

Table of Contents of Vol. IV. 367

	PAGE
Section XII.
Of the Permians, Samoites, and Lappes	256
Sub-section (a).
The description of the regions, people, and rivers lying north and east from Moscovia, likewise the description of other countreys and regions, even unto the empire of the great Can of Cathay, taken out of Sigismundus ab Herbert- stein	259
Sub-section (b).
A note gathered by John Baptista Ramusius, out of Abulfada Ishmael, concerning the trending of the ocean sea from China northward	265
Section XIII.
The Emperor's private or household officers	266
Section XIV.
Of the private behaviour or qualitie of the Russe people	267
XXXVIII. The Lord Boris Pheodorowich his letter to William Burghley, Lord High Treasurer of England	271
XXXIX. The queenes majesties letter to Pheodor Ivanowich (1591)	273
XI. The queenes majesties letters to Boris Pheodorowich	277
XLI. Letter from Lord Burghley to Boris Pheodorowich	279
XLII. Letter from Pheodor Ivanowich to Queen Elizabeth	281
XLIII. Letter from Boris Pheodorowich to Queen Elizabeth	282
XLIV. Letter from Boris Pheodorowich to Lord Burghley	284
XLV. A letter given to the English merchants by Pheodor Ivanowich	286
XI.VI. M. Garlands commission unto Thomas Simkinson for the bringing of M. John Dee to the Emperour of Russia his court	291
XI.VII. A letter from Edward Garland to M. John Dee for the same purpose	292
XI.VIII. A branch of a letter from M. John Merick, touch- ing the death of Pheodor Ivanowich	293
XLIX. A letter from John Balak to Gerardus Mercator, concerning the North East	297
I. A testimonie of the north eastern discoverie made by the English, by John Baptista Ramusius	301