FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

MARKET WAS QUIET WITH SMALL ATTENDANCE

As is usual on Friday, the local market was quiet, with a small offering and poor attendance. The principal commodity this week has been hay. The average number of loads per day was 20 and prices were consequently firm, with only an average demand. The prices obtained were $12 to $15. Straw sold slowly at $6 to $8 per ton.

Oats were firm at 93 cents to $1 Wheat as usual was steady at 85 cents. No vegetables were offered from the wagons, asd prices will be steady until Saturday, when a slight change may result. Potatoes sold for 80 cents bag wholesale, and 90 cents re-The demand is comparatively small, as the vegetable is not sufficiently ripe to put away in bins.

It is probable that there will be an increase in the price of meats tomor- Mackay, pfd. There has been no change in the price of fruits this week. Apples are selling for 50 to 80 cents per bushel.

Peaches, 25 to 40 cents, and are an Ogilvie Milling rom average offering, Grapes are selling for Pacific Burt, com. . cents to $2. Elderberries were 8 cents. Muskmelons were 50 cents to

There will be a change in the price of live hogs tomorrow, but the change will probably not be made public until noon.

Already It Is Greater Than the Entire Month of Last Year.

Building for October is now only $24,252 short of the entire record for the corresponding month in 1912. For the year (to date) it is $432,866 ahead of the entire record of last year, while for the first ten months an increase of $562,733 is shown without taking into consideration the fact that the last year figures include the enfire total of October, while only the record of the first ten days of the month are included.

The aggregate total for 1913 to date in 1ne aggregate total for 1913 to date is $1,559,974. By merely equalling the record of October, November and December, 1912, the year's total will be $1,723,064. By an average increase of $92,312, the $2,000,000 mark for 1912 will be reached. The fact that In ten days October is onl short $24,253 of the entire record of as it might seem—on the face of things.

They have arranged to travel only at night, so that hey will have every day to tour the sities on their way. In letters to relatives in this city, the local young ladies describe interestingly their visit to Chicago, Topeka, Newton and other Kansas cities; Albuquerque, New Mexico; the Grand Canyon, Arizona, and Salt Lake City. One of their achievements was a horseback trip down the Zig-zag, Bright Angel trail, near the Grand Canyon. At their last writing they were on their way to Southern California, from where they will go to Honolulu and later to Japan. They will return to New York next April.

London Jews Watch against that superstition that The Trial at Kiev

Local Jews are taking a great interest in the trials proceeding at Kiev, Russia, where Christian feeling has risen against the Jews in connection with the murder of a Christian boy. Mr. A. Hartman, of 300 Dundas stree points out that a fanatical Christian sect has appeared at different times in history, decrying the Jews, and 'alleging that they use the blood of chil-dren in their religious rits and sacrifices. A case similar to the present one occurred about a century ago in Damascus, and anti-Jewish feeling on the part of Christians in that part of Asia rose high, but the charges made against the Jews were discounten-Funeral of Alonzo Jaynes.
