

- Canadian investment in Syria, which was about $2.5 million in 1999, was concentrated primarily in the service sector. The four Canadian companies active in Syria are Raytheon Canada, Canadian Bank Note, SNC Lavalin, and Titan Projects.
- Opportunities for Canadian companies exist in the oil and gas, electrical power equipment and services, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, and food processing machinery sectors.