

MISS PINCHBECK.—“Men are sad liars, my dear, and when you come to my age you'll agree with me. Do you think if a man were to look me in the face at this identical moment and swear that he loved me that I would believe him?”

NELLIE.—“You might, aunty, but I shouldn't; it's so easy to tell when people are saying anything in joke just by looking at their eyes, you know.”
