[Canadian Press.] June 25-Via London.-The Berlin Tageblatt has received a dispatch from its correspondent at Lemberg, descriptive of the situation in that city, which reads as follows: 'Reviewing the nine months' rule of he Russians in Lemberg, it is found that among the chief sufferers in the Galician capital were certain former government officials, whose salaries could no longer be paid. Prominent iamilies were reduced to begging in the streets and compelled to satisfy their hunger in the kitchens of other people. "The prices of food reached exorbitant gures. Butter cost six crowns ($1.20) per kilogram (2.20 pounds), or equivaent to 55c a pound. The city of Lemberg issued emergency two-crown notes, which, however, had a barter value of nly one crown.

"Regular Russian policemen and Cossacks patrolled the city. The schools were permitted to stay open only with the express consent of the military governor. Here is a thought for the man who is tired of the city's grind and the rattle and bang of things—the man who is nearing fifty and knows that his productive years as a "salary man" are coming to an end. To lose his position might mean going away off among strangers to hide the fight with poverty and old age. But why go "away off"? Take a ride on any of the suburban lines and see the hundreds and thousands of acres of idle land lying close in-held for speculation-not farmed-not used for anything-and all within a half hour's ride of your lifetime associates. What is the matter with a few cows that you can own? Ten acres which you can lease? What is the matter with a neat bungalow and garden; and, if necessary, a man to help you do the work? Ten cows are a living for a good-sized family and their own up-keep. Chickens thrive where cows thrive, and what with milk, butter, eggs, chickens and garden truck-all you can use and plenty to sell—the prospect of living just outside of the din is anything but disheartening. Our book tells you just what to do about these things. THOMAS E. HILL.
