MR. ROBERT CAMPBELL of Pictou, N.S., tanner, formerly Robt. Campbell & Son, and reputed one of the wealthiest business men of the town, is reported as having suspended.

THERE are now, says an exchange, about 2,400 different diseases, and every year the strain on a single patent medicine becomes harder and harder; yet the medicine stands up manfully, and promises to cure them all.

WE have been compelled to postpone until our next issue a reply to the Montreal Gazette's article entitled "The Dominion Note Reserve" which, though written apparently in the interest of the banks, does not, we sincerely hope, express their views.

A NEWLY-PROJECTED "Harvester" joint stock company has obtained quite a degree of adverse advertising during the last few days, because of its alleged use, without authority, of the name of a banking establishment on its prospectus. It is remarked that the title was ominous of its fate, as pye-crusts are made to be broken.

A SMALL wholesale dry goods merchant of long standing in Toronto is reported to be in financial straits, and about to request some indulgence at the hands of his creditors. His indebtedness is chiefly in Great Britain. It is possible that an endeavor will be made to arrange for a continuance of the business, although with the multitude of houses in that line now in Toronto it would appear to be rather problematic as to final results.

MISS B. MURPHY, dealer in dry goods and millinery at Napanee, Ont., whose assignment was noticed in our issue of 27th ult., has been obliged to yield possession to the sheriff who seized under an execution all her stock in trade. Her liabilities have not been ascertained, and the assets, consisting chiefly of old stock of fancy goods, are estimated at $1,500; amount of book-debts not known. Miss Murphy is said to have been in trouble once before. Her present difficulty is ascribed partly to the business being too small in proportion to the expenses, and partly to the mode of carrying it on. Her sister occupied part of the store, and is understood to have been carrying on business separately, in the same line.

P. E. McKERRAL began business in Chatham, Ont., as a hotel-keeper about ten years ago. Previous to 1872 he had been engaged in the cordwood, steamboat and shipping business and was supposed to be making money, but failed in 1872, the estate paying very little; not getting a discharge he leased a hotel in his wife's name, and was supposed to be doing well when he sold out. About a year ago he leased the present hotel, but does not appear to have made any progress since. He assigned about a fortnight ago, owing about $12,000, with assets of only about $3,000 in hotel furniture, and an equity of redemption on some real estate which, though valued at some $4,000, is said to be mortgaged for about $3,000. He was supposed to have been doing a good business, and attributes his losses to speculation—in the Chicago wheat market, according to rumor.

OF two painful circumstances that occurred in this city of late, it is a question which is the more grievous. One was the death, remote, unfriended and melancholy, at the General Hospital, of Mr. James Muir, formerly a partner in what were then prominent and flourishing wholesale firms in Hamilton, and said to be the first man who set up his liveried servants establishment in the "Ambitious City." His body narrowly escaped furnishing a lesson in physiology and anatomy in the dissecting-room. It were needless to recount the steps which led to
