ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO

FORTY HOURS.

Opening of the Devotion at the Cathedral Last Sunday.

The Devotion of the Forty Hours Adoration opened at St. Michael's Cathedral on Sunday last. The vast edifice was packed to the doors at both the morning and evening services. In the morning the Mass of Exposition was sung by Rev. Father Rohleder, assisted by Rev. Dr. Treacy as Deacon and Rev. Father Benoit as Sub-Deacon. The Mass was celebrated in the presence of His Grace the Archbishop, who preached the sermon at the close of the Mass. After Mass was concluded the usual procession of the Forty Hours was made around the church, with His Grace bearing the ciborium. The procession was made up of the children of the Parochial Schools, the little girls were clad in white, with their first communion veils covering their heads and shoulders. Flowers were worn in their hair, and as they sang the simple, sweet hymns of our Holy Church the scene was very impressive. The boys carried lighted candles. After the procession, His Grace preached the opening sermon of the three days' exposition. Taking as his text the words, "Now is the accepted time; now is the hour of salvation," His Grace impressed upon the vast congregation that this was doubly the acceptable time, inasmuch as it was the holy season of Lent, and was, in addition, the opening of the grand devotion of the Forty Hours Adoration to which is attached so great indulgences. He dwelt upon the necessity Catholics are under of observing Lent as a time of fasting and prayer, as a time of mortification and withdrawal from amusements of every description. His Grace then went on to explain the Devotion of the Forty Hours, exhorting the faithful to make sacrifices that they might take advantage of this great opportunity of making themselves right with God. The Blessed Sacrament was then exposed and was visited throughout the day by hundreds of adorers. Again in the evening was the great cathedral packed to the doors. Vespers were sung by Father Rohleder. The Rev. Dr. Treacy preached a powerful sermon on the Blessed Sacrament. Comparing it with the manna sent from Heaven, the eloquent preacher drew the parallel between the two—one a heavenly sent food for the body, the other celestial nourishment for the soul. Dr. Treacy in the course of his sermon went on to say that as the sun is the centre of the universe, so, too, is the Blessed Eucharist the centre of all Christianity. Remove the sun and the stars will fall from their orbits and all become disorder and chaos; remove the Blessed Eucharist and Christianity must inevitably fall back again into infidelity. Around the Eucharist are grouped the truths of Christianity, which must fall without their central drawing and maintaining force. A grand trio was rendered by Messrs James, Kelly, and Mr. Frank Anglin at the evening service.

LITERARY AND ATHLETIC.

Mr. Ralph Smith, M.P., of Nanaimo, B.C., and president of the Trades Congress of Canada, delivered a very eloquent address to the members of St. Mary's Literary and Athletic Association in their rooms on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Smith urged upon the young men the great necessity of being Christian men. It was not sufficient, he said, to be members of an association and not be active in its development. Each one of them should be strong in himself, in order that the association might be the more useful to them all.

After dealing with the moral development of a man's character, which, he said, was most essential, he spoke of the benefits that athletics were to strengthen the body, and in return help the heart of the young men to be purer and better. He was reminded of the words of the great Duke of Wellington, who, while looking from the windows of Eton College at the youths engaged in athletic sports, said: "There is where the battle of Waterloo was fought and won." The large audience present appreciated the remarks of the speaker by frequently applauding.

The debate of the afternoon was upon the question: "Resolved that compulsory arbitration is in the best interests of the community." Messrs. J. J. Murray and J. DeRoche upheld the affirmative, while Messrs. Chas. Gerwin and William Henry sustained the negative. Mr. J. T. Loftus was the critic of the afternoon. The subject being large and comprehensive, brought out some excellent arguments both for and against the resolution. Fully two hundred and fifty members were present at the meeting.

ST. BASIL'S.

The regular weekly meeting of the Catholic Union was held on Monday evening with a large number of members present. The question before the House was a resolution introduced by the Government that it would "better for the citizens to allow the Bell Company to manage the telephone system than for the city to take charge of it. The arguments brought out and the question was thoroughly thrashed out.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN.

The Grand Commandery for Ontario of the Knights of St. John is holding a special session in St. Vincent's Hall this week. Supreme Secretary Mr. J. Kane, of Buffalo, was in attendance at the convention. He installed the grand officers. Sir Knight M. K. McGuinn, of St. Anthony's Commandery of this city, was elected grand treasurer in succession to the late Mr. Wm. Hogan. Grand President John P. McCarthy is presiding over the convention.

OTTAWA.

Monsignor Falconio said to be about to be Transferred.

Mgr. Falconio's private secretary on being shown the despatch from Rome stating that the Papal delegate would be moved to Washington, stated that Mgr. Falconio had not as yet been made aware of any such move on the part of the Vatican authorities. The fact that the news came direct from Rome, the private secretary stated, would seem to indicate that there is foundation for it.

According to a report from the Vatican from Vienna, it has been decided, for reasons of economy, to unite the diplomatic representation of the Holy See in Canada and the United States in one and the same person. Archbishop Dulaciel has gone to Lowell, Mass., to attend the funeral service of the late Rev. Father Tortel. Rev. Father Tortel was a former director of the Seminary of Ottawa University, being in charge there when Archbishop Dulaciel made his ecclesiastical course.

It is said that the coronation oath and the objection of Catholics to it will be brought up in the Canadian House of Commons within the next few days. The resolution will be introduced by a supporter of the Government, who will move at the instance of the Catholics in Ottawa, who have already objected on many previous occasions to the oath.

A procession of about 5,000 men and women visited the Basilica, St. Bridget's, St. Joseph's and the Sacred Heart Church, on Friday afternoon last, in connection with the jubilee of the Holy Year. The procession was composed of the attendants of the Basilica parish and was under the direction of Rev. Vicar General/Routher. Rev. Canon Plantin, Rev. Father Groulx, and Rev. Father Seguin were also present. In each church the prayers necessary for the gaining of the Holy Year indulgences were said.

LONDON C. M. B. A.

Messrs. John Ronan, of Hamilton, and Charles Dupont Hebert, of Three Rivers, Que., have been in London auditing the books of the Catholic Mutual Benefit Association of Canada, in the office of Mr. S. R. Brown, grand secretary. During the year 1900 the C.M.B.A. admitted 2,082 new members. There were 125 deaths, and $192,490.91 was paid to the beneficiaries of deceased members. The policies in force on Dec. 31 last amounted to $20,805,000. The liabilities on said date were $13,950, and the assets $142,642.50. The very satisfactory condition of this association reflects much credit on the management.

LENT AT NOTRE DAME.

A Distinguished Preacher at Montreal's Great Church.

Mgr. Rozier, who is preaching the Lenten sermons at Notre Dame Church, Montreal, is among the most distinguished preachers of the Jesuit Order.

Mgr. Rozier is barely forty-nine years of age. He is a native of Quebec, at the foot of the mountains of Dauphiny. In the early days of his priesthood he was appointed by the Jesuit Fathers to deliver the sermons to the pupils of their celebrated College of Mongre.

His instructions attracted great attention, and were the starting point of a celebrated career. The next year he went to Rome, where he continued his studies and took the degrees respectively of Ph. D., and D.D., with high honors. For several years he represented France at Rome in the polyglot octaves of Epiphany in the Church of St. Andrew, and was also called on to preach at the national stations at the church of St. Louis de France in Rome. These are posts of honor which are reserved only to the most distinguished preachers.

Mgr. Rozier has also filled the most celebrated pulpits of France, and has done honor to all of them. After his return from Rome, he went to Lyons, where he enjoyed great favor with Cardinal Foulon. He later went to Bordeaux to preach the Advent sermons, and he was pressed to remain and preach the Lenten sermons. Like unto Iacodaire, so great was his fame as a preacher that when he was to preach at four o'clock the church was crowded by noon.

Mgr. Rozier has been the recipient of honors from the Holy See, having been appointed a Prothonotary Apostolic. For the last few years he has preached in the great churches of Paris—St. Philippe du Mont, at La Madeleine, at Saint Sulpice, Sainte Chotilde, Saint Augustin, and others. For four years in succession he was retained at La Madeleine in a position of distinction for a preacher.

The secret of his success lies in his pleasing address. He displays in his preaching, however, a depth of learning and thought rarely witnessed. His favorite subjects are those which require ample treatment, such as panegyrics, episcopal jubilees and matters of like nature.

In accepting the invitation of the Superior of the Seminary to come to Montreal, Mgr. Rozier expressed his regret at giving up the occasion of returning to Rome, where he had been invited to preach the Lenten sermon at the church of St. Louis de France. He chose Canada, however, because of the favorable reports he has heard of the lively faith which animates the faithful in this country.

HOLY DEATH OF A RELIGIOUS.

Sister Mary St. Rock goes to Her Eternal Reward.

Death, no infrequent visitor at this season, entered St. Joseph's Convent on Friday the 15th inst., and took from the community Sister Mary St. Rock (Finn) in the thirty-second year of her age, and the eleventh of her religious life. Not as the King of Terrors did the dread visitant appear, but rather as a beautiful consoling angel, to bear to the feet of the Eternal the pure soul, the guileless spirit that a decade of years before had consecrated herself to the service of her Creator. Not many years' labor in the vineyard, measuring time by human standards, but many in the sight of God Who metes out length of days by heavenly measurements, and weighs in the scales of the sanctuary the good will, the holy aspirations, the loving desires of the heart that yearns to devote itself unreservedly to God's service. What matter if such be cut down in their young bloom and freshness, before the fair flower of their bright lives has reached its full perfection; what matter if the radiant roses, freshly formed, fall of evaporation, by their sweet Sister, "Death beautiful, smiling, crowned with stars, lovingly bending over them," announcing the completion of their journey's end? O Divine Wisdom, Who accepts the will for the deed, such generous souls accomplish much in a short space and leave to others the beautiful memory of their unalloyed, hallowed lives.

Sister St. Rock was not destined by Almighty God to actively labor for His glory; her portion was rather to endure, to bear the cross of bodily suffering, to treat with her Crucified Spouse, the dolorous way of Calvary. Though for the last few years subjected to almost continual pain, her indomitable will never wavered, her brave spirit never flinched. No amount of suffering or weariness could withhold her from the community exercises and until within four days of her death she occupied her place in choir, keeping watch before her Sacramental Lord. The most marked trait in her character was the sweet placidity with which she bore her lingering illness; and as she had edified the little children, when in the earlier days of her religious life she had been employed in the classes, so in her later years did she edify her Sisters in religion, by the holiness of her daily life, her patient endurance of pain, and her sympathetic efforts to assist others, her complete forgetfulness of self even when death had marked her for his own. Solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated in the Convent Chapel on Sunday, the 17th inst., by the Very Rev. V. Marjolin, Provincial of the Basilians, assisted by the Rev. F. R. Frachon, C. S. B., Rev. H. Quinlan, Rev. A. Staley, Rev. M. Loughney, Rev. J. Foster, Rev. M. Cusack.

To the deceased Sister's relatives, residing at Ottawa, who now mourn a second Sister lost to them in the Community of St. Joseph, words of condolence seem scarcely fitting; rather would we say to those sorrowing ones, in the beautiful words of the poet, Death has not claimed the dear departed;— "Not Death, but God! How tenderly Above the frail form there! Ah, no, of all these loving, anxious friends Can understand His care. To you this silence—and that dying face, That grows so faint and dim; To her the Father's whispered words of grace, And her first smile from Him." May her soul rest in peace.

C. J. O'NEIL.

C. J. O'Neill, local master in Chancery, died at Chatham, last week. The Planet says:—

Mr. O'Neill was one of the best classic scholars in Chatham, and death has robbed the Maple City of a most brilliant and learned student. If he had any fault, it was his great love of learning, and he would much rather sit up all night studying the dead and living languages than be spending his time as other men do.

Speaking of Mr. O'Neill, Judge Houston said, "Mr. O'Neill was one of the finest men I ever knew. The news of his death came as a great blow to me and I feel as if I had lost a brother. He spent five years in my office preparing himself for his profession. He had been in the registry office for a short time previous and proved a good clerk and an industrious and clever student. He was the best classic scholar in the county. His vacations were always spent in reading and studying Cicero's orations. All I can say is that one of the best-hearted men that ever lived has passed away. He was a great thinker but his ill-health interfered with his accomplishing more than he did."

In politics he was a Conservative, and during his life he was always a warm exponent of his party's principles, both on the platform and in private life. He was a leading speaker in many campaigns as long as his health held out. He was for five years president of the Kent Conservative Association previous to ex-Mayor Smith's term of office. Deceased was born in Streetsville and came to Chatham in 1868. He taught the McCully School, Barwick, and a school in Raleigh before taking up the study of law in the office of Mr. Houston. As a member of the MacAulay Club he was distinguished as an orator and scholar. Besides a widow he leaves three children.

THE CORONATION OATH.

The Movement in the Canadian Parliament.

Mr. Costigan on Tuesday last gave notice of an amendment to supply, in the House of Commons, touching the coronation oath. He said that he would introduce it in a spirit of un-friendliness to the Government. When the House was next moved into Committee of Supply, Mr. Costigan gave notice that he would move the following amendment:— "That an humble address be presented to His Most Gracious Majesty the King as follows:—

"Most Gracious Majesty: Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects the Commons of Canada, in Parliament assembled, beg leave most humbly to represent that as a token of civil and religious liberties, and of the equality of rights guaranteed to all British subjects in the Canadian Confederation as well as under the British Constitution, a British Sovereign should not be called to make any declaration offensive to the religious belief of any subject of the British Crown. That by virtue of the act of settlement of 1689, the British Sovereign, on the first day of the meeting of the first Parliament or at the coronation is called upon to make the following declaration:—'I, A. B., by the grace of God, King (or Queen) of Great Britain and Ireland, defender of the faith, do solemnly and sincerely in the presence of God profess, testify and declare that I do believe that in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ, at or after consecration thereof by any person whatsoever; and that the invocation or adoration of the Virgin Mary, or any other saint, and the sacrifice of Mass, as they are now used in the Church of Rome, are superstitious and idolatrous; and I do solemnly in the presence of God profess, testify and declare that I do make every part thereof in the plain and ordinary sense of the words read unto me, as they are commonly understood by English Protestants, without any evasion, equivocation or mental reservation whatsoever, and without any dispensation already granted me for this purpose by the Pope or any other authority or person whatsoever, or without thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or man, or absolved of this declaration or any part thereof, although the Pope or other person or persons or power whatsoever should dispense with or annul the same, or declare that it was null and void from the beginning.'"

That such declaration is most offensive to the dearest convictions of all Roman Catholics. That the staunch loyalty of his Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects in Canada, comprising about 33 per cent. of the entire population of this Dominion, and throughout the British possessions, should not be rewarded by their being chosen alone amongst believers of all creeds and branded as idolaters by their sovereign. That in the opinion of this House he above mentioned act of settlement should be amended by abolishing the said declaration, and the British Sovereign be freed forever from the obligation of offending the religious principles of any class of his faithful subjects throughout the British Empire."

MAKES DENIAL.

Archbishop Favier, the head of the French mission in North China and the vicar-apostolic of Pekin, in the course of an interview declares that the accusations brought by the family of Lu Sen, Chinese minister of foreign affairs, who was executed by the emperor dowager because he would not sanction the anti-foreign movement, that the bishop looted their houses of money and valuable aggregating 1,000,000 taels the day after the siege was raised, are absolutely untrue. He further said that immediately upon his arrival in Pekin he will place himself at the disposition of the allies and furnish a complete reply to the calumnies. If, however, it be shown that any Christian without his knowledge or order injured any Chinese family, he will deem it his duty after investigation by the allies to make every reparation.

NORDHEIMER'S EMPORIUM.

Attention is called to the advertisement appearing in our columns this week of the great musical house of Nordheimer. It is of that class that we know that the goods advertised are always up to the guaranteed standard. The Nordheimer Company carries on, perhaps, the greatest musical trade in Canada, and they are always up-to-date.

SUN SAVINGS AND LOAN COMPANY.

Attention is directed to the report of the Sun Savings and Loan Company, found elsewhere in this paper, which shows a marked progress for the year. Their mortgage loans now reach over $335,000. A dividend of 6 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly, was paid on permanent stock, and a good sum placed to reserve, after carrying to the credit of the accumulative stockholders a dividend of 10 per cent. on the amount paid on their stock. Parties seeking investment for money should investigate this company's business.

GRAND'S REPOSITORY.

Special attention is called to the forthcoming sale of thoroughbred stallions at Grand's Sale Stables on March 12th, 1901. Particular mention may be made of the thoroughbred stallion, Sentinel, consigned by Major Dent, Malton, Eng. He is about 15-3 hand, of rich brown, on good short legs, clean hocks, good flat bone, deep round chest, with full lung capacity. Lively and back to carry any weight; very kind and gentle. In short, he is just such a horse as, crossed with our Canadian-bred mares, will produce stock of exceptional value that is sure to command high prices. Catalogues containing full description of this splendid stallion, and a number of others, as well as a large number of excellent mares and geldings, will be mailed on application to Walter Harland Smith, Toronto.

HOME SAVINGS AND LOAN CO.

Mr. Eugene O'Keefe, of the O'Keefe Brewing Company, of this city, has been chosen President of the Home Savings and Loan Company, in the place of the late Sir Frank Smith, of Toronto. We congratulate the Home Savings and Loan Company on their happy choice. They are indeed fortunate in their choice of presidents. Sir Frank Smith made an ideal head for the Company, and now they have chosen a man who, judging from the unparalleled success he has made in his own business, will carry on the good work to a successful issue. We congratulate the company on securing so strong a man to control their affairs, and we congratulate Mr. O'Keefe on the honor that has been paid him.
