

NEW BOOKS —OF— TRAVEL AND FICTION

From the Great Lakes to the Wide West.

By BERNARD McEVROY.

Cloth, - - $1.50

Illustrated plentifully with pictures—new plates from best photographs—along the route across the continent.

Mr. McEvroy writes with the easy, sprightly style of the practised journalist—he possesses the eye of a keen observer, and the faculty rare enough, and therefore all the more to be valued, of giving things their proper proportion. As might be expected, the touch of the poet is frequently in evidence, especially in the many exquisite passages descriptive of the scenery witnessed en route. A vein of light humor runs through all the chapters, greatly enhancing the reader's enjoyment. Certainly no volume since Principles of Travel—even to the extent of being published—gives anything like so engaging a picture of Canadian travel. Its value can scarcely be overrated as a capable estimate and description of Canada's great Western heritage.

174TH THOUSAND.

STEADILY INCREASING IN POPULARITY

Tarry Thou Till I Come,

or SALATHIEL, THE WANDERING JEW

By GEORGE CROLY.

Paper, 75c.; Cloth, $1.25.

"Parts of it remind me of the graphic pages of Victor Hugo in his Les Misérables and Ninety Three, and parts of it of the scintillating chapters of Leviathan in his Quo Vadis. Here and there one is reminded of Hawthorne."—Theo. W. Hunt, Ph.D.

The Lion's Whelp.

A STORY OF CROMWELL'S TIME.
By AMELIA E. BARR.

Paper, 75c.; Cloth, $1.25.

"There is no denying its great literary merit, and the skill with which the atmosphere of the period to which it relates is reproduced. The Lion's Whelp is a skilfully constructed story. The portrait of the Protector is painted in vivid and life-like colors, and the book will serve not only to sustain, but to enhance the already great reputation of its author."—Philadelphia Enquirer.

The Portion of Labor.

By MARY E. WILKINS.

Cloth, - - $1.50.

The picture of the class problem as seen in a New England manufacturing town, is drawn with wonderful skill, and the study of the development of the character of a young girl, of her love, and her struggle with herself, is handled in a masterly fashion. It is an epoch-making book.

The Making of a Marchioness.

By MRS. HODGSON BURNETT.

Cloth, Illustrated, - $1.25.

The setting of the story, the fine old English house, its erratic, shrewd and kind mistress, the various English and American guests, and the Marchioness, before whom all wish to appear to the best advantage, all are cleverly drawn, and are admirable foils for the simple, unobtrusiveness of the womanly heroine.
