FIRE INSURANCE IN A POLITICAL ATMOSPHERE.

Down in St. John, N.B., politics have somehow become mixed with fire insurance matters. Briefly, the Opposition say that the fire insurance on the provincial hospital at Lancaster has been given out where it would strengthen the Government's hand. And Premier Hazen vigorously denies this imputation. In an interview, he says that at the time of the recent hospital fire the insurance on the buildings was $35,000, with $7,500 on the heating plant and $7,500 on the buildings' contents. This was too small a sum, and now the insurance has been increased to an even $100,000 on the buildings. On the Annex the old government carried no insurance on the main wing, neither on the barn and its contents, but they had $25,000 on portions of the building. Insurance has now been adjusted to cover the whole Annex property to the extent of $50,000. Hon. Mr. Hazen said that the government felt that the companies who were paying the losses were entitled to consideration, and renewed, or offered to renew, the policies of every one of them. All were renewed but those held by Messrs. Knowlton & Gilchrist and Mr. W. M. Jarvis. Mr. Knowlton declined the risk because of its nature, and Mr. Hazen said he was informed that Mr. Jarvis declined it on the ground that the rate was too low.

The loss in connection with the fire at the Provincial Hospital Lancaster, N.B., has been appraised at $46,211. There was $35,000 insurance on the buildings and $7,500 on the plant.
