

- (ii) for Canada: the competent authority.
- (f) The term “insurance period” means:
 - (i) for France: any period recognized as such by the legislation under which it was completed as well as any period recognized as equivalent to an insurance period;
 - (ii) for Canada: any period of contribution or residence that confers a right to a benefit under the legislation of Canada, including any period during which a disability benefit is payable under the Canada Pension Plan.

2. Any term not defined in this Article shall have the meaning assigned to it in the applicable legislation.

ARTICLE 2

Scope of Application

1. This Agreement shall apply to the following legislation:
 - (a) For France:
 - (i) legislation establishing the structure of social security;
 - (ii) legislation establishing the social insurance plan for salaried employees in non-agricultural occupations and legislation concerning social insurance for salaried employees in agricultural occupations;
 - (iii) legislation on prevention of and compensation for occupational accidents and illnesses; legislation concerning insurance against occupational accidents and illnesses for unsalaried workers in agricultural occupations;
 - (iv) legislation relating to family benefits;
 - (v) legislation concerning special social security plans, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement;
 - (vi) legislation concerning health and maternity insurance for self-employed workers in non-agricultural occupations and legislation concerning health, maternity, and disability insurance for self-employed workers in agricultural occupations;