

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BANNER.

LESSON VII.

Supt. What one miracle is told in every gospel?
School. The feeding of the five thousand.
Supt. Give three lesson facts.
Officers. A needy multitude.
Teachers. A little food.
Scholars. An abundant supply.
Supt. What expressions are used to show the number of people?
School. "A great multitude." "A great company."
Supt. How does John account for the crowd?
School. "The passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh."
Supt. How much food did they have to feed this company of five thousand men?
School. Five loaves and two small fishes.
Supt. Was this enough in the hands of Christ to feed a multitude?
School. "They were filled."
Supt. How may we know that the miracle was in the multiplication of bread and not in allaying the appetite?
School. "They filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten."
Supt. What did the men say when they had seen the miracle?
School. "This is of a truth that Prophet that should come into the world."
Supt. What does Christ call himself in the GOLDEN TEXT?
School. "I am that bread of life."

LESSON VIII.

Supt. Why did the multitude seek Jesus?
School. Because they did eat of the loaves and were filled.
Supt. How did Christ contrast earthly and heavenly bread?
School. Earthly bread perisheth. Heavenly bread endureth unto everlasting life.
Supt. What did Christ declare to be the bread of God?
School. "He which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world."
Supt. What was the prayer of the disciples when they heard this?
School. "Lord, evermore give us this bread." (GOLDEN TEXT.)
Supt. How may we work the works of God?
School. By believing on Him whom he hath sent.
Supt. What does Jesus say about those who come to him?
School. "Him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out."
Supt. Who may have everlasting life?
School. "Every one which believeth on Him."
Supt. Where in the Bible are we taught to pray for bread?
School. The Lord's Prayer. "Give us this day our daily bread."

LESSON IX.

Supt. What is the title?
School. Christ at the Feast.
Supt. What did the people say who believed on Christ?
School. "When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?"
Supt. Who sought to arrest Jesus?
School. The Pharisees and chief priests.
Supt. What blessed invitation did Christ give to the people on the last great day of the feast?
School. "If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink." (GOLDEN TEXT.)
Supt. What had Christ said about those who hunger and thirst after righteousness?
School. "They shall be filled."
Supt. What conflicting opinions did the people have about Jesus?
School. Many said, "Of a truth this is the Prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?"

Supt. Where may we learn the truth concerning Christ?

School. In the Scriptures.

HYMN.

"Break thou the bread of life."

LESSON X.

Supt. Who are Christ's true disciples?
School. Those who continue in his word.
Supt. What is the result of continuing in Christ's word?
School. "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."
Supt. Whom did Jesus call "ave"?
School. "Whosoever committeth sin."
Supt. What is the difference between a servant and a son?
School. "The servant abideth not in the house forever, but the Son abideth ever."
Supt. To whom is every sinner a slave?
School. To Satan.
Supt. Who alone can free us from Satan's power?
School. Jesus Christ.
Supt. Who only are free men?
School. God's children.
Supt. What great honor is given to those who receive Christ?
School. "As many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God. (GOLDEN TEXT.)"

LESSON XI.

Supt. Give three lesson facts.
Officers. A blind man.
Teachers. A healed man.
Scholars. A trusting man.
Supt. What question did the disciples ask about the blind man?
School. "Who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?"
Supt. Why did Jesus say the man had been born blind?
School. To show forth the work of God.
Supt. What did Christ call himself?
School. "The light of the world."
Supt. When he had thus spoken, what did he do?
School. He spat on the ground, made clay of the spittle, anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, and said, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam."
Supt. What was the result?
School. He went and washed, and came seeing.
Supt. What did he say about his cure?
School. "One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see." (GOLDEN TEXT.)
Supt. What did the Jews do to the man?
School. Cast him out of their synagogue?
Supt. How do we know that he became a follower of Christ?
School. "He said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him."

LESSON XII.

Supt. Give three lesson facts.
Officers. The sheep.
Teachers. The Door.
Scholars. The Shepherd.
Supt. How may we know that Christ takes a personal interest in each of us?
School. "He calleth his own sheep by name."
Supt. What does Christ twice call himself in this lesson?
School. The Door and the Good Shepherd.
Supt. As a shepherd, what are his relations to the sheep?
School. "I know my sheep, and am known of mine."
Supt. What does he say he will do for his sheep?
School. "I lay down my life for the sheep."
Supt. For what did he come?
School. "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."
Supt. What may we say of our shepherd?
School. "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want."

HYMN.

"Saviour, like a shepherd lead us."
