TESTIMONIALS FROM THOSE WHO HAVE

CROSSES and CRUCIFIXES

MONSIEUR-As the Star of the East led and guided the magisto our Redeemer's feet, so does the crucifix treated with your compound, in the darkness of my chamber, in the solemnity of the night, lead my soul from earth to heaven, where in tetrnal glory reigns the Being whose embler shines and overshadows my sleeping moments.

Yours in X,

BRO. JOACHIM. BRO. JOACHIM.

From the New York Correspondence of the Dublin Freeman's Journal, February 16, 1881.

Through the courtesy of Mr. J. R. Maxwell & Co., proprietors of M. Cerqui's Chemica Compound, we were favored with a private view of one of the most wonderful discoveries of the century. I was led into a room, the curtains were drawn and every ray of light was excluded century. I was led into a room, the curtains were drawn and every ray of light was excluded and in the darkness, where first I saw only plain plaster figures, there stood out in clear, bright, awe-inspiring distinctness, first the figure of the Saviour suspended in space, as it were, then or either side the figures of Mary and Joseph, while looming up in the foreground was the figure of an angel bearing a crown that seemed to rain light. If ever a feeling of faith and veneration possessed a Catholic, it then overwhelmed the writer, the scene was so novel and reverential Upon leaving we were presented with a cross; it is kept on a bracket in our chamber, and in the darkness of night it seems to say, sleep safe, His cross watches and guards you.

We also have the honor to refer to the following Clergymen and Sisters:

Rev. Thos. Kierns, Lehigh Avenue, Philadelphia, Pa.; Rev. J. Slattery, Susquehanna, Pa. Rev. J. Murphy, Blossburg, Pa.; Rev. M. Voigt, Franciscan College, Trenton, N.J.; Rev. T. Reardon, Easton, Pa.; Convent of Good Shepherd, Baltimore, Md.

If you possessed a Cross or any religious object treated with this compound, you will readily see how much satisfaction and with what a reverential feeling such an object would be viewed at night, when darkness and silence reign supreme, then like protecting figures, insignias of our faith, beautifully bright, uninfluenced by the surrounding gloom, they are an inspiration for the last thought or word before sleep overcomes us.

We are now manufacturing such Crosses, and a number of different Statuettes, Crucifixes, and the usual Church Ornaments, and treating them with this wonderful compound. We also desire to inform you that we are prepared to treat, at a nominal cost, any articles of a like nature you may wish to have rendered as distinct at night as they are during the day.

For $1.00 we will send you a Cross, including pedestal, possessing this desirable quality, confident that after once witnessing the feeling it inspires, looming up like a torch of faith in the blackness of night, you will call more, and urge upon your friends the satisfaction the possession of one gives in the silent hours of the night.

$1.00 each fo. Crosses. $2.00 for Crubifixes, O-inch figure. $3.00 " " 17 " "

Crosses $9.00 per dozen, or $5.00 per half dozen.

Send money by Registered Letter and we send Crosses free of charge.

THE FRENCH IN AFRICA. TROOPS LANDED, IN MADAGASCAR—HOVEMENTS ON

THE WEST COAST. Panis, May 24. - Madagascar advices state that the French detachment landed and carried several military posts erected by the Hovas on Saksiava Territory in defiance of French rights. Admiral Pierre occupied the Oustom House at Majunga, scouring the waterway leading to Tanarivo, the capital of the Island. It is semi-officially stated that the object of the French expedition to Madagascar is to force payment of sums due the French Government from Madagascar, by holding the custom houses there as security for the amount. If the Boyas continue to resist, Fra: ca will impose a treaty placing French sut j-cts in Madagascar on the same scoting with English subjects.

Intelligence from Senegal says a French column under Col. Des Brades drove the hostile natives back sixty kilometres, and tranquility has been established on the left bank of the Niger.

Mrs. W. J. Lang Bethany, Oat., writes: 1 was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my car similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I tried everything that could be done through medical skill, but without relief. As a last resort I tried Dr. Thomas' Eslectric Oil, and in ten minutes found relief. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of infishmation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colde, and bruises, &c., in fact it is our family medicine.

WILLIAM O'BRIEN, M. P., AND THE GIANT. The House of Commons had a curious morning in the person of "Ohang," the Chinese giant. His conductor, Mr. Cameron, a Dublin man, sent in his card to Mr. William O'Brien, the member for Mallow, who, on going out to the lobby and asking for his visitor, was associahed to see the gigantic Chinaman advancing towards him. am Chang," said the giant laconically.

"How are you, Mr. Chang," said Mr.
O'Brien, with great presence of mind. After a little conversation Mr. O'Brien procured him a seat under the clock. The members present honored him with their undivided attention while Mr. Trevelyan was engaged in explaining the provisions of the new Constabulary Bill. A Scotch member, whose curiosity overcame his natural reserve, walked across the floor to Mr. O'Brien, and asked who his enormous friend was. Mr. O'Brien promptly replied that he was a coming candidate for an Irish constituency, and a native of a district with an uppronounceable name in the County Tipperary, where he was considered rather small for his age.

Mr. G. W. Maculty, Pavilion Mountain, B. O, writes: "Dr. Thomas' Edectric Oil is the best medicine I ever used for Rheumstism. Nearly every winter I am laid up with Bhea-matism, and have tried nearly every kind of medicine without getting any benefit, until I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It has worked wonders for me, and I want another supply for my triends, &c."

London, May 24,-At Epsom to day the race for the Royal stakes handicap was won by "Lowland Chief," "Sweetbread" 2nd, "Roust" 3rd. There were 14 starters, including Lorillard's "Sachem."

Mr. C. P. Brown, Crown Land Agent, Sault Ste. Marie, writes: "Two or three of my friends and myself were recommended to try Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of God Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Sods, in preference to Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites. We prefer your Emulsion, and think it better than the Syrup."

Holloway's Ointment and Pills .- Safely and Securely. - When the severities of winter have yielded to the genial spring, invalids should make a determined effort to regain their lost health; when through confinement indoors, want of appetite, and disturbed sleep, the entire system has been weakened and the spirits have been broken down, Holloway's remedies are equal to the occasion. The Ointment rubbed over the regions of the stomach and liver, aided by the internal administration of his Pills, will rectify the digestion, regulate the bile, and purify the blood-three sanatory actions which will speedily confer renewed vigour, brace up the failing nerves, confirm the flacold muscles, and restore to the ailing cheerfulness that great charm of existence.
