

- (b) for the purpose of computing an allowance under section eleven, he shall be deemed not to have elected to contribute the amount of the contributions to which the revocation applies and if the allowance has been calculated, it shall be recalculated accordingly; and
  - (c) he may not again at any time elect to make those contributions.
9. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act no contribution shall be paid under this Act by a member
- (a) unless, at the time when the contribution is to be paid, the total amount of the contributions that have been or elected to be paid by him is less than the amount that, at that time, is payable by way of sessional indemnity to a member who attends all the sittings of the House of Commons at a session that extends over a period of sixty-five days or more; or
  - (b) in respect of any session in the course of which he was expelled from the House of Commons.
- (2) In computing the total amount of the contributions that a member has paid or elected to pay under this Act, there shall not be included
- (a) any contributions in respect of which a withdrawal allowance has been paid under this Act;
  - (b) any contributions in respect of which his election has been revoked under subsection six of section eight; or
  - (c) any amount paid by him by way of interest.
- (3) Where a person makes a payment on account of the amount payable by him under subsection one of section eight, the part thereof that is the same proportion of the whole payment as the contribution specified in paragraph (a) of that subsection is of the aggregate of the amounts specified in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of that subsection is deemed to be paid in respect of the contribution specified in the said paragraph (a).

ALLOWANCES

10. (1) An allowance shall be paid in accordance with this Act to or in respect of a person who, being a member, ceases to be a member or dies.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act,
- (a) a person does not cease to be a member by reason only of the dissolution of the House of Commons, and
  - (b) a person who, immediately before a dissolution of the House of Commons, was a member, ceases to be a member if he is not elected as a member at the general election next following the dissolution, and he is deemed to have ceased to be a member on the day on which that general election was held.
11. (1) Subject to section fifteen, where a person, at the time he ceases to be a member, has contributed or elected to contribute under this Act in respect of sessions in more than two Parliaments, there shall be paid to him annually during his lifetime, an allowance equal to seventy-five per cent of the total amount of the contributions that he has paid and elected to pay under this Act.
- (2) An allowance payable under this section shall be paid monthly in arrears in approximately equal instalments.
