

relations between Canada and France and throughout the world. They declare that their guiding purposes include the adoption of measures designed to promote employment, the production and consumption of goods, and the expansion of commerce through appropriate international agreements on commercial policy, with the object of contributing to the attainment of all the economic objectives set forth in the Declaration of August 14, 1941, known as the Atlantic Charter.

N° 12
ARTICLE XI

This agreement will take effect as from this day's date. It shall apply to war supplies furnished to the French Committee of National Liberation by the Government of Canada under the authority of the War Appropriation (United Nations Mutual Aid) Act of Canada, 1943, or substituted Act, including supplies furnished under the said Act before the conclusion of this agreement. It shall continue in force until a date to be agreed upon by the Government of Canada and the French Committee of National Liberation.

Dated at Ottawa this fourteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and forty-four.
