

No. 7

BOAT EDITION—NOVEMBER, 1917

PRICE 1c.

(Despatches by Marconi Wireless to O.C. Troops, H.M.T. Canada, at Sea)

FRENCH AND BRITISH TROOPS FIGHTING WITH ITALIANS.

Rome. Nov. 10th. Franco-British Troops have arrived at the Italian front. This welcome information was revealed today in the announcement that Premier Lloyd George and other British Officials are at the front inspecting the Allied re-inforcements.

It is now believed that the crucial battle will be fought along the Piave River.

ANOTHER MOVE TO SAVE RUSSIA FOR ALLIES.

London. Nov. 10 - Russia may yet be saved. Hope that the new Republic will be a factor in the war on the side of the Allies was held out here today when Kerensky had made his escape from Petrograd. Kerensky is believed to be on his way to the front. The best fighters of the Russian Army are almost certain to run up with the Premier, if he will pledge that no attempts will be made to conciliate the Extremists, but that they will be dealt with in a vigorous manner.

NO MORE MONEY FOR RUSSIA FROM UNCLE SAM.

WASHINGTON D. C. While the present turmoil continues, it is unlikely that the United States will advance any more money to Russia. There is no disposition on the part of the U.S. to furnish any funds that might eventually find their way into Germany.

ITALIANS HOLD UP AUSTRO-GERMAN ADVANCE.

Washington D.C. No. 10 - Official dispatches to the Italian Embassy show that the Italian retreat has been checked and that counter-attacks are already being launched against the Austro-Germans.