

APPENDIX No. 7

been by intensive application to productive industry. Having said this, your Committee do not feel that they should leave the subject without strongly urging what they consider to be the paramount necessity at the present time, namely: the need of getting our people to see the situation as it is. Canada must get more men into productive activity if our people are going to cope with the conditions now confronting them. Your Committee desire to emphasize the need of united effort in order to restore the waste of the last five years so that Canada may be brought back to normal conditions. In the final analysis the solution of the whole problem rests in a willingness on the part of all the Canadian people to seize and make use of the splendid opportunities before them.

Your Committee, in accordance with the Resolution passed by this House on the 30th day of May last, have engaged the services of accountants and necessary assistants in order to expedite the inquiry for which they were then appointed. Their accounts have been presented to the Committee, were found reasonable and were approved. Your Committee recommend that they be paid.

Your Committee, in submitting this report for the consideration of the House and the Government also append hereto a copy of the evidence which has been printed from day to day for the use of the Committee, and do recommend that the remaining copies be bound under a paper cover for distribution to the members of the House, together with a table of contents to be prepared by the Clerk of the Committee, also to contain the second and third reports presented to the House and the statements or records which have been ordered printed as an appendix to the evidence given by the witnesses who submitted the said statements or records at the request of your Committee.

Your Committee also recommend that their reports, the evidence taken and the statements or records submitted in connection therewith, be also printed as an Appendix to the Journals of 1919, and that Rule 74 in relation thereto be suspended.

All which is respectfully submitted.

J. McCRIE DOUGLAS,
Acting Chairman.
