

interests of McGill University than the combination of her Graduates into an energetic Association, which would not only afford them an opportunity of social intercourse, but also a common platform upon which matters relating to the welfare of the University might be discussed. We give the constitution of the Society below :

GRADUATES' SOCIETY.

The following draft of a proposed Constitution of a Graduates' Society has been handed to us for publication :

1. This Society shall be known as the Graduates' Society of McGill University.
2. It shall be composed of all Graduates who shall pay an annual subscription of one dollar.
3. The object of the Society shall be to blend the Graduates more closely to each other, and to their Alma Mater ; and to afford them the means by united effort of more effectually promoting the interests of the University.
4. The officers of this Society shall be a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer and six councillors, who shall be elected by ballot at each annual meeting, and shall form the executive of the Society.
5. The annual meeting shall be held on the evening preceding the Arts convocation.
6. The General meetings of the Society may be called by the Secretary on the requisition of the President, or any three members of the Executive Committee, or any ten members of the Society.
7. Fifteen shall form a quorum of the Society and five a quorum of the Executive Committee.
8. The constitution cannot be amended except by a two-thirds vote at an annual meeting. The usual by-laws and rules of order were also submitted and received.

The committee having taken into consideration the working of the Society and the most effectual means by which its objects might be attained, recommended :

1st. That under the auspices of the Society, an entertainment commemorative of its founder be held each year at a date as near as may be found convenient to the anniversary of his birth ; to which the friends of the University shall be invited.

2nd. That with a view to giving members the opportunity of discussing University topics in a social manner, a dinner be held annually on or about the date of the Arts convocation.

3rd. That the selection of representative fellows from the several Faculties be considered at the annual meeting.

4th. That public exercises of a character, which at the discretion of the Executive, may be varied from time to time, form a portion of the proceedings at each annual gathering
