

SALUS POPULI SUPREMA LEX EST.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S.

J. Woodbury's

Is Infallibly the Cure for

Enlargement of Glands, Affections of Kidneys,

AND APPLIED EXTERNALLY

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

PRICE 25 CENTS PER BOTTLE Sold by all Druggists and General Dealers.

A. J. MORRISON'S,

His stock of SPRING CLOTHS is complete.

JUST OPENED:

Sheetings (bleached and unbleached),

Shirtings, Factory, Cottonade, Ticking.

STRONG & WHITMAN.

F. A. McPHERSON,

Fashionable Tailor,

MIDDLETON, N. S.

HAS JUST RECEIVED A NEW LINE OF

Cloths for Fall and Winter Wear,

Suitings, Overcoatings and Pantings,

Prices to Suit the People.

Watches for Everybody

REMEMBER

We warrant every Watch we sell.

DIES' WATCHES, WORKINGMEN'S WATCHES,

TEACHERS' WATCHES.

A BIG DISCOUNT

Watches for $10.00.

Watches for $5.00,

2 Cases Flannelettes,

2 Cases Print Cottons,

Latest Styles.

In 1892 this Limment had a sale of 25,000 bottles.

en times the cost. Write to us for testimonials.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1894.

St., Bridgetown

Money to Loan on First-Class Real Estate. 44 ly J. M. OWEN, BARRISTER - AT - LAW, W. G. Parsons, B. A. Barrister, Solicitor, Etc. Office,-" Dr. Gunter" building.

Architect and Civi Engineer.

G. O GATES, PLEASANT STREET, TRURO, N. S. Pianos & Organs.

Specialties!

THROAT

DENTIST,

DENTISTRY.

A. B. PARKER,

CAN SUPPLY PAGE WOVEN WIRE FENCE. THE STEEL HARNESS,

THE POPULAR DOOR CATCHER.

MONEY TO LOAN

NOTICE!

YHURSDAY, 7th and 21st JULY ARTHUR W. PHINNEY, ESQUIRE.

O. S. MILLER,

Real Estate Agent, etc. RANDOLPH'S BLOCK,

BRIDGETOWN, N. S. pt and satisfactory attention given collection of claims, and all other

BRIDGETOWN

N. E. CHUTE, Proprietor. WERY STABLE cuts about 30 tons good hay, and can be cut with machine.

The old orchard has been newly grafted. A Fine Young Orchard ust beginning to bear. Possession oiven at any time. For par-H. D. WOODBURY, Kingston Village.

The Banks Red Gravenstein!

$50 Reward! Killing Moose or Caribou

Agricultural Implements

Ploughs, Harrows, Forks, &c.

Middleton, March 6th, 1894. 48 13i

Call and inspect. Prices as low as any or

W. C. FEINDEL.

15 Per Cent

TEA! TEA! and get sample of our blend. To arrive this week, a large supply of from $1.50 to $4 per pair. A CHOICE LINE OF Family Groceries

MEN'S PANTS

Every Christian wears a Hat on Easter Sunday, and the pr JOSEPH I. FOSTER, > CAUSES Ulcers, Sores,

.B.B

FRED. CARTER, Haney, B. C.

LAST

Five Roses Flour, - $4.75 Delicate Flour, Success Flour, Ansonia Flour, Corn Meal, = =

We have also a full line of GROCERIES, DRY GOODS, BOOTS, SHOES, RUB-BERS, CROCKERY.

Hardware, &c.

GEO. ARMSTRONG. Kingston, N. S., March 14th, 1894.

Coughing leads to Consumption. Stop the Cough, heal the Lungs and strengthen the System the Cream of Cod-liver Oil and hypophosphites. It is palatable and easy on the stomach. Physicians, the world over, endorse it.

Don't be deceived by Substitutes! Potter's Liniment "IT SAVED ME DOLLARS."

Interesting Experience of a Milliage at the more yellow of the theft.

Here mixtrees first missed the money when the went up of the theft.

Her mixtrees first missed the money when the went up or an ellower of the pury I came here to defend a man charged with robbing the with you?" These were the words of Mr. E. I. Ellison, who called at our office yellow, without invitation of anyone, prompted only by a thankful heart.

He addressed the finanger of the Groder C., with above words. Finding he was a dept was indicated of her flag your prompted only by a thankful heart.

He addressed the finanger of the Groder C., with above words. Finding he was a dept was a company to the theft.

He mixtrees first missed the money when he went up to a lease of the first prohibited from May 1st, 1801, to be and here in the down during her also entire the did not intimate that she mixtrasted her until after Rachel Ross, the chamber-mad, had been custioned. This girl's story was that sometime in the foreacon, while it suffered all summer. Somehow he did not help me. Just then I saw a testimonal for the provisions and for Cinnovic Diarrhea, from which I suffered all summer. Somehow he did not help me. Just then I saw a testimonal for man I knew, who had been cared by your remedy. We got a bottle Well, sit, the first half bottle helped mo. I well to the first half bottle helped mo. I well, sit, the first half bottle helped mo. I kept on taking it. The medicine kept one curings. Now I'm all right; can eat, also was a very bear of the proposed examining her trank. Judge of the missing money was found in the tray so you or word south its to one. I kept on taking it. The medicine kept one curings. Now I'm all right; can eat, also you was a new ord word was a very bear of the proposed examining her trank. Judge of the proposed examining her trank, Judge of the proposed examining her trank, Judge of the proposed

Poetry.

that never dies;
Every word man's lips have uttered echoes in God's skies.

The Other Side

e go our ways in life too much alone; oo often we are dead to sigh and moan; Too often to the weak and helpless blind; so often where distress and want abide, The other side is trodden smooth; and worn By footsteps passing all the day,
Where lie the bruised and faint and torn,
Is seldom more than an untrodden way;
Our selfish hearts are for our feet a guide,
They lead us by upon the other side.

t should be ours the oil and wine to pour Into the bleeding wounds of stricken ones; to take the smitten and the sick and sore, And bear them where a stream of blessing Instead we look about—the way is wide, And so we pass upon the other side.

Oh, friends and brothers, gliding down the years,
Humanity is calling each and all
n tender accents, born in grief and tears!
I pray you listen to the thrilling call;
'ou cannot in your cold and selfish pride
Pass guiltlessly upon the other side.

Select Ziterature.

The Story of a Rifled Letter.

It was in the month of March, 1841, that rived early in the morning and at once sought my client and had a long conference with him. The rifled mail-bag had been recovered and the letters from which money had been extracted were given me by the prosecuting

After satisfying myself with their contents so far as the interests of my client demanded I returned them, and as I had nothing special to do during the afternoon I went into the court for the purpose of of getting a lit-tle insight into the methods of a Mississippi

The first case on the docket was one of theft and the prisoner against whom this | ing it was nobody's business since I earned charge had been filed was a young girl-not it myself?" she replied, defiantly, glancing over 17-named Katherine Hunter. She was exceedingly pretty and looked like one who had been tenderly reared. There "Then you have was something very attractive about her- erable sum since you have been working for something so pure and innocent that it at your present mistress?" I insisted. Extra Quality Feed, 1.45 once convinced me that she was not guilty 2.80 of the crime catalogued against her.

The complaint set forth in a positive way that the prisoner had stolen $100 from her mistress, the wealthy Mrs. Morgan, and although the poor girl protested her innocence all against her, and her chance to escape | tioned. conviction seemed very slight indeed. The $100 was in bank-notes and had been maid-Katherine Hunter.

and glancing around quickly encountered | mony. ingly upon me. He was a fine-looking youth, home is in this state?"

with much intelligence in his face, and in a hoarse whisper said: "I see you are interested in the case in | side?" I continued. progress, and as I have been informed that you are a first-class lawyer I wish you would | from her bold face, but finally she replied: do me the favor to undertake the young ady's defence."

'Has she no counsel?" I inquired. "None worth speaking of," was the an-wer. "and she is innocent—as innocent as "Always," she responded; "the girl has swer, "and she is innocent -- as innocent as the angels in heaven. Save her and all I told you the truth about the payments."

possess shall be yours." "I don't doubt it in the least," I replied, "Is she your sister?" I asked.

"No, sir," he replied, "but-but-I am the court demands I would be under obligainterested in her and she must be saved at | tion if you would procure some bearing Miss se I thought she was innocent, but not I fancied, but in a few minutes returned knowing the history of the case I feared I with four receipts which she had taken from could not do her justice, and this I confided the witness. The signature in each was the the witness. The signature in each was the to the youth who, I was now fully persuaded was her lover—perhaps her affianced husband. He continued to urge me to take the case, as the counsel employed was wholly unfit to manage it. I am not sure that I should have granted his petition even then had not I at that moment caught the prisoner's eye, and in that glance read a whole volume of humble entreaty. That look decided me at once and informing the young man that I was at his service he conducted me at once to the girl, who very gladir consensed to give me the whole charge of her sternly in the court where you got that it was at his service he conducted as a tonce to the girl, who very gladir consensed to give me the whole charge of her sternly in the signature in each was the did not it is required in a quick, startling tone, at the same time looking her sternly in the eye. "Be kind enough to inform the court where you got that $75 which you sent your sister at Lawrence."

The witness turned pale to the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after a brief interval, to give the jury time to witness her exceed the guestion. The winess turned pale to the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after a brief interval, to give the jury time to witness turned pale to the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after the did not in the did not, not after the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after the lips and trembled so violently that I was sure she was going to faint, but she did not, not after the lips and the li to undertake the defence, and asked for a | ing to the railing to prevent falling. few minutes' cessation in the examination of men, scarcely up to the average of her class in intelligence, and it required but the look of intense hatred which I saw in her little gray eyes when she turned them on the prisoner to convince me that the rogue was before me.

"Rachel Ross! Rachel Ross!" I repeated,

Words are mighty, words are living: serpents with their venomous stings, Or bright angels crowding round us, with Heaven's light upon their wings; Every word has its own spirit, true or false, that never dies:

that up to the date of the theft she had never given her the least occasion to mistrust her. Rachel Ross was then put upon the stand, and in a bold way told how in passing Mrs. Morgan's room she had heard a suppressed noise which aroused her suspicions and how that I had done for her. Consequently, when at a late hour the young man came to me with his earnings I told him I had been open season continues to August 31st.

From low water nearest 6 colock p.m. of amount tendered in setting up a little every Saturday, to low water nearest 6. the hair trunk which stood back from the py bride. loor, in direct range with the keyhole through which she was stealthily peeping Finally she discovered the package of noney in the girl's hands, which was immediately thrust into her pocket, a proceeding that so horrified her that she ran away without waiting to confront the culprit, as she should have done. When she sat down, flushed with conceited triumph, I asked to have Mrs. Morgan ecalled, and when she had again taken the stand I inquired if it were impossible for this chambermaid to enter the trunk-room. elsewhere. "Certainly not, sir; the door was never ocked between it and my chamber," was the answer. "What I meant was that no one except my maid had any right there." "Do you think she could have had any knowledge concerning the money in the "She might, for I have frequently gone to he trunk in her presence for money to pay her wages," she replied somewhat reluctant-' Have you known of the prisoner having used more money than was her custom since watching her closely. "No, sir, I think not; I am sure she has not," returned Mrs. Morgan, decidedly. Rachel Ross was then recalled and I ask-ed her why she had not informed her miswas called to Jackson, Miss., having been tress of her discovery before she had been compelled to do so, and her answer was that retained in the interest of a young man who had been accused of robbing the mail. I arseemed to be friendless.

"How long have you been with Mrs. Morgan?" I asked, disgusted with her pretentions of friendship. "Not quite a year," she answered prompt-

"How much does she pay you?" "A dollar and seventy-five cents a week. ' Have you been using your money as you arned it since you have been in her employ? "Certainly, sir, what I needed of it." "How much, do you suppose?" I urged. "I don't know, I'm sure. How should I, pending it along as it was necessary, thinkround the court-room to see if her sarcasm

"Then you have not laid by any consid-"No, sir," she retorted, sharply. "And you had no money when you came here?" I insisted.

"No, sir," disdainfully. "If you had really wished to injure the April 1st. prisoner you could not have raised $25 of in the wildest terms the circumstances were all against her, and her chance to escape tioned.

your own to put in her trunk, then?" I questioned.

duck in close season, or have them in possession, whether killed in Nova Scotia or sounding lugubrious and impressive strains

"Indeed I could not. I never had that elsewhere. taken from Mrs. Morgan's trunk, which oc- would not have been fool enough to throw birds before mentioned, or having any of the ulation as the pomp went slowly by. It was cupied a little closet off her sleeping room it away in that fashion, even if I had," she same in possession in close season, whether evening ere it passed; lighted lamps and to which no one had access except this answered flippantly. "Besides the money killed in Nova Scotia or elsewhere, not less and wax torches made the two last tableau found in the girl's trunk was identified by than $5 nor more than $10 for each offence, more impressive. While Mrs. Morgan was giving her testi- Mrs. Morgan, a fact you might have rememmony I felt some one clutch my arm tightly, bered if you had paid attention to her testi- beyond the first. In default of payment, the tearful eyes of a young man fixed plead- I said quietly: "Will you tell me if your

> "It is, sir." "Please name the town in which you re-She hesitated and the defiant look passed "I live in Lawrence on the Mississippi."

"but as particular proof is the thing that

MONEY TO LOAN ON REAL

I then informed the court that I was ready "I-never-sent any," she gasped, hold-poss ing to the railing to prevent falling.

fur, except bear, wolf, lowpervier, wildes

fur, except bear, wolf, lowpervier, wildes

kunk, raccoon, woodchuck, musquash, for For olde Words from an Honest Man

Interesting Experience of a Millstream Blacksmith—A Happy,

Wall Man

The Winterse Cessation in the examination of witnesses that I might have an opportunity of speaking to my client. Retiring to a private room, in as few words as possible she repeated the story of the theft.

You did, and you know it, I tunine etc., for I was beginning to get excited too. She for I was beginning to get excited too. She court, I said: "May it please your honor and gentlemen of the jury, I came here to fine.

Words are lighter than the cloud-foam of the reckless ocean spray,
Vainer than the trembling shadow that the next hour steals away.

By the fall of summer rain-drops is the air as deeply stirred,
And the rose leaf that we tread on will outlive a word.

Yet on the dull silence breaking with a lightning flash, a word,
Bearing endless desolation on its blighting

Bearing endless desolation on its blighting

gray eyes when she turned them on the prisoner's trunk—was put there with the design of criminating the case in your hands, assured that you will do her justice." The jury had heard the witness testify that she had no money, axd after a stisfying themselves that she had written the letter they could do nothing but turned the others and hurried back to my turned the service of the game society), is and being a member of the game society), is employed in the service of the government of Canada or of Nova Scotia.

Words are lighter than the cloud-foam of the right there with the design of criminating ther.

"Without another word I leave my clients case in your hands, assured that you will do her justice." The jury had heard the witness testify that she had no money, axd after satisfying themselves that she had written the prisoner's trunk—was there with there with the design of criminating her.

"Without another word I leave my clients case in your hands, assured that you will do her justice." The jury had heard the witness testify that she had no money, axd after satisfying themselves that she had written the prisoner's trunk—was put there with the design of criminating her.

"Without another word I leave my clients case in your hands, assured that you will do her justice." The jury had heard the witness that she had written and being a member of the game society), is and being a member of the game society), is and being an seat in the court-room.

Mrs. Morgan then resumed her testimony, which did not differ materially from the ran, and while Rachal Downstantial Properties.

The applause in the court-room showed in what channel the sympathies of the people ran, and while Rachal Downstantial Properties. Earth can forge no keener weapon, dealing surer death and pain,

And the cruel echo answered through long which did not differ materially from the ran, and while Rachel Ross was marched statement given me by my client. She iden away to answer to the charge of theft Kath. Unlawful to export moose or caribou I have known one word hang starlike o'er a tified the bills, two tens and a five, found erine Hunter walked on the arm of her or any partridge or woodcock from Nova in the prisoner's trunk, and swore positively lover triumphantly from the court-room.

Morgan's room she had heard a suppressed amount tendered in setting up a little noise which aroused her suspicions and how in stooping down to look through the key- before I left town I had the pleasure of at- fish for salmon in tidal waters. hole she had discovered the maid, Katherine, tending a quiet wedding in which he officiatin the trunk-room beyond, tossing through | ed as groom and my fair client was the hap- no one shall fish for any kind of fish between GAME LAWS. K

Important Information for the Benefit of Provincial Sportsmen—Licenses, Fines, etc. MOOSE AND CARIBOT

Open season begins Sept. 15th; closes trout or land locked salmon between 1st of Jan. 15th. No person shall hunt or kill in close season. nor shall have any green meat in possession, than angling with hook and line. nor buy nor offer it for sale in close season, Penalty for each offence, $20. no matter whether killed in Nova Scotia or Agents of the Game society are by law ap-

No person shall kill in one season more where non-residents are likely to arrive, for than two moose and four caribou. No person shall set or attempt to set any the law. snare or trap for moose or caribon. The possession of a snare or trap is presumptive Halifax, April 3rd, 1894. evidence that the party intends to set it.

Any person finding any snare or trap may destroy it.

No person shall hunt or kill moose or caribou with dogs. Any person may kill a dog but the dogs. Any person may kill a dog but the dogs. Any person may kill a dog but the dogs. found hunting or about to hunt moose or

No person shall hereafter, at any time, the money was stolen?" I questioned, hunt or kill any cow moose. Any person killing moose or caribou must take the meat out within ten days.

A person hunting with dogs any animal bers of the Confraternita, with white hoods which it is lawful to hart with dogs shall be liable to the penalty provided for dogging if the dogs hunt or kill a moose or caribou.

Penalties—For hunting in close season or marched barefoot before each of the palchi, ment in the county juil.

killing a cow moose, not less than $100 nor Then, Christ robed in the purple, with the more than $200, or imprisonment. $200, or imprisonment.

PARTRIDGE, WOODCOCK, SNIPE, TEAL. ed with a veil, placed upon a high mortuary Open season begins September 15th; closes bier. Besides the usual bearers, four gen-December 1st. No person shall hunt or kill themen of the city, in full dress, held the any of the foregoing birds in close season or four ends of the pall. Among them was the have them in possession, whether killed in magnificent Marchese d'A---, with his Nova Scotia or elsewhere.

No person shall kill any woodcock before sunrise or after sunset.

grand swagger. "Chebella presenza!" said the people. Their lackeys in livery attended these four noblemen. Nova Scotia or elsewhere. sunrise or after sunset. BLUE WINGED DUCK.

much money at one time in my life, and I Penalty-For hunting or killing any of the cymbals, kept up a continuous plangent ultogether with $1 additional for every bird > sion any of these birds. Note. - The Game society, having gone to great expense to introduce the latest and best stock of some of the foregoing from England for the public good, relies on all good citizens to protect them.

>
> Speaking about dinners, I much dest against the very lavish decorations.

$2 for each bird, or one day's imprisonment at best for every dollar of the fine. HARE-RABB T. No person shall hunt or kill any rabbit or dles with pink shades are being discarded hare between first of March and first of September. No person shall have them in posset in close season—and all snares set shall be taken up. A clear space of 100 feet must be left between each hedge and any other hedge. Any such illegally set may be destroyed by any person. Penalty for violating any of foregoing provisions. session in close season. No snares shall be

9 o'clock p.m. of every Saturday and 6 o'clock a.m. of the following Monday. Drifting and dipping for salmon is prohibited. Penalty for each offence, $20. Unlawful to fish or have in possession any speckled trout (salvelinus fontinalis), lake October and 1st of April. Unlawful to fish trout by any other means pointed in various places in the province, selling licenses and generally carrying out Secretary Game Society.

On Good Friday, March 31, we drove into Taranto to see the Passion Procession. It failing to carry meat out of woods, not less or platforms. These were carried on the than $50 nor more than $200, or imprison-shoulders of four stalwart brothers of the For having green meat in possession in Life-size figures, realistically painted, told the history of the Passion in six tableaus. First came Christ, kneeling in the Garden For snaring or attempting to enare, not less than $50, nor more than $100, or imoffered Him the cup. Then a terrible Christ at the flagellation pillar, His bones laid bare For dogging not less than $50 nor more at the shoulders, knees, ribs, the pallid flesh than $100, or imprisonment; for hunting or torn with livid wales and bleeding wounds. more than $200, or imprisonment.

For killing were than two moose or four Crucifixion. Then a black bier, with a huge caribou, not less than $50 nor more than black cross above it. Then the chief piece of the whole show-a dead white Christ, cover-

The procession was terminated by a Ma-Open season begins Sept. 15th; closes donna Dolorosa, in rather fashionable mourn ing holding a red heart in her hand. Priests No person sha'l kill or hunt blue-winged and other brethren of the Confraternita of music, with cavernous drums and clashing together with $1 additional for every bird beyond the first. In default of payment, imprisonment.

PHEASANT, BLACK COCK, CAPERCAILZEE, PTARMIGAN.

Unlawful to hunt, kill or have in possession any of these hirels.

"Do you take receipts from your servants when you pay them?" I inquired, turning to Mrs. Morgan.

The days of mirrors and lakes and pond lilies and all that sort of thing are over. They were disclosured to the table. The days of mirrors and lakes and pond lilies and all that sort of thing are over. Silver and glass, with one centerpiece of

Notary Public, Real Estate Agent. United States Consul Agent. Annapolis, Oct. 4th, 1882-

J. B. KINNEY,

PRACTICAL MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

DR. M. G. E. MARSHALL, Largest Range,

Office and Residence: Queen St., Bridgetown James Primrose, D. D. S. Office in Drug Store, corner Queen and Granville streets, formerly occupied by Dr. Fred Primrose. Dentistry in all its ranches carefully and promptly attended o. Office days at Bridgetown, Monday of Tweller of each week its MERCHAN TAILOR - - - MIDDLETON, N. S.

DR. T. A. GROAKER,

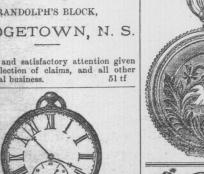

SOUTH FARMINGTON. ALEXANDRA CREAM SEPARATOR,

Real Estate Security EDWIN L. FISHER,

Correspondence solicited. Bridgetown, N. S., February 21st, 1894. LAW OFFICE AT MIDDLETO

every alternate Thursday thereafter, in the office occupied by Office open at 9 a.m. ENGLISH, SCOTCH AND CANADIAN TWEEDS 49 tf J. M. OWEN. Annapolis, March 7th, 1892, 49tf

Call and Inspect Work and Material. BARRISTER, NOTARY PUBLIC

J. E SANCTON. Carriages GRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS!

FARM FOR SALE! Mowers (single or double), Rakes, ning about 140 acres. The interval

Anyone who has ever used it would not be without it for

Butter, Eggs and Beans taken at market

BAD BLOOD

Boils, Pimples, Blotches, Scrofula po Skin Diseases.

DROP

= 4.25 Middlings, = = 1.20

HATS, CAPS,

Scott's Emulsion