

3. If the competent institution of a Party requires that a claimant or a beneficiary who resides in the territory of the other Party undergo a medical examination, the liaison body of the latter Party, at the request of the liaison body of the first Party, shall make arrangements for carrying out this examination. If the medical examination is carried out exclusively for the use of the institution which requests it, that liaison body shall reimburse the liaison body of the other Party for the costs of the examination. However, if the medical examination is for the use of both liaison bodies, there shall be no reimbursement of costs.

4. Unless disclosure is required under the laws of a Party, any information about a person which is transmitted in accordance with this Agreement to that Party by the other Party is confidential and shall be used only for purposes of implementing this Agreement and the legislation to which this Agreement applies.

ARTICLE 20

Exemption or Reduction of Taxes, Dues, Fees and Charges

1. Any exemption from or reduction of taxes, legal dues, consular fees and administrative charges for which provision is made in the legislation of a Party in connection with the issuing of any certificate or document required to be produced for the application of that legislation shall be extended to certificates or documents required to be produced for the application of the legislation of the other Party.

2. Any documents of an official nature required to be produced for the application of this Agreement shall be exempt from any authentication by diplomatic or consular authorities and similar formality.

ARTICLE 21

Language of Communication

For the application of this Agreement, the competent authorities and institutions of the Parties may communicate directly with one another in any official language of either Party.