

little table below the tiny reading desk and speak very simply, yet the difficulty is to adapt oneself to the very varied style of people who come. I have been taking for the morning Bible readings, the various names given to our Lord, as throwing light upon his work and character. For instance "Jesus" coupled with "Lamb of God," "The Good Shepherd," "The Light of the world," "The Man Christ Jesus," and find these subjects rich in teaching. In the evening I take different subjects. The Landing is simply crowded at present with people off to the Yukon; 200 more are expected in."
