

MEDICO-CHIRURGICAL SOCIETY OF MONTREAL.

Annual Meeting, Oct. 9th, 1891.

F. J. SHEPHERD, M.D., PRESIDENT, IN THE CHAIR.

The annual meeting for the year 1891-92 was held at the Society's rooms, 14 Phillips Square, on the above date. There were present: Drs. F. W. Campbell, Proudfoot, Perrigo, Lapthorn Smith, Stirling, Jack, Springle, Kenneth Cameron, Wm. Gardner, Duquet, Guerin, J. H. Bell, Gurd, J. J. Gardner, A. D. Gardner, Muirhead, O'Connor, Kirkpatrick, Telfer, J. A. Hutchison, Reed, Mills, Jas. Stewart, Buller, DeCow, Allen, Kinloch, Lockhart, Geo. Brown, G. G. Campbell, Ed. Blackader, W. G. Stewart, A. Gardner, Roddick, J. A. MacDonald, Foley, and McCarthy.

The President having called the meeting to order, the following resolutions of regret at the death of Dr. Robert Townsend Godfrey were proposed by Dr. T. D. Reed, seconded by Dr. James Stewart, and carried unanimously:—

"That this Society has learned with the greatest regret of the death of Dr. Robert Townsend Godfrey, one of its founders, and a former president. Dr. Godfrey was a constant attendant, for many years, at the meetings of the Society, and at all times manifested his interest in scientific and practical work, by discussions and contributions. His very large experience in family practice made his opinions of great weight. His quiet, friendly manner and sympathetic words to his confreres endeared him to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

"Resolved,—That our deepest sympathy be conveyed to his sorrowing family in this their time of mourning."

After the minutes of the preceding meeting had been read and adopted, Dr. Auger was elected a member.

The Treasurer (Dr. J. A. MacDonald) presented his annual report, which showed, notwithstanding some arrears, a fair sum to the credit of the Society. It was moved by Dr. Roddick, and seconded by Dr. J. J. Gardner, that the treasurer's report be adopted. Carried.

The retiring Secretary (Dr. McCarthy) stated that the regular fortnightly meetings of the Society had been duly held during the past year; that a greater number had taken part in the proceedings, and that the attendance had been greater than in previous years. The membership had considerably increased; no
