FOURTEENTH YEAR

REPEAL PASSES THE SENATE

THE VICE-REGENT BILL CARRIED BY REVEAL MAJORITY

The Silver Fight Practically Ended—The House Will Less Than No Time in Consequence of the Senate's Amendment, and an Adjournment is Looked For On Thursday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Shortly after 3 o'clock Senator Calhoun of Georgia was wheeled into the senate chamber in his invalid chair in anticipation of a vote this afternoon, but there were still several senators who desired to be heard.

The debate was continued until 7:40 o'clock, and was closed by the speaker, and then the Vice-President stated that if no further amendment was offered, the vote would be taken on the engrossed and third reading of the bill. That was agreed to by the senate.

Then the vote was taken by yeas and nays on the passage of the bill as amended, and it was passed—yeas 43, nays 32.

As soon as the vote was announced, Mr. Voorhes made a motion to adjourn and the Senate adjourned till to-morrow at noon.

Senators are counting upon an adjournment of recess by Thursday. Which is still to be depended upon for the wishes of the Committee on Ways and Means.

Prominent members of the House assure Senators that the House will dispose of the repeal bill in one day.

The House Ready for the Bill.

When the repeal bill comes to the House Mr. Wilson will be recognized to move on the measure in the Senate amendment. The silver man show no disposition to filibuster, although the United Kingdom move on men, and indeed even some of the repeal men, would like the declaratory clause of the Voorhes' substitute stricken out, they are not so sure of this.

The next instant after her head touched the block there was a gleaming flash of light, but the important thing was the words which she uttered, "I am a free woman."

As the blood flowed in torrents from the neck, the executioner exclaimed, "The sentence of the law has been executed, may God have mercy upon the soul."

THE DE JONG MYSTERY.

It is still Unexplained and No Trace of the Missing Wife Has Been Found.

ALBANY, Oct. 30.—The mystery of the disappearance of Miss Just and Miss Schmitz, who are supposed to have been carried off by the "Reds" in the vicinity of the woods in the vicinity of Arden and the Hudson river, has been solved.

As the blood flowed in torrents from the neck, the executioner exclaimed, "The sentence of the law has been executed, may God have mercy upon the soul."

DROPPED DEAD IN YONGE STREET.

Mrs. Murray Thomson Suddenly Stricken While Out For a Walk With Her Son, Harriette Thomson.

Mrs. Eleanor F. Thomson with her son, Mr. R. McDowell Thomson, barrister, was walking along Yonge street last evening when she suddenly fell to the pavement near Trinity square.

Mrs. Thomson was carried into Howards' drug store, opposite the Dr. Winnetts' residence, but despite all that could be done for her she died in 15 minutes.

Deceased was the wife of the late Thomas Murray Thomson, a former well-known railroad man, who was largely instrumental in bringing about the construction of the Canada Southern Railway.

Mrs. Thomson had been married to her son, Mr. R. McDowell Thomson, for many years in Toronto. Of late she has boarded with her son at the Arlington.

BRUDED BY THE WORD.

Execution of a Murderess at Berlin—Faced to the Block.

BERLIN, Oct. 30.—A woman was executed in this city today, she being the first woman to suffer the death penalty here since Berlin was made a Kaiserstadt.

The last woman to suffer the extreme penalty of the law was executed in 1848.

The victim today was Emilie Zillman, nee Kuehne of Hammer, Prussian Silesia, who had been convicted of the murder of her husband, Dr. Winnetts.

IN SIGHT OF HIS 12-YEAR-OLD SON.

James Johnston, Formerly a York Block, Cuts His Throat and Falls to the Floor Dead.

News Reached Newtonbrook, West York, of the shocking suicide in the house, district near Regina, of James Johnston, a former blacksmith of Newtonbrook, who left for the North to engage in farming.

Johnston had been drinking heavily and had constantly ill-treated his family, so that the fact became that the people in the community became justly indignant at his conduct and administered to his death.

He promised to give no more cause of offence, but he had been drinking heavily and had fallen into the old habit of wife-beating.

SIR JOHN ABBOTT IS DEAD.

THE EX-PREMIER ACCUMBES TO CANCER OF THE BOWELS.

The End Came Peacefully in the Presence of His Family—The Funeral Will Take Place in Montreal on Thursday

Montreal, Q., Oct. 30.—Sir John Abbott, ex-premier of the Dominion, died at his residence in this city shortly before 9 o'clock this evening.

He had been in poor health for some months. The patient was suffering from a species of cancer of the bowels and his medical attendants decided that an operation was imperative.

The operation was performed a few weeks ago, but though it afforded relief, it brought about no permanent cure and Sir John gradually grew weaker day by day until death ended his suffering this evening.

His end was peaceful and he was surrounded in his last moments by all the members of his family.

Funeral will take place in Montreal on Thursday afternoon and the remains will be interred in Mount Royal Cemetery.

A brief biographical sketch of Sir J. A. Abbott.

John J. Caldwell was born 71 years ago in the rectory of St. Andrew's Parish, Quebec, Canada.

His father was Joseph Abbott, M.A., who in 1815 came from England and settled at St. Andrew's as the first Anglican incumbent.

The elder Abbott, after a brief residence at St. Andrew's, married Harriet, daughter of the Rev. Richard Bradford, rector of the parish of St. John's.

The union resulted in the birth of a son on March 12, 1821.

Careful training at the hands of his father and the liberal education of the University of Toronto, occupied the first few years of his life.
