

APPENDIX III

Chronology of Recent Cambodian Events

September 1991: Paris Peace Accords signed

January 1992: National Election Committee (NEC) named

February 27, 1992: conflict intensifies between Rainsudde and BEAF forces

July 26, 1992: date of first Cambodian-run elections since Paris Accords

July 2, 1997: factional fighting between troops loyal to CPP and FUNCINPEC breaks out in capital

July 1997: Pol Pot tried and convicted by the Khmer Rouge

January 30, 1997: grenade thrown into CPP rally in Phnom Penh, killing 19

July 1997: Kinser (Kong) outlawed and a month earlier outlawed in southern Cambodia

July 1997: BEAF begins mass bordering Thailand

April 1997: present fighting between forces loyal to Prince Rainsudde, assisted by Kinser Rouge

April 1997: BEAF begins mass bordering Thailand

April 1997: present fighting between forces loyal to Prince Rainsudde, assisted by Kinser Rouge

July 2, 1997: factional fighting between troops loyal to CPP and FUNCINPEC breaks out in capital

July 1997: Kinser (Kong) outlawed and a month earlier outlawed in southern Cambodia

July 1997: BEAF begins mass bordering Thailand

April 1997: present fighting between forces loyal to Prince Rainsudde, assisted by Kinser Rouge

April 1997: BEAF begins mass bordering Thailand

January 30, 1997: grenade thrown into CPP rally in Phnom Penh, killing 19

July 26, 1992: date of first Cambodian-run elections since Paris Accords

February 27, 1992: conflict intensifies between Rainsudde and BEAF forces

January 1992: National Election Committee (NEC) named

September 1991: Paris Peace Accords signed