

PATENTS PROCURED

In Canada, Great Britain, United States and Foreign Countries.

SIXTEENTH YEAR

HYAMS CASE TO-DAY.

The Sensational Trial To Begin This Morning.

DEFENCE TO PUT IN EVIDENCE.

Celebrated New York Criminal Lawyer Here.

Francis Wellman, Who Prosecuted Erasmus

Wiman, Carlyle Harris and Dr. Buchanan, Retained in the Interest of the Defence.

The preliminary examination of Harry P. Hyams and Dallas T. Hyams, charged with the murder of William Chinnock Wells, on Jan. 16, 1893, will take place at the Police Court this morning.

It is expected to be the most sensational ever held in Canada. The Crown has subpoenaed about 40 witnesses, and the defence has also secured an array of witnesses.

Two Pinkerton detectives have been at work uninterruptedly on the case for the past three weeks in the interest of the accused. An unlimited fund has been placed in the hands of the solicitors for the prisoners, to ensure them the benefit of the evidence that can be collected.

A Celebrated New York Lawyer.

Associated with Messrs. T. W. Horn and F. E. Johnston, coming for the accused, will be Mr. Francis L. Wellman, a New York attorney, who has won great prominence in the last few years, although comparatively a young man.

He served five years as first assistant prosecuting attorney and resigned only a few months ago, during his term he had charge of nearly all the noted criminal cases of the office. Among the convictions he secured were celebrated Carlyle W. Harris, who poisoned his young wife, Dr. Buchanan, another wife poisoner, now awaiting execution; Erasmus Wiman, the famous Staten Island embezzler, and "Frenchy," who murdered "Old Shakespear" in a manner similar to that of "Jack the Ripper" in England. He has the reputation of being the ablest cross-examiner in New York.

About a year ago Mr. Wellman married Emma Von Jahn, the daughter of an oratorio singer. She occupied a box last evening at the Grand with a lady friend.

Mr. B. B. Oiler, Q.C., will be associated with County Crown Attorney Curry.

The Defence to Be Gone Into.

It is probable that Police Magistrate Dennis will consent to the defence to call cross-examiners - the witness.

The defence will fight out the case at the preliminary examination, and reserving their case for the trial. Section 698 of the Criminal Code enacts that the proceedings required by section 691 are completed (the hearing of witnesses for the Crown, etc.) the accused shall be asked if he has any witnesses. Every witness called by the accused, who testifies to any fact relevant to the case, shall be sworn, and his deposition shall be taken in the same manner as the deposition of the witnesses for the prosecution.

A GREAT MURDER TRIAL.

The Middlemarch Murder Case to Be Proceeded with at Elgin Spring Assizes Next Week.

The trial of William D. Weller and John Henderson, charged with the murder of the latter's nephew, W. H. Henderson, will be proceeded with at the Elgin Spring Assizes, which open at Toronto on Tuesday next. It has been ascertained that the defence would ask for a postponement until the fall, but Messrs. Robinson & McDonald, counsel for the prisoners, deny this. As there is but one other criminal case on the list, it is believed that the great murder trial will begin on Wednesday afternoon. As this is the first case in which insurance was the motive for murder, the trial will be watched with interest by the public. B. Oiler will prosecute; 101 witnesses have been summoned for the Crown and about 40 for the defence. The jury panel of jurors has been summoned. The two prisoners are said to be as cool and untroubled as they have been all along.

COERCION AND TYRANNY.

This is Dr. Parsons' Opinion of Toronto Presbytery's Decision in the Parkville Case.

Toronto Presbytery yesterday was engaged until midnight debating the question of Parkville Church and its trustees. Finally, after a long session, Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, it was resolved: That Fern avenue congregation and the trustees be maintained in the congregation, which shall have its place of worship to the north of Queen-street, but that the site shall be selected within these limits, not later than six months after the date of organization; that the church edifice, of a school-room, shall be erected, with two rooms, by the date of organization. This resolution was carried by 17 to 14 votes.

Rev. Dr. Parsons: I beg to dissent from that decision, as mere coercion and tyranny. These people have been treated in a way contrary to Presbyterian freedom and liberty, and I submit that this motion is adding insult to injury." Rev. D. J. Macdonnell (excitedly): I would like to ask Mr. Parsons to withdraw the words "coercion" and "tyranny" as applicable to the majority of the Presbytery.

Dr. Parsons: This decision is simply coercion, when we know the status of both parties.

Mr. Macdonnell (emphatically): I desire to state that I am not entering on the minutes, Moderator, if not within one hour. Has this been done?

Mr. Parsons: They have been taken down. The effect that the congregation be allowed to worship in Gowanus church until April next.

'Salada' is the King of All Teas

February Vegetables.

February seems bound to give us all vicarious weather. Less than two weeks ago people were clamoring for heavy underwears, lined mittens, and they do not drink. The balmy weather out to Queen's spring gives and his new spring neckwear.

Turkish baths, day and night, 204 King st.

California Tokyo.

California Tokyo is the most delicious, and purest ever sold in Canada. Price $2.50 per bottle. The demand grows, 60 cents per bottle. The demand grows, 60 cents per bottle. The demand grows, 60 cents per bottle.

Salada Ceylon Tea is delicious.

Williams & Co., Profrs., 73 Toronto st.

WAS FREE TRADE MADE THEM RICH?

FREE TRADE BRITAINS DISTRESS

London, Feb. 25. - James Keir, M.P., had another hearing before the House of Commons Committee which is investigating the effects of the tariff on the unemployed.

He said that the distress was so widespread that 500,000 would be unemployed throughout the country for six weeks.

MANITOBA SCHOOL APPEAL.

AN ADJOURNMENT SECURED UNTIL MONDAY NEXT.

The Postponement Granted on Application of the Manitoba Government to Allow Mr. Sefton to Be Present - Waters Pleads Guilty and Is Sentenced to One Year in Jail - Deaths at the Capital.

Ottawa, Feb. 26. - The hearing of the appeal of the Roman Catholic minority of Manitoba for a remedial order in reference to school legislation was resumed before the Governor in Council this morning. All the Ministers were present, save Messrs. Costigan, Smith and Ferguson. J. C. Ewart, Q.C., represented the appellants, and Dalton McCarthy, Q.C., appeared for the Manitoba Government. Among those present were Senator Bernier, ex-Governor Royal, Fathers Allard, Christie of Winnipeg, Mr. Chevrier, merchant, Winnipeg, and G. H. Bradbury.

The Premier announced that the Council was prepared to hear continuation of the argument by Mr. Ewart on this question. It would be remembered that he was stopped at the last meeting in order to refer certain questions to the Supreme Court.

Mr. McCarthy said he appeared for the Manitoba Government, and desired to say before the argument was entered on that the Government had not and did not intend to make preparation for the argument, having only received notice of the meeting by telegraph from Ottawa.

The Government was now busily engaged in the work and conduct of a session. He was desirous of not meeting the requirements of lake navigation. And the most strenuous protests were being made against the proposed arrangements.

Mr. Ewart said on behalf of the Roman Catholic minority that they did not object to any reasonable postponement.

Mr. McCarthy would not require to prepare an argument.

Mr. McCarthy: It is not so much for myself that I am for Mr. Sefton, from whom I gather that he wants to be here himself. This question involves the entire educational system of the province with which Mr. Sefton is familiar, and he could not possibly be here until after the session.

Mr. Ewart: I would object strenuously to a postponement until after the close of the session of the Legislature. The delay already had been very great; in fact the difficulties of the case were such that it would be impossible to make a proper case. We hope the Governor-in-Council will request the Manitoba Government to pass several bills. If that be done the Federal Parliament will be able to do anything until the Local Government was heard from. Postponement therefore until the close of the session is not desirable. It is a matter of a few days or weeks, but for one year. He then referred to the declaration made in the speech from the throne at the opening of the Manitoba Legislature recently. From this declaration of the local Government it was clear that it would ask for a postponement, which would amount to a settlement for the time being. The Government has not time to consider their position. It was absurd to urge that they had not had time to prepare an argument. Mr. McCarthy was well qualified to speak on their behalf, as he had been instructing the people of Canada on the subject for so many years.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

Mr. Ewart said that he had heard the case, and that he was not in a position to speak on their behalf. He would not refer to Mr. Ewart's personal observations. He hoped they would be satisfied with the decision.

WEDNESDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 27 1895.

"A GREAT PAY FOR COSTIGAN"

RON. MINISTER OF MARINE BANQUETED IN MONTRÉAL.

A splendid gathering - The Speeches Non-Political in Nature - The Evening Was Spent in North York - Premier May Resign From the Senate to Contest His Old Riding.

Montréal, Feb. 26. - The promoters of the banquet tendered to the Hon. John Costigan at the St. Lawrence Hall, political and social, have every reason to be proud of the splendid success which attended the demonstration from beginning to end. Some 250 gentlemen were present, and the gathering was exceedingly representative. Dr. Hingston presided, while Hon. Mr. Ives, Hon. Ed. Murphy, Hon. Senator Sullivan, J. Metcalf, M.P., Hon. John Hall, Hon. P. E. LeBlanc, the Mayor of Montréal, R. S. White, M.P., and many other leading men occupied seats at the banquet.

Hon. Mr. Costigan's speech was non-political and in a modest review of his political career. He said that when he entered the local politics of New Brunswick he had been an entirely untried man, but when he was elected to the House of Commons, he had the honor to be the first member of the Government to be elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

Hon. Mr. Costigan also alluded to the fact that he had been elected to the House of Commons, and that he had been elected to the House of Commons.

THE CAMPAIGN IN MANITOBA.

Trouble Between the Patrons and the Prohibition Party.

Winnipeg, Feb. 26. - Ferguson, the recently nominated Liberal candidate for the riding of St. James, has been found by Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.

Dr. Rutherford, whom the Liberals have come to think is a stronger man.