Upper Canada College, } TORONTO, ONT.

Principal, G. R. Parkin, C.M.G., LL.D.
Prepares Boys for the Universities and the Special Colleges. Founded 1829.

The staff of the College now includes fourteen masters holding degrees from English and Canadian Universities, with other special instructors. Large grounds, excellent equipment, preparatory department for small boys, newly finished hospital for dealing with infectious diseases. An English professional for cricket.

Fee for Boarders, $300.00; Day Boys, $75.00 per annum.

As the boarding and class room space of the College is now taken up, only a limited number of applications can be received until new buildings are provided. Vacancies will be filled in the order of application from this date, preference being given to younger boys.
Calendar, Application Papers, and Clothes List may be obtained from the Bursar.
November, 1900.
