He Would Run It. The sub-committee of the Street Railway Special Committee yesterday had another round with the two tenders. The amended Mauning-Aikins tender was discussed, but a great mass of figures confronted the commit-tee, and these were handed over to City Treasurer Coady, James Hardy, C.A., and Engineer Jennings, who will report Monday. A Cleveland street-car expert may be called in for consultation. Mr. Jennings expressed himself in some-what hostile fashion touching the Cartwright tender. He said it meant in effect that the city pay $15,000 for management and in addition give the company 15 per cent-of the prodis. GENTLEMEN --Wishing to testify to merits of Histogenetic Medicine for the curs ment to of lung diseases, I submit the following stateent: Two years ago I found myself, as result of exposure to cold and wet weather, taking frequent colds. I took a severe cough and got run down in vitality and had several spells of hemorrhage of the lungs. I coughed a great deal in the morning and some during the night. I consulted two or three physicians, one very clever Toronto physician. He treated me without medicine by hand rubbing and did me considerable od, but in the course of time the hem

r amendment to the present bylaw governing illegal fishing, pot hunting and fish spearing. As the bylaw now reads it only covers some fishing and gill-net fishing. Mr. Ward wants an additional clause put in making it un-lawful to use the spear or gun in the pursuit of the finny tribe. The rigid enforcement of the fish and game law at the Island and marsh has resulted in a great increase in the numbers of all kinds of fish.
