

NEWS AND NOTES.

Late investigations into the geological history of the Himalayas, prove that they were, speaking geologically, of recent origin. They are ascribed to the post-eocene times.

In diseases of a wasting character—that is, diseases in which the patient steadily loses weight—Eagar's Phospholeine has been found to be a valuable remedy.

It is reported that yellow fever is making fearful ravages among the Europeans and Americans in Vera Cruz. A thousand deaths have occurred within the past two months.

No dinner-table is complete without a dessert made from Eagar's Wine of Rennet.

The well-known dwarf, Charles Stratton—better known as "Tom Thumb"—died of apoplexy at his residence in Middleboro', Mass., on the 15th inst. He was between 45 and 46 years old.

A lady writes: "I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for many years, and could not keep house without it. For the relief of the pains consequent upon female weaknesses and irregularities, I consider it without an equal."

"Dr. Benson's Skin Cure," says A. M. Noble, Salem, N. C., "made my scaly skin soft as a lady's."

The great English dictionary now in course of preparation, it is said, will contain 200,000 entries, and 1,000,000 quotations. It has reached as far as "alternate," and thus far contains 6,000 entries to the 3,000 of Webster.

Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary they prove of special service to those who have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicines, and feel their injurious effects. In such cases Ayer's Pills are invaluable.

A Bill has been introduced into the French Chamber by M. Achard to obtain powers to make soundings preparatory to the construction of a railway bridge over the English Channel from Cape Guineas to Folkestone.

A Total Eclipse. of all other medicines by Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" is approaching. Unrivalled in bilious disorders, impure blood and consumption, which is scrofulous disease of the lungs.

A record, which goes back to the battle of Flodden Field, has been acquired for the British Museum. It is the oldest printed ballad in the English language, and is a specimen of the work of the earliest typographers.

Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills cure headache of every nature promptly, also neuralgia.

Coins of the fourth century, made of bronze, and between eight and nine hundred in number, have been found near Rochester in England. There are mostly of the time of Constantine, and some are stamped with his Christian standard. They were discovered in digging up a tree.

Get The Original. Dr. Pierce's "Pellets"—the original "Little Liver Pills" (sugar-coated)—cure sick and bilious headache, sour stomach, and bilious attacks. By druggists.

The zeal of Bishop Whipple in Indian Missions is well known. Since he has been in Minnesota, a period of twenty-four years, over 100 churches have been erected. He has seven Indian clergy.

During the excavations which have been lately made at Rome in the small open space behind the apse of the Church of Santa Maria sopra Minerva, near the site of the temple of Isis and Serapis, a small obelisk and a sphinx of basalt have been discovered.

An Irishman called at a drug store to get a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for the Rheumatism; the druggist asked him in what part of the body it troubled him most. "Be me soul said he I have it in every houl and corner of me."

The Tell Chapel, on the Lake of Luzern, which has been restored by the Society of Swiss Artists and decorated with frescoes by M. Stuckelberg, has been formally handed over to the Government of Uri in the presence of delegates of the Confederation and representatives of twenty Cantons.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due. Honor the name of Dr. Scott Putnam, inventor of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Many less deserving men have their names enrolled among those considered benefactors of their race. Why not his? Ask those who have used Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor what they think of it. Their thankful hearts cannot sound his praise too high. Safe, sure and painless. Beware of cheap substitutes. Sold everywhere by druggists, &c. N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Proprietors.

Recently the King of Saxony, while visiting a factory at Mylau, was preparing to ascend in the lift, when a heavy weight fell from above, striking Herr Hubler, the Governor of the district, and Herr Clad, the manager of the factory. The King and the other occupants of the lift escaped unhurt. The machine had been examined shortly before and pronounced in excellent order.

RELIEF Is at Hand

Gates' Certain Check IS speedily making its way into every family in the land. Its Sale has more than doubled during the past year on its own merits, and all are satisfied that it is purely Vegetable, and a perfectly safe and harmless Medicine, and at the same time a certain and positive Cure for

Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cholera, Cholera Morbus,

And all other kinds of violent PAIN and CRAMP.

No family should be without it in the house one day, as it may save life before a Physician can be called, and will certainly save a great amount of suffering, and perhaps a long sickness by its early use.

For children of all ages it is just the thing. Infants take it in smaller doses with perfect success, being pleasant to the taste and giving instant relief. A few of the numerous testimonials may be seen in pamphlets and around each bottle. Price only 25 Cents. Try it once and you won't be without it. Sold everywhere and at wholesale, by Brown & Webb, Forsyth, Sutcliffe & Co., John K. Bent, Halifax.

BLISSVILLE, N. B., Aug. 22d, 1882. Two years ago, I was very sick with what is called summer complaint or dysentery, and I bought one Bottle of GATES' CERTAIN CHECK, and I verily believe that it saved my life. This I can testify to. A. L. MATHEW, J. P.
