Commons are so positive, direct and circumstantial, and absorb so much of public attention, that until they are dealt with by a proper tribunal it will be found useless for the Legislature to attempt to proceed with the business of the session. The tribunal being appointed, the House might well adjourn until it is seen whether the statements of the member for Manitoulin are verified or disproven."

On March 13 the Free Press favored a reference of the charges to a tribunal and an adjournment of the House. The Government took that course and the Opposition opposed it. Our contemporary has had to turn a pretty sharp curve. On March 13 it was willing to wait to see whether the charges were verified or disproven. Now it has found Mr. Stratton guilty, before his trial, although in this it is no more indecent than other Opposition newspapers and members of the Legislature, with the honorable exception of Mr. Carscallen. Until the evidence in the case has been adduced there are probably only two men who know the truth—Mr. Stratton and Mr. Gamey. At present it is a question of veracity between them and there it remains until the facts are dragged to light. Since the members of the Opposition have shown themselves so incapable of "rising to the full dignity of their position," the Government has been doubly justified in rejecting them as jurors.

Leader Borden, speaking in South Ontario Monday, again attacked the preferential tariff on the ground that it was disturbing many Canadian industries. At the same time he advocated imperial preferential trade, which would involve a further reduction of the Canadian tariff on British goods. This is even more confusing than "adequate protection."

There is no denying that the American woman is becoming a power in England. The pardoning of Mrs. Maybrick is the latest example.

The Gamey debate will not be complete until Adam Beck, M. P. P., throws his eloquence into it. The Province is waiting for him.

The Ottawa Free Press joins in the protest against granting $50,000 toward a so-called Dominion Exhibition at Toronto this year. The Government should not be bunce.

The charges against Sir Hector Macdonald are a shock to the whole Empire. There was no name in the British army more esteemed, or none which could rouse greater enthusiasm in an assemblage of Scotchmen.

Mr. Charles S. Hyman, M. P., has been re-elected chairman of the railway committee of the House of Commons. It is not too much to say that the member for London holds the most important position outside the cabinet. During the present session he will be the hardest working man in the House.

Rev. C. O. Johnston, of Toronto, expresses his disappointment at the behavior of the members who applauded R. R. Gamey during the progress of his speech in the Legislature. The reverend gentleman is now told that he should keep out of politics. If the conduct which he censures represents Ontario politics, he will feel like taking the advice.

Knocked Them Out.
 [Toronto Star.]

The scope of the commission to investigate the Gamey charges is so much broader than was expected, that the Opposition required a day's time to plan what fault to find with it.

The Coal Commission.
 [Toronto News.]

Now that the coal mining commission has rendered its finding, it is well to remark that it would have been just as well if it could have done the work before the strike, the distress, the murders, the burnings and the financial loss. Sir William Mulock has a bill before Parliament that may do much to prevent such happenings in Canada.

The Woman of the Smart Set.
 [Marie Corelli.]

She rises languidly from her bed at 11, and occupies all her time till 2 o'clock in dressing, manicuring, "transferring" and "massaging." She also receives and sends a few telegrams. At 2 o'clock she goes out in her carriage and lunches with some chosen intimates at one or other of the fashionable restaurants. Lunch over, she goes to the theatre, and down for an hour. Then she arranges herself in an elaborate tea-gown and receives a favorite few in her boudoir, where, over a cup of tea, she discusses the latest news of the day, and the characters of her dearest friends. Another "rest," and again the business of toilet is resumed. When an attendant enters she goes to the dining room and entertains a large party of guests at her own table. A tete-a-tete meal with her husband would appear to her in the light of a positive calamity. She goes up to her room at 10 o'clock in the morning, and retires to bed more or less exhausted, and can never get up until the next day. She is perpetrating the same wicked waste of time again the next day and every day. Her children she scarcely sees, and the management of her house is entirely removed from her hands. The housekeeper takes all the accounts to her husband, who meekly pays the same, and lives for the most part at his club or at the houses of his various sporting friends. "Home" is for him a mere farce. He knew what it was in his mother's day, when his grandfather's ancestral seat was a home indeed, and all the members of the family, young and old, looked upon it as the chief center of attraction, and the garnering point of love and faith and confidence; but since he grew up to manhood and took for his life partner a rapid lady of the new motor school of morals, he stands like Marius among the ruins of Carthage, contemplating the complete wreckage of his ship of life, and knowing sadly enough that he can never sail the seas of hope again.

Maple Sugar.
 [Indianapolis News.]

(Addressed to a lady on her presenting me with a lump of maple sugar, fresh from its native north.)

Thanks for your gift—broad earth owns not a dew or a sweeter!

To life's bright morn—home's natal spot—A talisman completor.

The weary years roll back, and bring Again my happy childhood,
 Its pleasant home, its cherished haunts,
 Lapped in the fragrant wildwood.

A venerated form I see—
 The dearest—its my mother's;
 Her loving glance and smile on me,
 My sisters and my brothers.

And ever from her hand to mine,
 When but a little shaver,
 A lump of sugar was the sign
 And seal of good behavior.

Again, while chill the March winds blow,
 And snow the earth is wrapping,
 Forth with the larger boys I go,
 The sugar orchard tapping.

The holes are bored, the spiles are driven,
 The troughs adjusted squarely;
 Then, when a copious thaw is given,
 The "sweet sap" flows rarely.

The "sweet sap" flows rarely.
 Then busily from tree to tree
 The water hauler passes,
 And gathers in the sap to be
 Made sugar or molasses.

In barrels to the sugar camp,
 He bears the crystal treasure,
 And pours in giant poplar troughs
 In floods of larger measure.

There o'er the furnace in a row
 Are ranged the caldrons boiling,
 And growing sweets, muffled below,
 Reward the owner's toiling.

All day the work goes bravely on,
 Not yet at nightfall pauses,
 With "stirrings off" and mirth and fun
 Of rosy lads and lasses.

At night, the dim woods, half concealed,
 Majestic, calm and solemn,
 In the bright firelight seem revealed
 In many a leaf-crowned column.

So pass the hours, till spring, apace,
 Comes on—no more a rover—
 Bringing the brighter, warmer days—
 And sugar-making's over!

I mark the lambent glow's spotted leaf,
 The crowfoot follows;
 The toadstools flit with pauses brief,
 The bluebird whistles cheerily.

Such are the visions which attend
 Upon this grateful token,
 While thoughts and sympathies they lend
 Too deep to ever be spoken.

My years of exile fade away,
 My youth comes back before me;
 My native land in bright array—
 Again her skies bend o'er me!

Thanks for your gift! Could aught on earth
 An added value give it,
 Yes, there remains its crowning worth—
 From your hand to receive it!

old, looked upon it as the chief center of attraction, and the garnering point of love and faith and confidence; but since he grew up to manhood and took for his life partner a rapid lady of the new motor school of morals, he stands like Marius among the ruins of Carthage, contemplating the complete wreckage of his ship of life, and knowing sadly enough that he can never sail the seas of hope again.

Maple Sugar.
 [Indianapolis News.]

(Addressed to a lady on her presenting me with a lump of maple sugar, fresh from its native north.)

Thanks for your gift—broad earth owns not a dew or a sweeter!

To life's bright morn—home's natal spot—A talisman completor.

The weary years roll back, and bring Again my happy childhood,
 Its pleasant home, its cherished haunts,
 Lapped in the fragrant wildwood.

A venerated form I see—
 The dearest—its my mother's;
 Her loving glance and smile on me,
 My sisters and my brothers.

And ever from her hand to mine,
 When but a little shaver,
 A lump of sugar was the sign
 And seal of good behavior.

Again, while chill the March winds blow,
 And snow the earth is wrapping,
 Forth with the larger boys I go,
 The sugar orchard tapping.

The holes are bored, the spiles are driven,
 The troughs adjusted squarely;
 Then, when a copious thaw is given,
 The "sweet sap" flows rarely.

The "sweet sap" flows rarely.
 Then busily from tree to tree
 The water hauler passes,
 And gathers in the sap to be
 Made sugar or molasses.

In barrels to the sugar camp,
 He bears the crystal treasure,
 And pours in giant poplar troughs
 In floods of larger measure.

There o'er the furnace in a row
 Are ranged the caldrons boiling,
 And growing sweets, muffled below,
 Reward the owner's toiling.

All day the work goes bravely on,
 Not yet at nightfall pauses,
 With "stirrings off" and mirth and fun
 Of rosy lads and lasses.

At night, the dim woods, half concealed,
 Majestic, calm and solemn,
 In the bright firelight seem revealed
 In many a leaf-crowned column.

So pass the hours, till spring, apace,
 Comes on—no more a rover—
 Bringing the brighter, warmer days—
 And sugar-making's over!

I mark the lambent glow's spotted leaf,
 The crowfoot follows;
 The toadstools flit with pauses brief,
 The bluebird whistles cheerily.

Such are the visions which attend
 Upon this grateful token,
 While thoughts and sympathies they lend
 Too deep to ever be spoken.

My years of exile fade away,
 My youth comes back before me;
 My native land in bright array—
 Again her skies bend o'er me!

Thanks for your gift! Could aught on earth
 An added value give it,
 Yes, there remains its crowning worth—
 From your hand to receive it!

JOTTINGS FROM NEARBY PLACES

Though correspondents' names are not published, they should always sign their letters.

HOWLETT.

Howlett, March 23.—A mass meeting of the farmers of this vicinity was held in the school house on Thursday evening, the subject of discussion being the prospects of oil. A company was formed, to be known as the Delaware Center Oil Company, with officers as follows: President, Mr. J. M. Kalsor; vice-president, Mr. J. Kelly; secretary, Mr. J. Monteth; treasurer, Mr. J. Howlett.

The intention of this company is to search the land between Delaware and Chesapeake Bay, and the townships of Southwold. Shares are now on sale at $5 each, and are expected to be around a week.

Mrs. Howlett is staying at Lambeth with her father, who is very sick. Mr. Howlett, of Woodville, of Dutton, has just returned home after spending a few weeks in this vicinity.

Church anniversary services will be held on April 5, at 10:30 a.m. and 7 p.m., when a large crowd is expected.

Mr. Donaldson, the purchaser of Mr. Bell's farm, has moved into his new home, who is single as yet.

The Woodmen of the World did a kindly act on Tuesday last by lending a help to the owners of the property, Mr. L. Carley, cutting a quantity of firewood for him, as he has been ill with rheumatism.

Mr. A. Bodkin, intends working his farm this summer.

Rev. Mr. Horton preached here last Sunday on the subject of St. James' Church. So earnestly was the subject dealt with that when the offering was taken up $25 was handed him.

Sugar parties in this vicinity will be a thing of the past this year.

The report of the convention held in

HOPELESS CASES.

When the doctor leaves and says the case is hopeless, what remains to be done? Nothing, if the doctor's word is final. Much, if you will listen to the statements of men and women who were once "hopeless cases" given up by doctors, and who, after suffering for years, have been permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Nothing is more common than to find thousands of men and women with diseased lungs, obstinate coughs, hemorrhage, emaciation and night sweats, have been restored to perfect health by the use of the "Discovery." Will it cure you?

It has cured in ninety-eight cases out of every hundred where it was given a fair and faithful trial. By that record you have only two chances in a hundred of failure and ninety-eight chances of being restored to perfect health. It is worthy trying.

Abram Freer, Esq., of Rockbridge, Greene Co., Ill., writes: "My wife had a severe attack of pleurisy and lung trouble, the doctor gave her up. She commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she began to improve from the first dose. By the time she had taken eight or ten bottles she was cured, and it was the cause of a large amount being sold here. I think the 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the best medicine in the world for lung trouble."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser containing over a thousand large pages is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A RUSSIAN DECREE

Praising World-Famous Tonic.
 By decree of the Russian Government, medical and health authorities, after subjecting Vin Mariani (Tonic-Wine) to most vigorous test and analysis, the medical council thoroughly approved of same, and authorized its entry into Russia.

The Russian Academy of Medicine and Sciences gave the name Vin Mariani to Mons. Mariani's preparation in honor of his valuable labors and achievements.

Mons. Mariani has written indorsements from more than 8,000 Canadian and American physicians. It is the most popularly used Tonic-Stimulant in Hospitals, Public and Private Institutions. It is largely employed by Ministers, Lawyers, Singers, Orators, Actors, Members of Parliament, etc. Never has anything been so highly and so unanimously praised by the medical profession as this Tonic-Wine.

Dalhousie Postoffice Robbery.

Dalhousie, N. B., March 25.—Postmaster J. A. Johnston and George Chiverton were arraigned before the county judge here yesterday, pleaded guilty to stealing $428 from the post-office on July 30 last and were remanded for trial.

Morocco's New Trouble.

Paris, March 25.—According to the latest reports received from Morocco, the anarchical insurrection in that country is spreading, and is threatening to cause more serious troubles than the uprising of the pretender, Bu Hamara.

TESTED BY TIME.

Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

BACKACHE. Superb Showing of Black and Colored Dress Goods

Backache is a forerunner and one of the most common symptoms of kidney trouble and womb displacement.

READ MISS BOLLMAN'S EXPERIENCE.
 "Some time ago I was in a very weak condition, my work made me nervous and my back ached frightfully all the time, and I had terrible headaches."

"My mother got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and it seemed to strengthen my back and help me at once, and I did not get so tired as before. I continued to take it, and it brought health and strength to me, and I want to thank you for the good it has done me."

LYDIA E. PINKHAM, 143rd St. & Wales Ave., NEW YORK CITY.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures because it is the greatest known remedy for kidney and womb troubles.

Every woman who is puzzled about her condition should write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her all.

London two weeks ago was given last Sunday evening in the League, and was most interesting.

MOUNT BRIDGES.

Mount Bridges, March 24.—In view of the late departure of Mr. and Mrs. George Tilden from Caradoc, friends to the number of 100 met at their residence on Friday evening to bid them good-bye. The large party assembled in the parlor when H. J. Smith read the following address:

"To Mr. and Mrs. George Tilden: 'Dear Friends—Having heard with feelings of regret that you have decided to remove from this neighborhood to the Township of Delaware, we have met to say good-bye and to express our sorrow at your departure. By your social dispositions and upright dealings you have made hosts of friends and become greatly respected. We feel your departure from our midst is a great loss to the church, the school and the entire neighborhood. We now ask you to accept this secretary and easy chair as a slight token of our esteem, trusting you may be spared many years to use them. We hope you may meet as warm friends to welcome you in your new home as you leave behind to regret your departure and in the meantime, when bright memories of the past should be forming a pleasant retrospect, may one of the brightest scenes of the past be associated with your residence among us, and when the cares and trials of earth shall have drawn to a close, may it be our happy lot each and all to meet in that happier home where parting shall be no more.'

Signed on behalf of this large number of guests, by Rev. Mahon H. J. Smith, F. Heath, Thos. Weeks, H. A. Innis, Levi Lipsitt, Louis Lipsitt, W. M. Thomas, W. D. Thomas, W. D. Thomas.

Mr. Tilden replied in a suitable manner, stating that although he was removing to Delaware he did not intend to sever his friendly relations with the people of this vicinity, and would cherish the memories of this evening, as among the most pleasant of his life. After partaking of a splendid repast the party left at a late hour, having spent a most enjoyable evening.

MELROSE.

Melrose, March 24.—Miss Minnie McIntyre gave a very enjoyable party at the home of Mr. Charles Ferguson on Tuesday evening, March 20. The guests, about 50 in number, had ample opportunities of enjoying themselves in the spacious rooms, during the whole evening, and were re-sounded during the music and laughter of those who tripped the light fantastic toe. Prominent among the assembly were friends from London, Caradoc and Lobo Townships. No energies were spared to make the evening a success, and the general result amply and fully repaid the painstaking efforts of the promoters.

FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

All advertising except that in the newspapers and in the programmes of the local theaters, will not be handled by the members of the Business Men's Association, of New Haven, Conn., in the future. This was definitely decided upon at the special meeting held a few days back in the association's rooms. More than thirty members were in attendance and much interest was shown in the business which came before the members. The principal item consisted in the appended bylaw:

"Resolved, that no member shall advertise in any programme, score card or any other publication issued by any church, or religious, military, social, benevolent, labor, political, charitable or educational organization, programmes of regular performances at local theaters excepted. That no member shall make donations of money or merchandise to any church, or religious, military, social, benevolent, labor, political, charitable or educational organization, programmes of regular performances at local theaters excepted. That no member shall make donations of money or merchandise to any church, or religious, military, social, benevolent, labor, political, charitable or educational organization, programmes of regular performances at local theaters excepted. That no member shall make donations of money or merchandise to any church, or religious, military, social, benevolent, labor, political, charitable or educational organization, programmes of regular performances at local theaters excepted."

SIX PERSONS DROWNED.

Memphis, Tenn., March 25.—Reports from Gavin, Ark., in the flooded district, say that a boat carrying four unknown traveling salesmen and two negro oarsmen, has been capsized near there. All six of the occupants were drowned.

Memorials of Lord Russell.

London, March 25.—The committee which was formed to promote the memorial to the late Lord Russell of Killowen has decided to devote the surplus from the memorial fund to the presentation of a marble bust of Lord Russell to the Bar Association of New York.

Have you visited the New Dress Goods Department in the new store? Those who have are agreed that the wonderful and magnificent display is not equaled in any other store. With largely increased space, excellent light for the display of the rich fabrics, we are determined that this will be the popular store for you to purchase your new spring gown. New goods are now getting their first showing. Come and see them. It will pay you to familiarize yourself with our stock of Dress Goods.

New Black Cheviots,

56 inches wide, a splendid range, at, per yard, $1.00, $1.10, $1.25 and $1.40.

New Black Pebble Suitings,

56 inches wide, specially priced, at per yard, $1.25.

New Black Basket Cloth Suitings,

56 inches wide, specially priced, at per yard, $1.35.

New Black Cloth Suitings,

Strong values, at, per yard, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $2.00.

Also a large range of colors, in navy, navy, green, moss, grays, fawns and browns, at, per yard, 70c, 75c, 85c, $1.00 and $1.25.

New Navy Cheviots,

56 inches wide, at, per yard, $1.00 and $1.40.

New Mottled Granite Suitings,

56 inches wide, golden brown and black, at, per yard, $1.40.

New Granite Suitings,

56 inches wide, new navy, golden brown and black, at, per yard, $1.00.

New Canvas Zibeline Suitings,

56 inches wide, new navy, brown and green, at, per yard, $1.25.

Dress Lengths in Basket Cloth Suitings,

Beautiful goods for spring wear, 6 yards to the dress, at, per yard, $1.50.

B. and I. Corsets.

Of all the Corsets made or sold in this Country, B. and I. is the Corset most earnestly recommended by Physicians and Ladies' Tailors. They are graceful in appearance and afford perfect comfort to the wearer. We have all sizes and styles in stock, and no matter what your figure, there is a B. and I. Corset that will fit comfortably and beautifully. Prices Range from $1 to $2.

See what the New Store is offering in Linens.
 See what the New Store is offering in Cottons.
 We have exceptionally good values in these lines.

King'smill's

Economy and Durability

When a farmer talks of putting up a new wire fence, two of the most important items he has to consider are whether the fence in question will be a durable one, and whether it can be put up at a reasonable price. You will find in the

AMERICAN FIELD-WOVEN WIRE FENCING

Both these important qualities. It is made so that it is not affected by change of temperature. Price is right. If you have not received one of our catalogues send us a request on a postcard and you will receive one by return mail.

A. WESTMAN

Some of the uses of by-products of slaughtered animals: The blood is used for the production of albumen; the bones for knife handles, toothbrush handles, chessmen, etc.; the horns for combs, backs of brushes, large buttons, etc.; the hoofs for buttons, ornaments and fertilizers. Neat-foot oil, extracted from the feet, has a high commercial value. The fat is used for glycerine and butterine. Gelatin, glue, pepsin and other articles are obtained from slaughtered cattle and sheep. The value of such articles made every year represents many millions of dollars.

IT IS A LIVER PILL.—Many of the ailments that man has to contend with have their origin in a disordered liver, which is a delicate organ, peculiarly susceptible to the disturbances that come from irregular habits or lack of care in eating and drinking. This accounts for the great number of liver troubles now pressed on the attention of sufferers. Of these there is none superior to Parmede's Vegetable Liver Regulator, which is gentle, effective, and the most delicate can use in the field.

In the field of astronomy the spectro-scope is often more serviceable than the telescope, for by its means have been discovered dark, planet-like bodies which revolve about stars, and which a telescope thousands of times more powerful than any we now possess could ever reveal.

TESTED BY TIME.—FOR THROAT Diseases, Colds and Coughs, Brown's Bronchial Troches have proved their efficacy by a test of many years. The good effects resulting from the use of the Troches have brought out many worthless imitations. Obtain only Brown's Bronchial Troches. 25 cents a box.

The Automobile Journal, London, describes a new traction engine called the "pedrail," which literally walks up stairs with the stride and sure-footedness of an elephant, and hauls loads in excess of those the wheeled traction engine can move.

Six Persons Drowned. Memphis, Tenn., March 25.—Reports from Gavin, Ark., in the flooded district, say that a boat carrying four unknown traveling salesmen and two negro oarsmen, has been capsized near there. All six of the occupants were drowned.

Memorials of Lord Russell. London, March 25.—The committee which was formed to promote the memorial to the late Lord Russell of Killowen has decided to devote the surplus from the memorial fund to the presentation of a marble bust of Lord Russell to the Bar Association of New York.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

TESTED BY TIME.—In his justly-celebrated Pills, Dr. Parmede has given to the world one of the most unique medicines offered to the public in late years. Prepared to meet the want for a pill which could be taken without nausea, and that would purge without pain, it has met all requirements in that direction, and it is in general use not only because of these two qualities, but because it is known to possess alternative and curative powers which place it in the front rank of medicine.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Want swell harness for the horse?